235.01 Conveyances, how made, homesteads. (1) Conveyances of land or any estate or interest therein may be made by deed signed and sealed by the person from whom the estate or interest is intended to pass, being of lawful age, or by his lawful agent or attorney. Conveyances may be acknowledged and may be executed in the presence of 2 witnesses who shall subscribe their names as such. The absence of such acknowledgment or witnesses does not affect the validity of a conveyance, but compliance with the provisions of s. 235.39 is required before a conveyance is entitled to be recorded.

(2) No mortgage or other alienation by a married man of his homestead, exempt by law from execution, or any interest therein, legal or equitable, present or future, by deed or otherwise, shall be valid without his wife's consent, evidenced by her act of joining in the same deed, mortgage or other conveyance, or by her act of executing a separate deed, mortgage or conveyance, except a conveyance from husband to wife.

(3) No mortgage or other alienation by a married woman of any interest, legal or equitable, present or future, by deed or otherwise, in a homestead held by her and her husband as joint tenants, shall be valid without her husband's consent, evidenced by his act of joining in the same conveyance or mortgage or executing a separate conveyance or mortgage of the same nature as the wife's except a conveyance from wife to husband.

(4) When a mistake is made in the description of land occupied as a homestead, the attempted conveyance shall be construed as an executory contract to convey said homestead by said husband and wife, and the description of said land may at any time be corrected as other conveyances are corrected, and shall bind said parties as fully as though it were correctly described.

(5) When such conveyances are of lands or any interest therein, owned by a corporation organized under any law of this state, they shall be signed by the president or other authorized officers of the corporation, sealed with the corporate seal, if any, otherwise as provided in s. 990.01 (37) and countersigned by the secretary, assistant secretary, cashier or assistant cashier, or clerk thereof; and all corporate conveyances so executed prior to September 1, 1898 shall be valid.

History: 1951 c. 703; 1953 c. 428.

Cross Reference: For the meaning of "conveyance" and "purchase," see 235.50.

Revisor's Note, 1951: The witness requirement comes from 235.19 (1) which is later repealed. As amended, this section puts all the formal requirements in one place, at the beginning of the chapter. The provisions for proof where there is no acknowledgment (235.34 to 235.39) are comparatively rarely used, and there is no need for reference to those sections—"or proved as directed in this chapter"—in 235.01. (Bill 353-S)

In an action to set aside a deed of a farm by a father to a daughter, which farm the father devised to others after the daughter's death, testimony of the daughter's surviving husband that she had the deed in their home from the time of its execution and that he saw it, and that he found it there in her diary and record book about 6 years after her death, was sufficient to support the trial court's finding that the father delivered the deed to the daughter on or about the date of its execution with intent to pass title thereto, so that she was the owner of the farm and it did not pass under the father's will, although, among other things, the father lived on the farm from the date of the deed until the date of his death, and neither the daughter nor the husband ever occupied the farm or asserted any rights thereto during the father's lifetime. Herzing v. Hess, 263 W 617, 58 NW (2d) 430.

A lease for a term of 3 years, giving the lessee an option for an additional 3 years, was of itself a lease for 6 years, so that, where it was not signed by the president or other authorized officers of the lessor corporation, it was void. Milwaukee Hotel Wisconsin Co. v. Aldrich, 265 W 402, 62 NW (2d) 14.

A wife who orders her husband out of the homestead is not in a position to object if the ejected spouse accepts such separation from the home as permanent and, acting thereon, conveys his interest therein to someone else. Siegel v. Clemons, 266 W 369, 63 NW (2d) 725.

In the case of a conveyance, the burden of proof of unsoundness of mind and incapacity of the grantor at the time of the conveyance rests on the party who seeks the impeachment of the deed. Nyka v. State, 268 W 644, 68 NW (2d) 458.

235.015 Conveyances by a married minor woman. A married minor woman by joining with her adult husband in an instrument of conveyance in substantially the form prescribed in ss. 235.06, 235.07 or 235.08 executed and acknowledged in the manner prescribed by this chapter for conveying real estate by adults may alienate any right, title or interest she may have in any real estate, including her inchoate right of dower. A conveyance so made by a married minor woman shall as effectively convey and divest her of right, title or interest in the real estate therein described, and the covenants contained therein shall be as binding upon her, as if she were an adult at the time of the execution thereof. This section shall supersede any provision of law in conflict herewith.

History: 1953 c. 567.

235.02 No covenants implied. No covenant shall be implied in any conveyance of real estate whether such conveyance contain special covenants or not. No mortgage shall be construed as implying a covenant for the payment of the sum thereby intended to be secured, and when there shall be no express covenant for such payment contained in the mortgage and no bond or other separate instrument to secure such payment shall have been given the remedies of the mortgagee shall be confined to the lands mentioned in the mortgage.

235.03 Grant of land held adversely. No grant of land shall be void for the reason that at the time of delivery thereof such lands shall be in actual possession of a person claiming under title adverse to the grantor.

235.04 Words of inheritance not essential. In conveyances of lands words of inheritance shall not be necessary to create or convey a fee, and every grant of lands or any interest therein shall pass all the estate or interest of the grantor unless the intent to pass a less estate or interest shall appear by express terms or be necessarily implied in the terms of such grant.

A deed which provided in the granting clause that the grantor had granted, sold, and conveyed to the grantee, his sister, certain described real estate for a consideration of $1, but which had revenue stamps affixed thereto in an amount creating a presumption that $7,000 was paid for the deed, and which provided in the habendum clause that the grantee was to hold the premises "upon trust" to lease the same and apply the rents and profits thereof to the use of the grantor, and which was signed by both the grantor and the grantee, is construed as granting to the grantee the fee title to the property, charged with a trust for the lifetime of the grantor, and not as merely creating a trust with no disposition of the property on the grantor's death. Flynn v. Palmer, 270 W 43, 70 NW (2d) 231.

235.05 Quitclaim deed. A deed of quitclaim and release of the form in common use or of the form hereinafter provided shall be sufficient to pass all the estate which the grantor could lawfully convey by deed of bargain and sale.

235.06 Warranty and quitclaim deeds; exceptions to covenants. (1) Conveyances of land may be in substantially the following form:

235.07 Life estates; form of deed; rights of parties. (1) Deeds reserving a life estate may be in substantially this form:

235.08 Mortgage form. (1) A mortgage may be substantially in the following form:

A. B., mortgagor, of . . . county, Wisconsin, hereby mortgages to C. D., mortgagee, of . . . county, Wisconsin, for the sum of . . . dollars, the following tract of land in . . . county (here describe the premises).

This mortgage is given to secure the following indebtedness (here state amount or amounts and form of indebtedness, whether on note, bond or otherwise, time or times when due, rate of interest, by and to whom payable, etc.).

Foreclosures by advertisement of mortgages in the form aforesaid, completed prior to January 1, 1913, if otherwise regular, shall be valid unless the action in which the validity of such foreclosure is questioned be commenced or the defense alleging the invalidity thereof be interposed prior to January 1, 1915.

235.09 Assignment of mortgage. An assignment of a mortgage may be substantially in the following form:

For value received, I, A. B., of . . ., Wisconsin, hereby assign to C. D., of . . ., Wisconsin, the within mortgage (or a certain mortgage executed to . . . . . by C. F. and wife, of . . . county, Wisconsin, the . . . day of . . ., 19.., and recorded in the office of the register of deeds of . . . county, Wisconsin, in Vol. . . . of mortgages, on page . . .), together with the . . . and indebtedness therein mentioned.

Such assignment shall not be indorsed upon the margin of the recorded mortgage.

235.10 Removal of buildings from mortgaged premises. The removal, without the consent of the mortgagee or his assigns, of any building from any real estate upon which there is an unsatisfied mortgage, properly recorded, shall not destroy the lien of such mortgage upon such removed building, but the mortgagee or his assigns shall be entitled to recover the possession of the same in an action of replevin, from any person, and wherever the same may be situated, without regard to the question of the adequacy of the real estate remaining to pay the mortgage debt. If such removal be made by the mortgagor or with his consent, all reasonable expense incurred in recovering such building shall be added to, and collected as a part of the mortgage debt.

235.11 Form of sheriff's deed on execution sale. (1) Deeds of sheriffs upon sale on execution may be in substantially the following form:

(3) WILLS. Whenever, during the period of the existing war, a person engaged in war service has executed, or shall execute, a will or codicil, it shall not be denied probate, because of lack of witnesses; because the witnesses cannot be found or produced to prove the will; because the signatures of the witnesses cannot be proved; because of any defect in attestation or publication; or because the testator was below testamentary age, if the court finds the signature to be genuine and finds from the face of the instrument or other proof that the signer intended it to take effect as a will or codicil. 235.47 Records of conveyances for new counties. Where a portion of any county shall have been made a part or all of another county, and the original records of conveyances affecting the title to lands so set off shall remain in such original county, the county board of such new county may direct the register of deeds of either county to prepare in book form true and correct copies (with an entry in the margin of each conveyance showing the volume and page of the original record thereof) of all such original records, and he shall enter at the end of each transcribed volume under his hand and official seal his certificate to the effect that he has carefully compared the same with such originals, and that the foregoing are true and correct copies of such original records, and of the whole thereof. Such certified volumes of records shall be kept in the office of the register of deeds of such new county, and shall have the same effect as the originals; and a copy of such certified records or of any of them shall be received in all courts and places as a copy of the original record.

235.48 Effect of deed made under other statutes. All conveyances of real estate heretofore made and acknowledged or proved in accordance with the laws of this state, in force at the time of such making and acknowledgment or proof, shall have the same force as evidence and be recorded in the same manner and with like effect as conveyances executed and acknowledged in pursuance of the provisions of this chapter.

235.49 Unrecorded deed, effect. Every conveyance of real estate within this state hereafter made (except patents issued by the United States or this state, or by the proper officers of either) which shall not be recorded as provided by law shall be void as against any subsequent purchaser in good faith and for a valuable consideration of the same real estate or any portion thereof whose conveyance shall first be duly recorded.

Where the plaintiff, who had leased a farm for the crop season of 1950 and had grown crops thereon, entered into a land contract on November 4, 1950, for the purchase of the farm and, although not occupying the farm buildings, which were unusable, plowed some of the land after November 4th and hauled manure on the land practically every day throughout November, 1950, such acts of possession in November constituted constructive notice to all the world requiring any subsequent purchaser to inquire as to what rights the plaintiff claimed to have in the premises, so that a near-by farmer, who purchased the farm on November 29, 1950, without making any such inquiry, was not a "subsequent purchaser in good faith" so as to be entitled to the protection of this section, in recording his deed prior to the recording of the land contract, and hence the plaintiff was entitled to specific performance of the land contract as against the vendor and subsequent purchaser. Miller v. Green, 264 W 159, 58 NW (2d) 704.

Where the plaintiffs, as tenants, had installed an office building and scales as trade fixtures on the leased premises, and were occupying the premises under their lease when the same were sold, the purchaser was put on inquiry as to the plaintiffs' rights in relation to such trade fixtures, and would be bound by what it discovered by such inquiry, although the plaintiffs' lease was not recorded and the purchaser's deed made no reference thereto. Such being the case, the plaintiffs had no cause of action for damages against the former owner because of the purchaser's refusal to allow the plaintiffs to remove their property from the premises. Ubbink v. Herbert A. Nieman & Co. 265 W 442, 62 NW (2d) 8.

This section will not protect a buyer of land who knew that another person had a contract to purchase it but made no inquiry of such person as to his rights. Sweeney v. Stenjem, 271 W 497, 74 NW (2d) 174.

235.50 "Conveyance" and "purchaser" defined. The term "conveyance," as used in this chapter, shall be construed to embrace every instrument in writing by which any estate or interest in real estate is created, aliened, mortgaged or assigned or by which the title to any real estate may be affected in law or equity, except wills and leases for a term not exceeding three years; and the term "purchaser," as so used, shall be construed to embrace every person to whom any estate or interest in real estate shall be conveyed for a valuable consideration and also every assignee of a mortgage or lease or other conditional estate.

See note to 235.01, citing Milwaukee Hotel Wisconsin Co. v. Aldrich, 265 W 402, 62 NW (2d) 14.

235.51 When deed not defeated by defeasance. When a deed purports to be an absolute conveyance in terms, but is made or intended to be made defeasible by force of a deed of defeasance or other instrument for that purpose, the original conveyance shall not be thereby defeated or affected as against any person other than the maker of the defeasance or his heirs or devisees or persons having actual notice thereof, unless the instrument of defeasance shall have been recorded in the office of the register of deeds of the county where the lands lie.

235.52 Assignment of mortgage, not notice. The recording of an assignment of a mortgage shall not in itself be deemed notice of such assignment to the mortgagor, his heirs or personal representatives so as to invalidate any payment made by them or either of them to the mortgagee.

235.53 Effect of record of bonds or contracts. Every bond or contract mentioned in section 235.45, when executed, acknowledged and recorded as provided in said section, shall be notice to and take precedence of any subsequent purchaser, and shall operate as a lien upon the lands therein described according to its import and meaning.

235.54 Letters of attorney, revocation. No letter of attorney or other instrument containing a power to convey lands, when executed, acknowledged and recorded as provided in this chapter, shall be deemed to be revoked by any act of the party by whom it was executed unless the instrument containing such revocation be also recorded in the same office in which the instrument containing the power was recorded, and such record shall import notice to all persons, including the agent named in said letter of attorney, of the contents thereof. The death of the party executing such letter of attorney shall not operate as a revocation thereof as to the attorney or agent until he shall have notice of the death, or as to one who without notice of such death in good faith deals with the attorney or agent.

235.55 Mortgage discharged of record. Any mortgage which shall have been recorded may be wholly satisfied or satisfied to the extent of any payment thereon by the presentation to the register of deeds in whose custody the record shall be of a certificate executed by the mortgagee, his personal representative or assignee, and acknowledged or proved and certified as hereinbefore prescribed to entitle conveyances to be recorded, specifying therein that such mortgage has been wholly or partially paid or otherwise satisfied and the extent of such satisfaction or discharge if only partial.

235.56 By foreign executors or administrator. When an executor or administrator is appointed in any other state or a foreign country on the estate of any person not a resident of this state at the time of his decease and no executor or administrator thereon has been appointed in this state, the foreign executor or administrator, upon recording an authenticated copy of his letters testamentary or of administration in the office of the register of deeds of any county in which any mortgage held by such estate is recorded, may execute a satisfaction of such mortgage.

235.57 By heirs or legatees. Any heir or legatee of such deceased person, residing within or without the state, upon recording in the office of the register of deeds proper proof of his ownership of such mortgage may, in like manner and with the like effect, satisfy or release such mortgage.

235.58 By foreign guardian. Any guardian appointed in any other state or foreign country of a minor holding and owning such mortgage, upon filing in the county court of such county an authenticated copy of his appointment as guardian and proof of ownership of such mortgage, may, in like manner and with like effect, satisfy or release such mortgage.

235.59 Discharge after foreclosure. Wherever a mortgage shall have been foreclosed by an action in any court and the judgment and costs in such action shall have been paid and satisfaction thereof entered upon the docket the register of deeds, upon presentation to him of the certificate of the clerk of the court, certifying to the facts aforesaid, shall note on the margin of the record of such mortgage the following: "This mortgage foreclosed in circuit court (or other court, giving the title of the same), judgment docketed therein, and has been fully paid and satisfaction entered;" and such entry shall have the same effect as the record of a discharge by a mortgagee duly executed and acknowledged.

Cross Reference: For redemption from mortgage foreclosure, prior to sale, see 278.13.

235.60 Discharge of mortgage or lien by court. The circuit court of any county or the county court of any county having a population of less than 500,000, in which a mortgage, lien or charge is recorded may make an order discharging such mortgage, lien or charge of record on proof being made to the satisfaction of the court that the mortgage, lien or charge has been fully paid or satisfied and that the mortgagee or the owner of the lien or charge or his assignee is a corporation which has ceased to exist or which has no officer or agent in the state of Wisconsin competent to discharge the same of record or that the mortgagee or the owner of the lien or charge or his assignee is a nonresident of the county where such mortgage, lien or charge is recorded, or is deceased, and in such case, that there is no administrator on his estate under the authority of this state. The register of deeds shall record such order or a copy thereof, certified by the clerk under the seal of the court, and such record shall have the same effect as the record of discharge by a mortgagee or owner of a lien or charge duly executed and acknowledged.

History: 1957 c. 583.

235.61 Satisfaction of state mortgages. In any case where the records of the offices of the state treasurer and secretary of state fail to show any payments made upon any mortgage of real estate to the state or territory of Wisconsin since January 1, 1865, it shall be the duty of the state treasurer, on demand, to execute, acknowledge and deliver to the owner of all or any portion of the land conveyed by any such mortgage a satisfaction in due form of law acknowledging the satisfaction and discharge of such mortgage, and such satisfaction when so executed shall be conclusive evidence of the payment and discharge of such mortgage and the satisfaction of the lien thereby secured.

235.62 Discharges, entry of. Every discharge of a mortgage shall be entered by the register entering or recording the same in the general index and be subject to all the provisions of law as the other entries in such index; and in every case when such discharge is not made by an entry on the margin of the record of such mortgage the register shall record the same with the acknowledgment or proof thereof and enter a minute of the discharge of such mortgage upon the margin of the record thereof with a reference to the book and page containing the record of the discharge of the same.

235.63 Mortgage to railroad. Whenever any mortgage executed to a railroad corporation shall have been duly recorded and such mortgage shall have been transferred by such corporation, and there shall be no record of such transfer, and such corporation shall have ceased to exist or shall have no officers or agents competent to discharge the same of record, such register shall, on presentation to him of any such mortgage, together with the note or bond secured thereby, if there be any, and an affidavit showing that the person presenting the same is the lawful holder thereof and that the same has been paid or satisfied in full, file such affidavit and enter in due form, on the margin of the record of such mortgage, a satisfaction thereof.

235.64 Penalty for failure to discharge. If any mortgagee, his assignee or the personal representative of either, after a full or partial performance of the conditions of the mortgage, whether before or after a breach thereof, shall, for the space of seven days after being thereto requested, and a satisfaction piece in due form being to him or them tendered for execution, after tender of legal charges, refuse or neglect to wholly or partially discharge the same as provided in this chapter, or to execute and acknowledge a certificate of discharge or release thereof in accordance with the fact, or to record all assignments transferring such mortgage to such assignee or personal representative, he shall be liable to the mortgagor, his heirs or assigns, in the sum of one hundred dollars damages, and also for actual damages occasioned by such neglect or refusal, to be recovered in an action.

235.65 Correction of description in conveyance. The circuit court of any county in which a conveyance of real estate shall have been recorded may make an order correcting the description in such conveyances on proof being made to the satisfaction of the court that such conveyance contains an erroneous description, not intended by the parties thereto; or when the description is ambiguous and does not clearly or fully describe the premises intended to be conveyed, if the grantor therein is dead or a nonresident of the state, or is a corporation which has ceased to exist, or is an administrator, executor, guardian, trustee or other person authorized to convey and has been discharged from his trust and the person to whom it was made, his heirs, legal representatives or assigns have been in the quiet, undisturbed and peaceable possession of the premises intended to be conveyed from the date of such conveyance; but this section shall not prevent an action for the reformation of any conveyance, and if in any doubt, the court shall direct such action to be brought.

235.66 Patent to heirs of purchaser. Whenever patents for lands belonging to this state shall have been issued, in pursuance of any law, to a person who shall have died before the date of such patent the title to the land designated therein shall inure to and become vested in the heirs, devisees or assignees of such patentee as if the patent had issued to such deceased person during his lifetime.

235.68 Defective conveyances of farm or homestead property to satisfy indebtedness cured. Any deed, contract or other instrument previously given by a debtor to satisfy or compromise in whole or in part any prior indebtedness or obligation upon land contract or real estate mortgage on a farm or homestead property, except deeds given through mediation as provided in ss. 281.20 to 281.23 [Stats. 1933], which has been executed, witnessed, acknowledged and recorded according to law, but in respect to which the grantee therein at the time of such recording failed to record an affidavit signed by the grantor as required in s. 235.68 of the statutes for 1937, shall have the same force and effect as evidence and for all other legal purposes as though such affidavit had been originally executed, witnessed and recorded as provided by s. 235.68 of the statutes for 1937.

235.69 Variance in names of parties. Title to real property shall not be unmerchantable because of any variances heretofore or hereafter appearing in the spelling, or variant forms of names, or use of initials as between grantees and grantors in deeds or leases or powers of attorney or other instruments by or through which title to real estate is conveyed, or in mortgages or assignments or releases thereof, or between grantees in deeds and persons from or through whom the title passes by will or descent, where such variance shall have appeared in the public records of the county where the lands are located, for more than 20 years; provided, however, that any persons, including infants or persons under disability, having any right of action on June 4, 1937 to recover real property or enforce a mortgage in a case involving such variances in names shall not be barred until one year from said date.

235.70 Priority of certain mortgages. Whenever any mortgage executed to a federal savings and loan association organized and existing under the laws of the United States or to the Wisconsin department of veterans' affairs under section 45.352 (5) shall have been duly recorded, such mortgage shall have priority over all liens upon the mortgaged premises and the buildings and improvements thereon, except tax and special assessment liens, which shall be filed subsequent to the recording of such mortgage.

The use of any of such moneys by any owner, contractor or subcontractor for any other purpose until all claims, except those which are the subject of a bona fide dispute, have been paid in full, or pro rata in cases of a deficiency, shall constitute theft of any moneys so misappropriated. The district attorney of the county where the premises are situated shall on the complaint of any aggrieved party prosecute such owner, contractor or subcontractor misappropriating such moneys for such theft.

History: 1955 c. 696.
