History: 1955 c. 696 s. 180.

53.11 Credit for good conduct; forfeiture for bad; parole. (1) The warden or superintendent shall keep a record of the conduct of each inmate, specifying each infraction of the rules. Each inmate who shall conduct himself in a proper manner and perform all the duties required of him shall be entitled to good time or diminution of sentence according to the following table, prorated for any part of a year: First year, one month; second year, 2 months; third year, 3 months; fourth year, 4 months; fifth year, 5 months; every year thereafter, 6 months.

(2) Any inmate who violates any regulation of the prison or refuses or neglects to perform the duties required of him shall be subject to forfeiture of any good time previously granted or earned under this chapter, 5 days for the first offense, 10 days for the second offense and 20 days for the third or each subsequent offense. Good time so forfeited shall not be restored. In addition, the department, or the warden or the superintendent, with the approval of the department, may cancel all or part of such good time.

(2a) A parolee earns good time at the rate prescribed in this section. The department may forfeit all or part of the good time previously earned under this chapter, for violation of the conditions of parole, whether or not the parole is revoked for such misconduct.

(3) Whenever any inmate is committed under several convictions with separate consecutive sentences they shall be construed as one continuous sentence for the purpose of computing good time earned or forfeited under this section. All other sentences, whenever imposed, shall be deemed first sentences for purpose of computing good time; but no more good time shall be granted for any one year than is specified in subsection (1), as modified by section 53.12 (1).

(4) An inmate may waive his good time.

(5) The time during which an inmate who escaped is at large shall not be computed as time served.

(6) Allowances for good conduct earned in any institution shall be allowed in the institution to which an inmate may be transferred.

(b) Any person on parole under this subsection may be returned to prison as provided in s. 57.06 (3) or s. 57.07 (2) to serve the remainder of his sentence. He may earn good time on the balance of such sentence while so in prison, subject to forfeiture thereof for misconduct as herein provided. Subject to the approval of the department, he may again be released on parole thereafter under either this section or s. 57.06 or s. 57.07, whichever is applicable. The remainder of his sentence shall be deemed to be the amount by which his original sentence was reduced by good time.

(8) Releases from the prisons, except those under ch. 57, shall be on the Tuesday or the Wednesday preceding the release date.

History: 1951 c. 256; 1953 c. 71; 1955 c. 42, 44.

53.12 Credit for diligence; earnings; reward of merit. (1) In addition to the credit for good conduct prescribed in section 53.11, every inmate whose diligence in labor or study surpasses the general average is entitled to a diminution of time at the rate of one day for each 6 days during which he shows such diligence. The diminution shall be made under the rules of the department.

(2) The department may provide by rules for the payment of wages to inmates. The rate of such wages may vary for different prisoners in accordance with the pecuniary value of the work performed, willingness, and good behavior.

(3) If by continued good conduct, diligence or otherwise, an inmate surpasses the general average, the department may provide by rules to compensate him therefor by the allowance of money.

(4) Money accruing under this section remains under the control of the department, to be used for the benefit of the inmate or his family or dependents, under rules prescribed by the department as to time, manner and amount of disbursements; but if he escapes or becomes a fugitive from justice or commits a breach of discipline, the department may declare forfeited all earnings remaining to his credit, and such remainder shall be replaced in the fund from which it came.

See note to 56.01, citing 41 Atty. Gen. 199.

53.13 Property of inmates; donations and transportation on discharge. The money and effects (except clothes) in possession of an inmate when admitted to the prison shall be preserved and shall be restored to him when discharged. When released on discharge or parole he shall be given adequate clothing and $10 in money in addition to transportation or the means to procure transportation from the prison to any place in this state. If released on parole the $10 shall be given under rules promulgated by the department.

History: 1953 c. 71.

Warden of state prison is not required to furnish transportation or the means to procure transportation when the convict upon discharge or parole is met by a peace officer or by friends or relatives with an automobile, since it was the legislative intent that transportation be furnished only when necessary. 41 Atty. Gen. 249.

53.14 Property of deceased inmates, parolees or probationers, disposition. When an inmate of a prison or a parolee of an institution or a person on probation to the state department of public welfare dies leaving an estate of $150 or less in the trust of the warden, the superintendent or the director of the state department of public welfare, such warden, superintendent or director shall make effort to determine whether or not such estate is to be probated. If probate proceedings are not commenced within 90 days, the warden, the superintendent or the director is authorized and directed to turn over the money or securities in his hands to the nearest of kin as evidenced by the records of the institution and the department.

History: 1953 c. 71; 1955 c. 43.

53.15 Activities off grounds; home for women. The superintendent of the Wisconsin home for women may take inmates away from the institution grounds for rehabilitative activities directly supervised by institution personnel for the purpose of donating blood to blood banks, attending lifesaving classes, gymnastic training, and vocational activities not available at the institution and participating in invitational appearances of selected groups.

History: 1955 c. 558.

53.17 Register of inmates. When any inmate is received into any state penal institution the department shall register the date of admission, the name, age, nativity and nationality and such other facts as may be obtained as to parentage, education and previous history and environments of such inmate. Entries shall be made on the register of the progress made by each inmate and his parole and his condition at the time of parole and the progress made by him while on parole.

53.18 Transfers of inmates. (1) Inmates of the Wisconsin state reformatory may be transferred by the department to the Wisconsin state prison.

(2) Inmates of the Wisconsin state prison and of the Milwaukee county house of correction (except those convicted of murder in the first or second degree) may be transferred to the reformatory or to the home for women and may be returned to the institution from which they were taken. If any county discontinues its workhouse or house of correction, inmates at the time of such discontinuance may be transferred to the state prison or to the county jail of the county as the commitment may indicate.

(4) With each person transferred to a state prison from another institution, the warden or superintendent of such other institution shall transmit copies of the original commitment and of his prison record of service, conduct and history.

(5) Any person who is legally transferred by the department to a penal institution shall be subject to the same statutes, regulations and discipline as if he had been originally sentenced to that institution, but the transfer shall not change the term of sentence.

History: 1955 c. 575.

Allowing transfer of certain inmates of Wisconsin school for girls to the Wisconsin home for women by the department of public welfare is a lawful delegation of authority and not unconstitutional. This authority not applicable to neglected or dependent children. 39 Atty. Gen. 334.

53.30 Definition of jail. As used in sections 53.30 to 53.43, the word "jail" includes municipal prisons by whatever name they are known.

53.31 Use of jails. The county jail may be used for the detention of persons charged with crime and committed for trial; for the detention of persons committed to secure their attendance as witnesses; to imprison persons committed pursuant to a sentence or held in custody by the sheriff for any cause authorized by law; for the detention of persons sentenced to imprisonment in state penal institutions or the Milwaukee county house of correction, until they are removed to said institutions; for the temporary detention of persons in the custody of the department; and for other detentions authorized by law.

53.32 Location of jails restricted. No jail, lockup or temporary place of confinement shall be erected within 300 feet of any public, private or parochial school building or building used regularly or principally for school purposes.

53.33 Maintenance of prisoners in county jail. The maintenance of persons who have been sentenced to the state penal institutions, persons in the custody of the department, persons accused of crime and committed for trial, persons committed for the non-payment of fines and expenses, and persons sentenced to imprisonment therein, while in the county jail, shall be paid out of the county treasury; but no claim shall be allowed to any sheriff for keeping or boarding any person in the county jail unless he was lawfully detained therein.

History: 1955 c. 76.

Cross Reference: 62.24 (2) (b) makes city liable for keep of person confined in county jail for violation of city ordinance.

County not liable to city for maintenance of prisoners arrested on the initiative of city police and confined in city jail. 38 Atty. Gen. 642.

While county board has no statutory authority to compel sheriff to maintain and furnish records of his expenditures for expense of feeding prisoners in county jail, he must nevertheless be able to furnish such records in order to substantiate any claim he may present to the county under 53.33, or to attack the fairness of any schedule of compensation for maintenance of prisoners adopted by the board under 59.15 (3). 39 Atty. Gen. 218.

53.34 Use of jail of another county. Courts, magistrates and officers of any county having no jail may sentence, commit or deliver any person to the jail of any other county as if such jail existed in their own county; and the sheriff of such other county shall receive and keep the prisoner in all respects as if committed from his county; but the cost of such keep shall be paid by the county from which the prisoner was sentenced, committed or delivered.

53.35 Removal of prisoners in emergency. In an emergency and for the safety of prisoners in any jail, the sheriff or other keeper may remove them to a place of safety and there confine them so long as necessary. If any county jail is destroyed or is insecure for keeping prisoners, the sheriff may remove them to some other county jail, where they shall be received and kept as if committed thereto, but at the expense of the county from which they were removed. An indorsement on the commitment of a prisoner, made by the sheriff in charge of such prisoner, directed to the sheriff of another county, shall be authority for the latter to hold the prisoner.

53.36 Segregation of prisoners. All jails shall be provided with suitable wards or buildings for the separation of criminals from noncriminals; persons of different sexes; and persons alleged to be mentally ill. All prisoners shall be kept segregated accordingly.

53.37 Maintenance and sanitation of prisoners; diet; cost of food. (1) The sheriff or other keeper of a jail shall constantly keep it clean and in a healthful condition and pay strict attention to the personal cleanliness of the prisoners and shall cause the clothing of each prisoner to be properly laundered. He shall furnish each prisoner with clean water, towels and bedding. He shall serve each prisoner 3 times daily with enough well-cooked, wholesome food. The county board shall prescribe an adequate diet for the prisoners in the county jail.

(2) Neither the sheriff or other keeper of any jail nor any other person shall give, sell or deliver to any prisoner for any cause whatever any spirituous liquor or wine or cider or beer unless a physician certifies in writing that the health of the prisoner requires it, in which case he may be allowed the quantity prescribed.

(3) The county or municipality shall furnish its jail with necessary bedding, clothing, toilet facilities, light and heat for prisoners.

(4) The sheriff or other keeper of a jail is authorized to use without compensation the labor of those sentenced to actual confinement in the county jail in the maintaining of, and the housekeeping of the jail, including the property on which it stands. Any prisoner who escapes while working on the grounds outside the jail enclosure shall be punished as provided in s. 13.68 (2).

History: 1953 c. 71.

53.375 Giving liquor to prisoners; mingling sexes. Any sheriff, jailer or keeper of any prison or any other person who shall sell, give or deliver to any prisoner, or wilfully or negligently permit any such prisoner to have any spirituous or intoxicating liquor, and any prisoner who shall use such liquor, in violation of s. 53.37 (2), or who shall have in his possession in the precincts of any prison, with intent to sell, give or deliver the same to some prisoner, such spirituous or intoxicating liquor, or who shall place or keep together or knowingly permit to be kept together prisoners of different sexes, shall be punished by fine not exceeding $100, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than 30 days nor more than 6 months.

History: 1955 c. 696 s. 183.

53.38 Medical care of prisoners. If a prisoner needs medical or hospital care the sheriff or other keeper of the jail shall provide such care and may transfer him to a hospital, making provision for the security of the prisoner. The costs of medical and hospital care outside of the jail shall (if the prisoner is unable to pay for it) in the case of persons held under the state criminal laws or for contempt of court, be borne by the county and in the case of persons held under municipal ordinance by the municipality. The governmental unit paying such costs of medical or hospital care may collect the value of the same from him or his estate as provided for in section 49.08.

53.39 Freedom of worship; religious ministrations. In so far as practicable, the provisions of section 46.066 shall apply to county jails.

53.40 Discipline; solitary confinement. For violating the rules of the jail, an inmate may be kept in solitary confinement, under the care and advice of a physician, but not over 10 days.

53.41 Jail matrons. Whenever there is a female prisoner in any jail there shall be a matron on duty who is wholly responsible to the sheriff or keeper for the custody, cleanliness, food and care of such prisoner.

53.42 Jailer constantly at jail. There shall be a keeper or custodian or attendant present at every jail while there is a prisoner therein.

53.43 Credit for good conduct. If approved by the committing court, a prisoner sentenced to the county jail obtains a diminution of one-fourth of his term if his conduct, diligence and general attitude merit such diminution.

53.51 Committee on location of state reformatory. There is hereby created a committee of 3 citizens to be appointed by the governor, at least one of whom shall have particular knowledge of property values and appraisal techniques, and one of whom shall be familiar with population and property trends in the area of the state reformatory to conduct a fact-finding study of the financial aspects of the location of the state reformatory with the view to determining if it is economically proper to expand existing facilities or to abandon the present site in favor of relocation of the institution elsewhere. The committee shall report its findings to the joint legislative council not later than November 1, 1957. Such report shall incorporate reliable estimates regarding the net cost of expanding the necessary facilities at the present site and the establishment of new facilities at another site. The committee may hire necessary expert and clerical assistance within its budget. The committee shall elect a chairman and secretary from within its membership. The committee shall make no investigation or recommendations regarding the administration of the welfare program.
