252.01 Term of office. The term of office of every elected circuit judge is 6 years, and until his successor is elected and qualified, which term commences with the first Monday in January next succeeding his election.

History: 1951 c. 257, 402; 1953 c. 327, 606.

252.015 Each branch a circuit court. Each branch of circuit court constitutes a court with all the powers and jurisdiction possessed by circuit courts in circuits having one judge only, and may be designated in all papers and proceedings either by its respective number or by the name of its presiding judge.

History: 1953 c. 327.

252.016 Second circuit; domestic conciliation. (1) APPLICATION OF SECTION. This section shall apply only to the second judicial circuit.

(2) JUDGES CONFER, MAKE RULES; FAMILY COURT BRANCH. (a) The judges shall meet and divide the business of the whole circuit, apportioning to each branch its due portion thereof, and to that end they may make such rules and institute such measures as they shall determine will promote justice and expedite business.

(b) The said judges shall for periods of 2 years or such times as they may determine designate 2 or more of their number who shall devote their time primarily to divorce litigation and to such other work as is incidental thereto and which is generally described as the work of a family or domestic relations court; and the branches presided over by the judges so designated shall be known as the "Family Court Branches." The judges of such branches shall meet from time to time and divide their work, apportioning to each branch its due portion thereof. In case of the absence, sickness or other disability of either of such judges other judges shall be designated to assist temporarily in the performance of the work of such family court.

(c) All suits, actions, and proceedings in said circuit court arising as follows:

1. Under ch. 245 relating to marriage;
2. Under ch. 247 relating to divorce;
3. Pertaining to the determination of the custody of children under 18 years of age upon writs of habeas corpus;
4. Pertaining to all family and parental affairs not specifically vested in some other court or branch thereof in the county; shall be first assigned to the 2 family court branches as may be determined by rules of court.

(d) Either of said judges of said family court branches shall have the power and authority in his discretion to refer for disposition any matter before said branch for which there has been a warrant issued to any court otherwise having jurisdiction over such matter.

(3) COURT ROOM; OFFICES; SALARY FROM COUNTY. The county board shall provide suitable court rooms and offices, the sheriff shall provide the necessary deputy sheriffs as attending officers and the clerk of the circuit court shall provide a sufficient number of deputy clerks for all the judges and branches of said court. The county shall pay to each such judge a salary of $1,000 per annum and may pay to each judge an additional $1,000 per annum, payable monthly out of the county treasury, in addition to the salary paid him out of the state treasury and any amount paid him by authority of s. 252.071.

(4) DEPARTMENT OF DOMESTIC CONCILIATION. (a) There is created a department of domestic conciliation. Said department shall be under the direction and supervision of a director of domestic conciliation. Said director of domestic conciliation, through his respective assistants shall:

1. Receive all domestic complaints and make a proper disposition thereof;
2. Make investigations of the facts upon which to base warrants in the cases hereinbefore specified and in all other matters duly referred to said department;
3. Exercise such supervision in connection with the exercise by said court of its jurisdiction as the judges thereof may duly order.

(b) All persons in this department shall keep such records as may be provided by the rules of the judges of the family court branches of said court. Whenever the judges of said family court branches deem publication of matters before them contrary to public policy they may by order close the files thereof and make such other orders in their discretion as may be in the interest of children in such matters and the public morals.

(c) Said department of domestic conciliation shall have such men and women investigators as may from time to time be authorized by the county board of supervisors of such county. Said investigators shall be appointed by the joint action of the judges of the family court branches of the circuit court under the laws governing civil service in such county.

(e) The county board of supervisors of such county shall provide for such assistants, stenographic and otherwise, as shall be necessary to assist the director of domestic conciliation in carrying out the purpose of subs. (4) to (6) particularly in regard to the proper disposal of domestic complaints. Such director and all other persons in said department shall be appointed by the judges of the family court branches of the circuit court under the laws governing civil service in such county, except in cases otherwise expressly provided for.

(f) All public officers in said county shall refer all domestic complaints made to them to said director of the department of domestic conciliation who shall dispose of all matters before it in proper manner.

(5) SECOND CIRCUIT EQUIPMENT. The board of supervisors of said county shall furnish said courts and said department of domestic conciliation, the judges, officers and employes thereof with suitable accommodations, adequately centralized and consolidated, and with the necessary furniture and supplies and make provision for its necessary expenses and operation.

(6) CIVIL SERVICE. The board of supervisors and county civil service commission shall make suitable reclassifications in positions in said county to accomplish the purpose of subs. (4) to (6).

History: 1951 c. 247 s. 48; 1953 c. 327.

252.03 Jurisdiction of circuit courts. The circuit courts have the general jurisdiction prescribed for them by the constitution and have power to issue all writs, process and commissions provided therein or by the statutes, or which may be necessary to the due execution of the powers vested in them. They have power to hear and determine, within their respective circuits, all civil actions and proceedings and all cases of crimes and misdemeanors of every kind not exclusively cognizable by a justice of the peace or some other inferior court; and they have all the powers, according to the usages of courts of law and equity, necessary to the full and complete jurisdiction of the causes and parties and the full and complete administration of justice, and to carry into effect their judgments, orders and other determinations, subject to re-examination by the supreme court as provided by law. Said courts and the judges thereof have power to award all such writs, process and commissions, throughout the state, returnable in the proper county.

The circuit court for Dodge county was not without jurisdiction of an independent equitable action for relief from a judgment of divorce entered in the circuit court for Dane county. The better rule is to commence an action for equitable relief from a judgment in the court where the original action was tried but, such action for equitable relief being an independent action, it may, like any other action, be tried in any county, subject to the defendants' right to have the case transferred. Weber v. Weber, 260 W 420, 51 NW (2d) 18.

252.031 Circuit judge acting as county judge. The judges of the circuit courts shall have power to perform all duties of county judge in any county, including the duties of judge of the juvenile court, whenever requested to act as county judge by the county judge of any county who is unable to act on account of his inability or disability, and whenever requested to act as county judge by the chairman of the board of circuit judges in case any county judge is totally disabled or if the office is vacant.

History: 1951 c. 35.

252.04 Writs, how issued; certiorari. All writs issued from the circuit court shall be in the name of the state of Wisconsin, shall bear date the day they are issued, be attested in the name of the judge of the circuit in which issued, and if there be no such judge then in the name of the chief justice of the supreme court, be returnable on the first day of the term next succeeding the date of their issue, unless otherwise directed by law, by the judge or by rule of court, be signed by the clerk, sealed with the seal of the court and directed to some officer or person authorized to serve or execute the same. All writs of certiorari issued to review any action taken by any county board, town board, common council of any city or board of trustees of any village, or any record lawfully in the custody of any county clerk, town clerk, city or village clerk may be addressed to and served upon the proper county clerk, town clerk, city clerk or village clerk, respectively, who shall make return thereto.

A writ of certiorari is not one of right, but is granted in the sound discretion of the court. The petitioner is not entitled to relief in an action of certiorari unless he has sustained an injury from the ruling in the proceeding sought to be reviewed. (Property tax) State ex rel. Goldsmith Bldg. Co. v. Bolan, 259 W 460, 49 NW (2d) 409.

A writ of certiorari to review the proceedings of a tribunal no longer in existence must go to the officer having possession of the record. Petition of Bradt, 260 W 1, 49 NW (2d) 903.

The action of the county clerk in setting up the machinery for a referendum election to approve an order of the county school committee creating a school district is reviewable by certiorari, to determine whether the clerk acted within his jurisdiction in calling a referendum, since there is no statute authorizing an appeal and there is no other adequate remedy. The writ was properly directed to the secretary of the county school committee, since the records required to be returned for consideration of the petition for the writ were in his custody; and the fact that the petition was for a writ also directed to other officials did not affect the court's jurisdiction to act thereon. State ex rel. Oelke v. Doepke, 260 W 493, 51 NW (2d) 10.

For discussion of use of certiorari where statutory appeal is given, see notes to 40.03, citing Perkins v. Peacock, 263 W 644, 58 NW (2d) 536.

The holding in State ex rel. Vaughn v. Ashland, 71 W 502, that the creation of an exclusive right of appeal by the legislature, so as to preclude maintaining certiorari as an alternative remedy, would be a violation of sec. 8, art. VII, Const., empowering circuit courts to issue writs of certiorari, is expressly disapproved. Perkins v. Peacock, 263 W 644, 58 NW (2d) 536.

Certiorari is a discretionary writ. State ex rel. Hron Brothers Co. v. Port Washington, 265 W 507, 62 NW (2d) 1.

See note to sec. 3, art. VII, citing State ex rel. Hynek Co. v. Board, 267 W 309, 64 NW (2d) 741.

If a county school committee, in allowing tuition claims of school districts, acted in clear violation of law, its error would be jurisdictional and subject to review by certiorari. Joint School Dist. v. Boyd, 270 W 222, 70 NW (2d) 630.

252.05 Seals. The circuit courts in the several counties shall have seals, and they may direct and from time to time alter the inscriptions and devices thereon; and the respective county boards shall furnish such seals as shall be ordered; and when any such court shall be unprovided with a seal the judge may authorize the use of any temporary seal or of any device by way of seal until a seal shall be so provided. The seals now in use by said courts shall continue to be the seals thereof until others shall be provided according to law.

252.071 Judge's salary from county. In every judicial circuit each county of such circuit may pay to each circuit judge of such circuit, a sum which shall not exceed in the aggregate $2,000 for the entire circuit as annual salary, payable as other salaries in said county, out of the county treasury, in addition to the salary paid him out of the state treasury and that provided for in s. 252.016 such sum as the county board of each county shall determine.

252.08 Board of circuit judges. (1) The several circuit judges of the state and the judge of any court having unlimited jurisdiction concurrent with the circuit court either in civil or criminal matters shall constitute a board known as the "Board of Circuit Judges." They shall meet at least once in each year at such time and place as they shall determine. They shall make such rules and regulations as they shall deem advisable, not inconsistent with the statutes or the rules of practice adopted by the justices of the supreme court, to promote the due and prompt administration of the judicial business of their respective courts. Said board shall elect a chairman whose duty it shall be to expedite and equalize so far as practicable the work of the said judges. The chairman shall request judges whose calendars are not congested to assist those judges whose calendars are congested. Every circuit judge shall report monthly, and every clerk and reporter of a circuit court shall report when requested, to the chairman such information as the latter shall request respecting the condition of judicial business in the circuit of such circuit judge. The chairman shall perform such other duties as the board shall prescribe.

252.09 Terms; jury. (1) TERMS. Every term of circuit court continues to the commencement of the next term in the same county.

(2) JURY. A jury shall be drawn and summoned to appear at 10 a.m. on the first day of each term, unless the presiding judge directs some other time or directs that no jury shall be summoned. History: Sup. Ct. Order, 259 W v; 1953 c. 104; Sup. Ct. Order, 265 W v.

Where notice of entry of an order granting a new trial was served on the defendant's attorneys on April 10th, and the term of circuit court expired on May 14th, and the defendant on April 18th served notice of a motion to vacate the order for a new trial, but the court, after extending the time for hearing motions after verdict for proper periods, did not make an order extending the time for a further period until July 17th, the court then, on July 17th, had lost jurisdiction to hear and decide motions after verdict and to review its order of April 10th under the 60-day provisions of 252.10 (1). (Statement in Barrock v. Barrock, 257 W 565, 569, as to motion for modification of judgment, made within 60 days, invoking "continuing jurisdiction" of the court under 252.10 (1) is withdrawn.) The trial court had not lost jurisdiction to enter judgment on the verdict. Wegner v. Chicago & N. W. R. Co. 262 W 402, 55 NW (2d) 420.

252.11 Special terms. Every term in any county is a special term for every other county in the same circuit, unless the presiding judge files with the clerk of the court at least twelve days before the term an order directing otherwise as to any such other county. At any term in any county which is by law a special term for any other county or counties, all business may be done arising in such other county or counties, which might be done at a term in the county where the business arose except the trial of issues of fact by a jury in cases other than those arising in actions of quo warranto and mandamus, and excepting also the trial of issues of fact in actions made local by law and arising in some county other than the one in which such special term is held. All orders, findings and judgments made, and papers filed in connection therewith at any special term, shall be authenticated by the clerk of such court and filed and entered of record in the office of the clerk of the circuit court in the county where the action or proceeding is pending; and no entries need be made in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of any other county.

252.12 Transmittal of papers. For the purpose of the trial or hearing of any action or proceeding at any special term the clerk of the court shall, at the request of either of the parties, transmit all the papers on file in such action or proceeding, under his official certificate, certifying the same to be all the original files and papers therein on file in his office. Such papers, so certified, shall be inclosed by such clerk in an envelope, sealed by him, directed to the clerk of the circuit court of the county where such special term is to be or is being held, and may be transmitted by mail or by the hand of any person selected by such clerk; and after the trial or hearing of such action or proceeding the clerk last above named shall in like manner remit the same to the clerk of the court in which such action or proceeding is pending; but before any clerk shall be obliged to transmit any such papers he shall be paid all necessary postage, and the clerk remitting the same shall also be paid his fees in such action or proceeding.

See note to 59.42, citing 42 Atty. Gen. 330.

252.13 Holding court in other circuits. (1) Any circuit judge may hold court and perform any judicial act in any judicial circuit of the state other than the one for which he was elected or appointed, upon the request of the judge of such other circuit or of the chairman of the board of circuit judges; and it shall be the duty of any circuit judge to comply with any such request of the chairman unless the chairman shall relieve him from performance after such request is made.

(2) Terms required by law to be held in any circuit at times when there is a vacancy in the office of judge of such circuit and at times when such judge on account of absence, sickness or disability is unable to call in another judge shall be held by a judge or judges designated for that purpose by the chairman of the board of circuit judges.

(3) Whenever any judge, upon such request, attends a term out of his circuit to assist another judge holding court at such term, both he and the other judge may hold court and try cases separately at the same time and exercise all the powers of a presiding judge at such term.

252.14 Court commissioners. (1) In each county the circuit judge or judges shall appoint such number of court commissioners as the proper transaction of business requires, subject to the following limitations: in circuits having a population in excess of 500,000, not more than 2 commissioners shall be appointed by each circuit judge; in all other circuits, not more than 10 commissioners shall be appointed for each county whose population exceeds 65,000, and not more than 6 commissioners for each county whose population is less than 65,000; the appointments to be distributed evenly among the judges if the circuit has more than one judge. All court commissioners appointed after May 1, 1953, other than official court reporters or persons who have served as official court reporters in any court of record in this state for period of not less than 5 years, shall be attorneys licensed to practice in this state except in counties where a sufficient number of such licensed attorneys are not available. Each circuit judge shall have power at will and without cause to remove any court commissioner appointed by him or by his predecessor in office. The term of each court commissioner, unless removed by the judge, shall continue until the expiration of the term of the judge who appointed him and until the successor of such commissioner is appointed and qualified. Each commissioner before entering upon the duties of his office shall take and subscribe the constitutional oath of office and file the same duly certified, together with his appointment, in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of the county for which he is appointed.

(2) In counties having a population of 500,000 or more, the divorce counsel, assistant divorce counsels and, in all counties, retired circuit judges appointed to act as conciliators pursuant to s. 269.70 may be appointed court commissioners, in addition to those appointed under sub. (1). The term of court commissioners appointed under this subsection and acting as divorce counsel or assistant divorce counsel shall be coextensive with their tenure of office. The term of court commissioners appointed to act as conciliators under s. 269.70 shall continue until a successor is appointed and qualifies.

History: 1953 c. 100, 441, 610; 1955 c. 415, 420.

252.15 Court commissioners; powers and duties. (1) TESTIMONIAL POWERS. A court commissioner may issue subpoenas and attachments and other process to compel the attendance of witnesses; administer oaths and affidavits; take depositions and testimony when authorized by law or rule or order of any court within its jurisdiction; and certify and report said depositions and testimony.

(2) CERTIFICATION OF RECORD FOR REVIEW OF HIS RULINGS. The commissioner may at any time certify the record taken on a deposition to the court for review of such of his rulings as he indicates; he shall certify it on motion of a party at the conclusion of the taking, noting the rulings which either party desires reviewed. If the court orders a person to answer questions which were not answered on the deposition, such matters may be further developed on return of the record.

(3) ACKNOWLEDGMENTS, ETC. He may take and certify acknowledgments; state accounts referred to him by the court; and fix the amount and sufficiency of bail.

(4) WRITS. He may allow writs of habeas corpus, certiorari, ne exeat and alternative writs of mandamus; and may grant injunctions except in the cases mentioned in section 133.07 (2).

(5) POWER AND RESTRICTIONS ON POWER TO MAKE ORDERS. He has the powers and is subject to the restrictions thereon of a circuit judge at chambers; but when the authorization is to the presiding judge or the circuit judge—using such words of designation—a court commissioner cannot act.

(6) PUNISH CONTEMPTS. He has power concurrent with that of a circuit judge at chambers to punish disobedience of his lawful orders made in proceedings pending before him, but subject to review by the circuit court or by the court in which the proceeding is pending if it is pending in a different court.

(7) RECORD OF PROCEEDINGS; WHEN FILED. He shall keep a record of proceedings before him and at the expiration of his term shall deliver such record and all his official papers to the clerk of the circuit court.

(8) MUNICIPALITIES EXTENDING INTO 2 COUNTIES. A court commissioner who resides in a city or village which is located partly in one county and partly in another may keep his office and exercise his authority as commissioner and enforce his orders anywhere in such city or village as well as throughout the county of his residence, the same as he could do if the city or village was entirely in the county in which he resides.
