209.05	Who are agents.

209.01 Deposits of insurers. (1) ACCEPTANCE AND APPROVAL. The state treasurer shall accept, subject to the approval of the commissioner of insurance, deposits of securities by insurers as follows:

(a) Deposits in amount as required to be made as prerequisite to a certificate of authority to transact business in this state and other deposits required by the laws of this state.

(b) Deposits of domestic insurers or insurers of foreign countries in amount as required to be made by the laws of other states as prerequisite for authority to transact insurance in such other states.

(c) Deposits in amount as resulting from application of the retaliatory provisions of section 76.35.

(d) Deposits in other additional amounts permitted to be made by the laws of this state.

(2) IN TRUST FOR POLICYHOLDERS. Each such deposit except the deposits required under sections 200.04 (4) and 209.02 shall be held by the state treasurer in trust for the protection of all policyholders of the insurer making it; except that deposits of insurers of foreign countries shall be so held for the security of such insurers' obligations arising out of its transactions in the United States, and except as to deposits the purpose of which may be further limited pursuant to the retaliatory provisions of section 76.35.

(3) SECURITIES ELIGIBLE FOR DEPOSIT. All such deposits shall consist of bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness which are direct obligations of the United States with the proceeds to be available to the state treasurer.

(4) VALUATION OF SECURITIES ON DEPOSIT. Securities so deposited or held on deposit shall be valued at their market value in the same manner as like investments of domestic insurers.

(5) RECEIPT AND RECORD OF DEPOSITS. The state treasurer shall deliver to the insurer a receipt for all securities deposited and shall, on application of the insurer, issue such certificate of such deposit as may be required by any law of the United States or of any other state or foreign country or by the order of any court of competent jurisdiction. The commissioner shall keep a record in permanent form of securities deposited by insurers and of any transfers or withdrawals of such deposits.

(6) TRANSFER OF SECURITIES. No transfer of securities so held on deposit, whether voluntary or by operation of law, shall be valid unless approved in writing by the commissioner of insurance, and countersigned by the state treasurer or by their authorized deputies.

(7) INTEREST AND SUBSTITUTIONS. While solvent and complying with the provisions of the laws of this state an insurer shall be entitled:

(a) To receive interest and dividends accruing on the securities so held on deposit for its account, as provided in section 14.42;

(b) From time to time to exchange and substitute any of such securities for other securities eligible for deposit and of equal value.

(8) RELEASE OF DEPOSIT. (a) Any such required deposit shall be released in these instances only:

1. Upon extinguishment of all liabilities of the insurer for the security of which the deposit is held, by reinsurance contract or otherwise.

2. If any such deposit or portion thereof is no longer required under the laws of this state or of any other state or foreign country.

3. If the deposit has been made pursuant to the retaliatory provisions of section 76.35, it shall be released in whole or in part when no longer required.

4. Upon proper order of a court of competent jurisdiction, the deposit shall be released to the receiver, conservator, rehabilitator or liquidator of the insurer for whose account the deposit is held.

(b) No such release shall be made except on application to and written order of the commissioner of insurance made on proof satisfactory to him of the existence of one of such grounds therefor. The commissioner of insurance and the state treasurer shall have no personal liability for any release of any deposit or part thereof so made by them in good faith.

(c) All releases of deposits or any part thereof shall be made to the person then entitled thereto upon proof of title satisfactory to the commissioner of insurance and state treasurer.

(9) PARTIAL RELEASE OF DEPOSITS. Any part of any deposit of an insurer held by the state treasurer on May 17, 1947, which is in amount in excess of the deposit required or permitted to be made by such insurer under the laws of this state or of any other state or foreign country, shall, upon written order of the commissioner of insurance, be released. The provisions of subsection (8) (b) shall apply to such partial release.

(10) VOLUNTARY EXCESS DEPOSIT. An insurer may deposit and maintain on deposit with the state treasurer eligible securities in amount exceeding its required deposit for the purpose of absorbing fluctuations in the value of securities held in its required deposit, and to facilitate the exchange and substitution of such required securities. During the solvency of the insurer any such excess deposit or any part thereof shall be released to it upon request. During the insolvency of the insurer such excess deposit shall be released only as provided in section 209.01 (8).

(11) NOT SUBJECT TO LEVY. No judgment creditor or other claimant of an insurer shall levy upon any deposit held pursuant to this section.

209.02 Insurance and benefit associations; advance deposit of fees. Any fraternal benefit society or other insurer required to pay fees to the state through the commissioner, may, subject to the approval of said commissioner, make a deposit with the state treasurer, from which any such fees shall be paid, as ordered by the commissioner, which shall not be less than twice each year. Any balance remaining from any such deposit at the end of any calendar year may, upon the certificate of said commissioner, be returned to the depositor.

209.03 Nonpayment of judgment, bar to business; forfeitures. No insurance company or mutual benefit society, order or association against which a judgment as an insurer shall have been recovered in this state shall, after sixty days from the rendition of such judgment and while the same remains unpaid, issue any policy in this state; and in case such insurer or its officers shall violate this section it shall forfeit one thousand dollars. And any agent thereof who shall knowingly violate the same shall forfeit not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars; provided, that if an appeal is taken said sixty days shall not begin to run until after the case has been remitted to the trial court. If the judgment appealed from shall be affirmed, any surety company which shall have executed any undertaking to stay proceedings upon such judgment, or to guarantee the payment or performance thereof, if such surety company shall not, within thirty days after notice of the filing of the remittitur, perform its undertaking in respect thereto, it shall forfeit its rights to transact such business in this state until it shall have fully performed such undertaking.

209.04 Agents, license, commissions, eligibility. (1) No person, officer, or broker, agent or subagent of any insurance company required to pay any tax or license fee to the state shall act or aid in any manner in transacting the business of or with such company in placing risks or in collecting premiums or assessments or effecting insurance therein, without he holds an unexpired and unrevoked certificate of authority from the insurance company.

(2) Such certificate shall be issued only by the officers or resident agent of such company signing its policies or a person authorized thereto in writing by such officers or resident agent, after a copy of such authority has been filed in the office of the commissioner; the certificates shall be in the form prescribed by the commissioner and numbered consecutively as issued; and a statement of the names and residences of all persons to whom such certificates are issued, together with the fees provided for certificates to agents, shall be mailed to the commissioner on the day the certificates are issued. Such certificate may be revoked for cause by the commissioner of insurance after a hearing.

(3) (a) All certificates of authority issued on or after May 1, 1948 and before November 1, 1948 shall expire November 1, 1948. The fees to be charged for such certificates of authority shall be 50 per cent of the annual fee provided for certificates to agents. On or after November 1, 1948, any certificate of authority issued to an agent by an insurance company shall authorize him to act as such agent during the time for which the company appointing him is authorized to do an insurance business in this state and during the time for which the company has paid the fees provided for certificates of authority and during the time he is a bona fide resident of this state. Upon cancellation of such certificate of authority by the commissioner of insurance or by the company, such certificate of authority shall be promptly returned to the commissioner of insurance.

(b) Annually, and prior to November 1 of each year, every company shall file with the commissioner of insurance an alphabetical list by towns of all its agents whose certificates of authority are to remain in effect, with the correct office address and pay the fees provided in section 200.13 (3). The company shall also file with the commissioner of insurance a list of all its agents whose certificates of authority have been canceled by the company. Any change in the address of an agent holding a certificate of authority shall be promptly reported to the commissioner of insurance by the agent and by the company that has issued such certificate of authority.

(4) Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars for each offense. Any company violating subsection (2) of this section shall pay five times the amount of fees upon each license included in such violation.

(5) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the proper exchange of business between lawfully licensed resident agents of this state.

(6) No corporation shall be licensed as agent of any insurance company for the purpose mentioned in subsection (1).

(7) The word "solicitor" means a natural person, residing in this state and recommended in writing by an agent to solicit risks and collect premiums for all kinds of insurance other than life insurance. Such solicitors shall be appointed on application, the form of which shall be prescribed by the commissioner of insurance. The application shall be signed by the applicant and by a regularly licensed insurance agent. Such license may be renewed annually as of May first of each year upon application. The annual fee for such license shall be two dollars. This fee shall be paid by the solicitor. This subsection shall not apply to solicitors of insurance in domestic mutual insurance companies.

209.045 Insurance advisers. No person, firm or corporation acting in the capacity of an insurance adviser, counselor or analyst and as such serving any person, firm or corporation not engaged in the insurance business for compensation paid or to be paid by the person served, shall directly or indirectly receive any part of commission or compensation paid by any insurer or agent of any insurer in connection with the sale or writing of any insurance which is within the subject matter of any such service. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $500 or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than 30 days nor more than 90 days, or both.

209.05 Who are agents. Every person or member of a firm or corporation who solicits insurance on behalf of any insurance company or person desiring insurance of any kind, or transmits an application for a policy of insurance, other than for himself, to or from any such company, or who makes any contract for insurance, or collects any premium for insurance, or in any manner aids or assists in doing either, or in transacting any business of like nature for any insurance company, or advertises to do any such thing, shall be held to be an agent of such company to all intents and purposes, unless it can be shown that he receives no compensation for such services. This section shall not apply to agents of town mutual fire insurance companies.

209.06 Insurance; application; effect. (1) No oral or written statement, representation or warranty made by the insured or in his behalf in the negotiation of a contract of insurance shall be deemed material or defeat or avoid the policy, unless such statement, representation or warranty was false and made with intent to deceive, or unless the matter misrepresented or made a warranty increased the risk or contributed to the loss.

(2) No breach of a warranty in a policy shall defeat or avoid such policy unless the breach of such warranty increased the risk at the time of the loss, or contributed to the loss, or existed at the time of the loss.

(3) This section applies to fraternal benefit societies.

209.07 Estoppel by report of medical examiner, effect of fraud. If the medical examiner of any life or disability insurance company shall issue a certificate of health, or declare the applicant a fit subject for insurance, or so report to the company or its agent under the rules and regulations of such company, it shall thereby be estopped from setting up in defense of an action on a policy issued thereon that the insured was not in the condition of health required by the policy at the time of the issue or delivery thereof, unless the same was procured by or through the fraud or deceit of the insured. This section shall apply to fraternal benefit societies.
