879.01 Petitions to probate court. All applications to probate courts, except motions in matters at issue, shall be made by verified petition. All petitions must show the jurisdiction of the court and the interest of the petitioner. All petitions, except those for statutory certificates or for ex parte orders in proceedings already pending, shall also show the names and post-office addresses of all persons interested, so far as known to the petitioner or ascertainable by him with reasonable diligence; and shall indicate who are minors or otherwise under disability, and the names and post-office addresses of their guardians. No defect of form or substance in any petition shall invalidate any proceedings.

879.03 Notice; court order. (1) HOW GIVEN. If notice of any proceeding in probate court is required by law or deemed necessary by the court and the manner of giving notice is not directed by law, the court shall order notice to be given under s. 879.05. The court may order both service by publication and personal service on designated persons.

(2) WHO ENTITLED TO NOTICE. The following persons are entitled to notice:

(a) Any person interested unless he is represented by a guardian ad litem or guardian of the estate or unless he is represented by another person under the doctrine of virtual representation.

(b) Any guardian ad litem, guardian of the estate or attorney for a person in the military service that represents any person interested.

(c) The attorney general where a public charitable trust is involved, and in all cases mentioned in s. 852.01 (3).

(3) DOMICILIARY OF A FOREIGN COUNTRY. If the petition for administration shows, or if it appears, that any person interested is a domiciliary of a foreign country, the court shall cause the notice of hearing of the petition or of any subsequent proceeding that may then be pending to be given the consul, vice consul or consular agent of the foreign country by mailing a copy of the notice in a sealed envelope, postage prepaid, addressed to the consul, vice consul or consular agent at his post-office address, at least 20 days before the hearing. If it is shown to the court that there is no consul, vice consul or consular agent of the foreign country, the court may direct that the notice be so mailed to the public administrator.

(4) WHEN ORDER DOES NOT SPECIFICALLY DESIGNATE PERSONS INTERESTED. If the order does not specifically designate the persons to whom notice is to be given, the order shall be deemed to refer to the persons set forth in the petition for the hearing or otherwise shown by the record as being persons interested and to the post-office addresses set forth or otherwise shown therein. The order and record shall be conclusive in all collateral actions and proceedings as to the names being the names of all persons interested and as to the reasonable diligence of the personal representative in determining the post-office addresses.

Cross References: See 856.11 which requires notice to both an interested person and his guardian ad litem or guardian of the estate when giving notice of hearing on petition for administration.

See 851.21 which defines "persons interested".

879.05 Notice; manner of giving. (1) GENERALLY. Unless the statute requiring notice in a particular proceeding provides otherwise, notice required in the administration of an estate or other proceeding shall be given either by mail under sub. (2) or by personal service under sub. (3). The first notice given by mail in any administration or other proceeding must be accompanied by notice by publication given under sub. (4). Notice by publication in addition to mailed notice is required for subsequent hearings if the name or the post-office address of one or more persons entitled to notice has not been ascertained.

(2) SERVICE BY MAIL. Service shall be made by first class mail either within or without the state at least 20 days before the hearing or proceeding upon any person whose post-office address is known or can with reasonable diligence be ascertained.

(3) PERSONAL SERVICE. Personal service shall be made at least 10 days before the hearing under s. 262.06, except as that section provides for service by publication and except that substituted service under s. 262.06 (1) (b) may not be made outside this state.

(4) SERVICE BY PUBLICATION. Unless a statute provides otherwise every probate court notice required to be given by publication shall be published as a class 3 notice in a newspaper published in the county eligible under ch. 985, as the court by order directs.

879.07 Proof of service of notice. (1) MAIL. Proof of service by mail shall be by the affidavit of the person who mailed the notice showing when and to whom he mailed it and how it was addressed.

(2) PERSONAL SERVICE. Proof of personal service shall be made under s. 262.17 (1) or by the written admission of service by the person served if he is competent and an adult, and the subscription of his name to the admission is presumptive evidence of its genuineness.

(3) PUBLICATION. Proof of service by publication shall be by affidavit under s. 985.12.

879.09 Notice requirement satisfied by waiver of notice. Persons who are not minors or incompetent, on behalf of themselves, and appointed guardians ad litem and guardians of the estate on behalf of themselves and those whom they represent, may in writing waive the service of notice upon them and consent to the hearing of any matter without notice except that guardians ad litem cannot waive the notice of a hearing to prove a will or for administration on behalf of those whom they represent. An attorney for a person in the military service may waive notice on behalf of himself but cannot waive notice on behalf of anyone whom he represents. Waiver of notice by any person is equivalent to timely service of notice.

879.11 Notice requirement satisfied by appearance. An appearance by a person who is not a minor or incompetent is equivalent to timely service of notice upon him. An appearance by a guardian of the estate is equivalent to timely service of notice upon him and upon his ward. An appearance by a guardian ad litem is equivalent to timely service of notice upon him and except at a hearing to prove a will or for administration is equivalent to timely service of notice upon those whom he represents. An appearance by an attorney for a person in the military service is equivalent to timely service of notice upon him but does not satisfy a requirement for notice to anyone whom he represents.

879.13 Delayed service of notice. If for any reason notice to any person is insufficient, the court may at any time order service of notice together with documents required under s. 879.26 and require the person to show cause why he should not be bound by the action already taken in the proceedings as though he had been timely served with notice. Such person may consent in writing to be bound.

879.15 Appearances, how made. In any proceeding in probate court or before any probate judge appearances shall be made as follows:

(1) A minor or incompetent person shall appear by his guardian ad litem, who shall be an attorney, or by the guardian of his estate, who may appear by attorney;

(2) A personal representative shall appear by attorney; and

(3) Every other person shall appear either in person or by attorney.

879.17 Attorney, appearance by. The attorney who first appears for any party or person interested shall be recognized as his attorney throughout the matter or proceeding unless another attorney is substituted under s. 256.27 (3).

879.19 Attorney, notice to. When a person interested who is not a minor or incompetent has retained an attorney to represent him and the attorney has mailed a notice of retainer and request for service to the attorney for the personal representative and filed a copy with the court, any notice which would be given to the person interested shall instead be given to the attorney, the attorney may waive notice for the person interested under s. 879.09.

879.21 Appearance by public administrator for person domiciled in foreign country. When notice has been given to the public administrator under s. 879.03 (3) that a person domiciled in a foreign country, not represented by a consul, vice consul or consular agent, is interested in an estate, the public administrator shall appear for the person and be allowed his compensation and necessary expenditures in the same manner as a guardian ad litem.

879.23 Guardian ad litem. A guardian ad litem shall be appointed for any person interested who is a minor or incompetent and has no guardian of his estate, or where the guardian of his estate fails to appear on his behalf or where the interest of the person who is a minor or incompetent is adverse to that of the guardian of his estate. Upon a determination by the court of his qualifications the court may appoint a surviving parent as guardian ad litem. A guardian ad litem may be appointed for persons not in being or presently unascertainable and for persons having successor or contingent interest. The court may appoint the guardian ad litem at the time of making the order for hearing the matter, and require notice of the appointment and of the hearing to be served upon the guardian ad litem; or the guardian ad litem may be appointed on the day of the hearing and before any proceedings are had. The guardian ad litem shall continue to act throughout the proceeding in relation to the same estate or matter until proper distribution to or for the benefit of the minor or incompetent has been completed, unless earlier discharged by the court, but if a will creates a testamentary trust, a guardian ad litem appointed in the administration of the estate has no responsibility in regard to the administration of the trust unless reappointed for that purpose. The guardian ad litem may be an attorney admitted to practice in this state and shall be allowed compensation and necessary expenditures to be fixed by the court and paid out of the estate, but an attorney shall not appear or be appointed as guardian ad litem for different persons in the same matter or proceeding, whose interests and rights in relation to the matter or proceeding are conflicting. A guardian ad litem shall be discharged by the court at any time that it appears that his ward no longer has an interest in the estate. The court may dispense with or terminate the appointment of a guardian ad litem for a person having a successor or contingent interest who is legally incompetent, unborn or presently unascertainable, if there is a living person, sui juris, having in the judge's opinion a substantially identical interest, who is a party to the proceeding and whose interest is not adverse.

879.25 Attorney for person in military service. At the time of filing a petition for administration of an estate, an affidavit shall be filed setting forth facts showing whether or not any of the persons interested in the matter are actively engaged in the military service of the United States. Whenever it appears by the affidavit or otherwise that any person in the active military service of the United States is interested in any administration and is not represented by an attorney, the judge shall appoint an attorney to represent the person and protect his interest and no further proceedings shall be had until such appointment has been made. The attorney for a person in the military service shall be an attorney admitted to practice in this state and shall be allowed compensation and necessary expenditures to be fixed by the court and paid out of the estate, but an attorney shall not appear or be appointed for different persons in the same matter or proceeding, whose interests and rights in relation to the matter or proceeding are conflicting.

879.26 Waiver of right to certain documents. Any person who is not a minor or incompetent may in writing waive his right to be given (1) a statement that the inventory has been filed under s. 858.03, and (2) a copy of accounts under s. 862.09.

879.27 Appeals from probate court. (1) APPEAL IS TO SUPREME COURT. Any person aggrieved by any appealable order or judgment of the probate court may appeal or take a writ or error therefrom to the supreme court.

(2) EFFECT OF TITLE XXV. In all matters not otherwise provided for in this chapter relating to appeals from probate courts to the supreme court, the law and rules of practice of Title XXV govern.

(3) TIME LIMIT. Except as provided in s. 879.31, the time within which a writ of error may be issued or an appeal taken to obtain a review by the supreme court of any appealable order or judgment of the probate court is limited to 60 days from the date of entry thereof.

(4) WHO MAY APPEAL ON BEHALF OF MINOR OR INCOMPETENT. In all cases the appeal on behalf of any minor or incompetent person may be taken and prosecuted by the guardian of his estate or by a guardian ad litem.

(5) LIMITATION ON BOND AND COSTS. On appeals from probate courts to the supreme court no bond shall be required of, or costs awarded against any alleged incompetent or person acting in behalf of an alleged incompetent on an appeal from an adjudication of incompetency, and no bond shall be required of any personal representative, guardian or trustee of a testamentary trust.

Cross Reference: Where bond not required, see 274.16

THIS CHAPTER IS EFFECTIVE APRIL 1, 1971.

879.31 Extension of time for appeal; re-trial. If any person aggrieved by any act of the probate court shall omit to take his appeal within the time allowed without fault on his part, the court may, upon his petition, notice to the adverse party, and hearing, and upon terms and within the time it deems reasonable, but not later than 6 months after the act complained of, by order allow an appeal, if justice appears to require it, with the same effect as though done seasonably; or the court may reopen the case and grant a retrial.

879.33 Costs, when allowed; judgment for. Costs may be allowed in all appealable contested matters in probate court to the prevailing party, to be paid by the losing party or out of the estate as justice may require; and when costs are allowed they shall be taxed by the register in probate after the notice required in ch. 271. When costs are allowed, the court shall render judgment therefor, stating in whose favor and against whom rendered and the amount, and a list of the items making the amount shall be filed with the papers in the case.

879.35 Costs in will contests. Costs may be awarded out of the estate to an unsuccessful proponent of a will if he is named as an executor therein and propounded the document in good faith, and to the unsuccessful contestant of a will if he is named as an executor in another document propounded by him in good faith as the last will of the decedent.

879.37 Attorney fees in contests. Reasonable attorney fees may be awarded out of the estate to the prevailing party in all appealable contested matters, to an unsuccessful proponent of a will if he is named as an executor therein and propounded the document in good faith, and to the unsuccessful contestant of a will if he is named as an executor in another document propounded by him in good faith as the last will of the decedent.

879.39 Security and judgment for costs. In all cases under s. 879.33 the probate court may require the claimant or contestant to give a bond in such sum and with such surety as is approved by the court, to the effect that he will pay all costs that may be awarded by the court in the proceeding against him. A judgment for costs shall be against the claimant or contestant and the surety.

879.41 Fees in probate court. Fees in probate court shall be allowed:

- (1) To appraisers, an amount to be fixed by the court;
- (2) To jurors, the fees under s. 255.25;
- (3) To witnesses and interpreters, the fees under s. 885.05, and to expert witnesses, the fees under s. 271.04 (2);
- (4) Travel as fixed by the court;
- (5) In cases not provided for, a fair compensation shall be allowed by the court.

879.43 Money judgment in favor of estate. (1) ENFORCEMENT. All money judgments in probate court in favor of an estate may be enforced through the probate court, after costs have been taxed under s. 270.66. The pertinent provisions of ch. 272, relating to executions apply.

(2) STAY OF EXECUTION. Execution of judgments may be stayed under Title XXV.

(3) DOCKET. Judgments may be docketed in the office of the clerk of circuit court, upon the filing of a certified transcript of the judgment.

(4) LIEN. A judgment when docketed is a lien upon the real estate of the debtor under s. 270.79.

879.45 Jury trials, practice. (1) GENERALLY. Jury trials may be had in probate court in all cases in which a jury trial may be had of similar issues under s. 270.07.

(2) DEMAND. In all cases under sub. (1), any person having the right of appeal from the determination of the court, may file with the court, within 10 days after notice that the matter is to be contested, a written demand for a jury trial, and deposit $10 with the county treasurer, take his receipt therefor and file it with the court. If the issue is transferred for trial to the circuit court under this section, the judge of the probate court may order the deposit refunded to the depositor, and the county treasurer upon presentation of the order shall refund the amount.

(3) FRAMING ISSUES; TRANSFER. Upon filing the demand and receipt, the court may order an issue to be framed by the parties within a fixed time, and the matter shall be placed upon the calendar for the next jury term of the court. The probate court may transfer the matter or cause, and the record thereof, to the circuit court of the county for trial.

(4) JURY TERMS. Three jury terms of the probate court shall be held each year (if there are jury cases ready for trial at such times), commencing respectively on the 2nd Tuesday in January, April and October.

THIS CHAPTER IS EFFECTIVE APRIL 1, 1971.

(5) SELECTION OF JURORS. Jurors and trial juries shall be drawn under ss. 255.04 to 255.09 and trials by jury shall be under ss. 270.15 to 270.31; but in county courts exercising civil jurisdiction jurors and juries may be drawn in probate matters and jury terms had in the manner required in civil cases in such courts.

(6) CALENDAR. Not more than 10 days prior to each jury term the clerk shall prepare, in the order of their date of issue, a list of cases in which a trial by jury has been demanded, the list shall constitute the jury calendar for that term of the probate court. Unless the court otherwise orders, every case on the calendar which is not disposed of at that term shall stand continued to the next jury term, and be placed on the jury calendar for that term. If the party who demanded the jury trial asks to have the action continued for the term, after the commencement of the term at which the action is for trial, the continuance shall be granted only upon payment of $10 motion fees unless the party waives a jury trial in the proceeding. In case a continuance in any action upon the jury calendar is asked by any other party, the court may grant the continuance and require payment of $10 motion fees.

(7) PRETRIAL CONFERENCE. The court may hold a pretrial conference under s. 269.65.

(8) COSTS. In all jury cases costs shall be allowed as a matter of course to the prevailing party, the items and taxation of which shall be as in circuit court.

(9) TRANSFER TO CIRCUIT COURT. Any party to the controversy may within 10 days after notice that a jury trial has been demanded, have the matter transferred to the circuit court of the county for trial. Upon the filing of demand for transfer, the judge of the probate court shall immediately cause the record and proceedings in the matter to be certified to the circuit court, and it shall then be tried and determined as a circuit court action. If the matter is one where the probate court has the right to fix the fees or compensation of the attorneys, personal representatives or guardians, the circuit court may determine the fees or compensation. The circuit court may render judgment as is proper, or make an order therein as the probate court ought to have made and may remit the case to the probate court for further proceedings, or make any order or take any action therein to enforce its own judgment as the circuit court deems best. The probate court, after the cause is remitted, shall proceed therein in accordance with the determination of the circuit court.

879.47 Papers, preparation and filing.

The attorney for any person desiring to file any paper in probate court is responsible for the preparation of the paper. All papers shall be legibly written on substantial paper and shall state the title of the proceeding in which they are filed and the character of the paper. Uniform forms shall be used when suitable and available. If papers are not so written or if uniform forms are not used when suitable and available, the court may refuse to receive and file them. The court shall show on all papers the date of their filing.

Cross Reference: See 253.21 which provides for adoption of uniform forms.

879.49 Papers, withdrawal. No paper filed in any matter may be withdrawn without leave of the court or the judge, and when a paper is withdrawn a copy thereof, attested by the judge or register in probate, shall, if required, be left in its place.

879.51 Court not to delay in setting matter for hearing. When a petition and proposed order for hearing are filed, the court within 10 days thereafter shall set a time for hearing.

879.53 Hearings set for a day certain. All matters in probate court requiring notice of hearing shall be set for hearing on a day certain, and shall be heard on the day set or as soon thereafter as counsel may be heard.

879.55 Correction of clerical errors in court records. Upon verified petition to a probate court by any person interested or his successor in title praying that clerical errors in its records be corrected as specified in the petition, the court shall order a hearing thereon. The hearing shall be held without notice or upon such notice as the court requires. If the court requires notice, it shall be given to those persons interested who will be affected by the change in the records. If on hearing the court finds its record incorrect as a result of clerical error, it shall make its record conform to the truth. The corrected record shall be as valid and binding as though correctly made and entered at the proper time.

879.57 Public administrator; personal representative, guardian. Whenever it is found by the court to be necessary to appoint a personal representative or guardian and there appears to be no person in the state to petition for the appointment or there appears to be no suitable person to be so appointed, the court shall, upon its own motion or upon the petition of the public administrator, grant administration of an estate of a decedent or guardianship of the estate of a minor or incompetent person to the public administrator, and he shall thereupon take possession of the estate and protect and preserve it, and proceed with the administration and with the care and management of the estate. Such authority to the public administrator in the administration or guardianship may be revoked at any time upon the appointment and qualification of a personal representative or guardian, or when for any other cause the court deems it just or expedient; but revocation does not invalidate his acts performed prior to revocation of his authority and does not impair the public administrator's rights to receive from the estate his legal charges and disbursements, to be determined by the probate court.

Cross Reference: For duty of public administrator as to inheritance taxes, see 72.17.

879.59 Compromises. (1) BETWEEN CLAIMANTS; PARTIES. The court may authorize personal representatives and trustees to adjust by compromise any controversy that may arise between different claimants to the estate or property in their hands to which agreement the personal representatives or trustees and all other parties in being who claim an interest in the estate and whose interests are affected by the proposed compromise shall be parties in person or by guardian as hereinafter provided.

(2) BETWEEN TESTATE AND INTESTATE DISTRIBUTEEES; PARTIES. The court also may authorize the person named as executor in one or more instruments purporting to be the last will and testament of a person deceased, or the petitioners for administration with the will or wills annexed, to adjust by compromise any controversy that may arise between the persons claiming as devisees or legatees under the will or wills and the persons entitled to or claiming the estate of the deceased under the statutes regulating the descent and distribution of intestate estates, to which agreement or compromise the persons named as executors or the petitioners for administration with will annexed, those claiming as devisees or legatees and those claiming the estate as intestate shall be parties, provided that persons named as executors in any instrument who have renounced or shall renounce such executorship and any person whose interest in the estate is unaffected by the proposed compromise shall not be required to be parties to the compromise.

(3) PARTIES SUBJECT TO GUARDIANSHIP. Where a person subject to guardianship is a necessary party to a compromise under this section he shall be represented in the proceedings by his guardian or by a special guardian appointed by the court, who shall in the name and on behalf of the party he represents make all proper instruments necessary to carry into effect any compromise sanctioned by the court.

(4) PERSONS UNKNOWN OR NOT IN BEING. If it appears to the satisfaction of the court that the interests of persons unknown or the future contingent interests of persons not in being are or may be affected by the compromise, the court shall appoint some suitable person to represent those interests in the compromise and to make all proper instruments necessary to carry into effect any compromise sanctioned by the court. If by the terms of any compromise made under this section money or property is directed to be set apart or held for the benefit of or to represent the interest of persons subject to guardianship or persons unknown or unborn, the same may be deposited in any trust company, or any state or national bank within this state, authorized to exercise trust powers, or with the public administrator, and shall remain subject to the order of the court.

(5) COURT APPROVAL REQUIRED. An agreement of compromise made in writing under this section, if found by the court to be just and reasonable in its effects upon the interests in the estate or property of persons subject to guardianship, unknown persons, or the future contingent interests of persons not in being, is valid and binding upon such interests as well as upon the interests of adult persons of sound mind.

(6) PROCEDURE. An application for the approval of a compromise under this section shall be made by verified petition, which shall set forth the provisions of any instrument or documents by virtue of which any claim is made to the property or estate in controversy and all facts relating to the claims of the various parties to the controversy and the possible contingent interests of persons not in being and all facts which make it proper or necessary that the proposed compromise be approved by the court. The court may entertain an application prior to the execution of the proposed compromise by all the parties required to execute it and may permit the execution by the necessary parties to be completed after the inception of the proceedings for approval thereof if the proposed compromise has been approved by the estate representatives described in subs. (1) and (2). The court shall inquire into the circumstances and make such order or decree as justice requires.

Cross Reference: See 859.31 which provides for compromise of creditor's claims against the estate.

879.61 Discovery proceedings. Any personal representative or any person interested who suspects that any other person has concealed, stolen, conveyed or disposed of property of the estate, or is indebted to the decedent, or has in his possession or under his control or has knowledge of concealed property of the decedent, or has in his possession or under his control or has knowledge of writings which contain evidence of or tend to disclose the right, title, interest or claim of the decedent to any property, or has in his possession or under his control or has knowledge of any will of the decedent, may file a petition in the probate court so stating, and the court upon such notice as it directs, may order the other person to appear before the court or a court commissioner for disclosure, may subpoena witnesses and compel the production of evidence and may make any order in relation to the matter as is just and proper.

879.63 Action by person interested to secure property for estate. Whenever there is reason to believe that the estate of a decedent as set forth in the inventory does not include property which should be included in the estate, and the personal representative has failed to secure the property or to bring an action to secure the property, any person interested may, on behalf of the estate, bring an action in the court in which the estate is being administered to reach the property and make it a part of the estate. If the action is successful, the person interested shall be reimbursed from the estate for the reasonable expenses and attorney's fee incurred by him in the action as approved by the court but not in excess of the value of the property secured for the estate.

879.65 Annuity table. The present value of any estate, annuity or interest of beneficiary may be computed on the basis of the American experience table of mortality with Craig's extension below age 10, and interest at 5% per annum. The Northampton table of mortality and interest at the aforesaid rate may be used where it is impracticable to use the aforesaid basis. Any court or judge by whom any present value is to be determined may transmit to the commissioner of insurance a statement of the facts he requires, and the commissioner shall make the necessary computation and certify it without charge. The present value of an immediate annuity of $1, on the above basis for a single life is as follows:

Note: Rule for calculating the present value of a life estate: "Present value" at the head of the above table means that the numbers below that head give the present value of a life annuity of one dollar. Calculate the interest at five per cent for one year upon the sum to the income of which the person is entitled. Multiply this interest by the present value set opposite the person's age in the above table, and the product will be the present value of the life estate of such person in said sum.
