786.01 Conveyance of lands held in trust by persons under disability. Whenever any minor or person incompetent to manage his or her affairs is seized or possessed of any lands or interest in any lands by way of mortgage or in trust only for others, the circuit court of the proper county may, upon the petition of the guardian of the minor or incompetent person or of any person in any way interested in the real estate, make an order authorizing or compelling the minor or incompetent person to convey and assure the lands or interest in the lands to any person entitled thereto, in such manner as the court directs.

History: 1977 c. 449; 1979 c. 32 s. 63.

786.02 Specific performance of incompetent's contract. A circuit court may authorize or compel the specific performance of any contract made by any person who becomes incompetent before the performance thereof, on the complaint or petition of the guardian of the incompetent person or of any other person interested in the contract.

History: 1977 c. 449; 1979 c. 32 s. 63.

786.03 Specific performance; order; appeal. No order authorizing or directing any such conveyance or the performance of any such contract shall be made until after hearing the parties and being satisfied that such conveyance ought to be made or such contract ought to be performed. The court may, by such order, direct the guardian of such incompetent person, or a special guardian appointed in such proceeding, to do any act which is necessary to carry such order into effect. The court may further direct that the reasonable expenses of the proceedings be paid out of the proceeds of the sale. No appeal shall lie from such order unless notice of intention to appeal shall be filed with the court within 10 days after date of the order. The court may enforce such order by any proper proceedings.

History: 1979 c. 32 s. 63.

786.04 Specific performance; conveyance; warranties. The court may require the guardian to convey the real estate which such incompetent person might or ought to have conveyed if still competent. Where such incompetent person contracted before incompetency to convey real estate by warranty deed, the guardian shall convey by warranty deed subject to any exceptions set forth in the incompetent's contract to convey. The guardian shall not be personally liable because of any breach of such warranty, but such warranty deed shall have the same effect for all purposes as if the incompetent had executed it at such time while competent. This section is applicable where an incompetent before incompetency made an assignment of a contract to convey real estate but did not deed to the assignee the title to the premises covered by the contract.

History: 1979 c. 32 s. 63; 1979 c. 176.

786.05 Specific performance; recording order; effect. A certified copy of such judgment directing such conveyance, which is recorded in the office of the register of deeds in the county where the lands lie, shall be prima facie evidence of the correctness of the proceedings and of the authority of the guardian to convey. Every such conveyance shall be as effectual in passing the estate as if the incompetent were then competent and executed the conveyance.

History: 1979 c. 32 s. 63.

786.06 Realty of wards; grounds for mortgage, sale, lease. Any real estate, or interest therein belonging to a minor or to a person incompetent to manage personal affairs may be sold, mortgaged or leased:

(1) When the personal property and the income of the real estate of such minor or incompetent person are together insufficient for the payment of his or her debts or for the maintenance and education of himself or herself and family;

(2) When the interests of such minor or incompetent person require or will be substantially promoted by such disposition on account of such real estate or interest therein being exposed to waste or dilapidation, or being unproductive, or for other peculiar reasons or circumstances.

History: 1979 c. 32 s. 63; 1979 c. 176.

786.07 Realty of wards or incompetents; application for sale or encumbrance. The application for the disposition must be made to the circuit court of the county in which the real estate or some part thereof is situated or to the circuit court of the county in which the general guardian for the minor or incompetent person has been appointed, by petition of the general guardian of the minor or of the incompetent person or by any relative or other person in behalf of either. The petition must be verified and must set forth the facts which would authorize the selling, mortgaging or leasing of the real estate or some part of the real estate for one or more of the reasons set forth in s. 786.06. If the real estate sold or some part of the real estate is situated in a county other than that in which the proceeding is taken, a certified copy of the order confirming the sale containing the name of the purchaser, the selling price and a description of the property sold shall be recorded in the office of the register of deeds of the county in which the real estate or any part of the real estate is situated. When the minor or incompetent person has a general guardian and the application is to any court other than the court in which the general guardian was appointed, notice of hearing of the application shall be given by mailing a copy of the notice to the judge of the court that appointed the general guardian, and also to the general guardian, unless he or she is the petitioner, at least 10 days before the date of the hearing.

History: 1977 c. 449; 1979 c. 32 ss. 63, 92 (14).

786.08 Realty of wards; guardian; bond; prosecution of breach. (1) (a) When the application is made on behalf of a minor or incompetent, who has no general guardian, the court shall appoint some suitable person special guardian of the minor or incompetent in the proceeding; the special guardian shall give a bond to the judge of the court, to be filed with the clerk of the circuit court, in such sum, with such sureties, and in such form as the circuit court or judge directs, conditioned for the faithful performance of the trust reposed, for paying over, investing or accounting for all moneys that shall be received by the guardian, according to law and for observance of the directions of the court in relation to the trust.

(b) When the minor shall have a general guardian, such general guardian may be appointed special guardian in said matter; or, such general guardian, as such, may be authorized and empowered to act in and conduct such proceedings in the same manner, and with the same provisions as to an additional general guardian's bond, as is provided in said proceedings for the conduct thereof by the general guardian of incompetent persons.

(2) When the application is made on behalf of an incompetent person, the guardian of the incompetent person shall, in the discretion of the court, give a bond to the judge of the court to be filed with the clerk of the circuit court, in such sum, additional to the guardian's original bond, as the court deems necessary, with such sureties and such conditions for the faithful performance of trust reposed as prescribed by this section.

(3) In case of the breach of the conditions of such bond, it may be prosecuted for the benefit of the party injured without any direction therefor.

History: 1977 c. 449; 1979 c. 32 s. 63.

786.09 Inquiry relative to sale or encumbrance. Upon the presentation of such petition and the filing of such bond the court or the presiding judge may proceed in a summary manner to inquire into the merits of such application or make an order referring it to some suitable person as referee to inquire into and report upon the matters contained in such petition, whose duty it shall be to examine into the truth of the representations made, to hear the parties interested in the property or otherwise interested in the application and report thereupon with all convenient speed.

History: 1979 c. 32 s. 63.

786.10 Order for lease, mortgage, sale. If, after an examination of the matter by the court or judge to which application is made, without a reference, or on the coming in of the report of the referee, and on examination of the matter, it shall satisfactorily appear that a disposition of any part of the real estate of such minor or incompetent person or any interest therein is necessary and proper, for any of the causes mentioned in s. 786.06 such court or judge shall make an order directing and authorizing the guardian to contract for the leasing, mortgaging or sale of such real estate or interest therein or of such part thereof as the court or judge shall deem proper in such manner and with such restrictions as shall be deemed expedient.

History: 1979 c. 32 ss. 63, 92 (14).

786.11 Contract for lease, mortgage, sale; approval. No lease, mortgage or sale shall be made until an agreement therefor shall have been entered into by such guardian subject to the approval of the proper court or judge. Upon the confirmation of such agreement by such court or judge the guardian must execute a lease, mortgage or deed as directed by the order of confirmation. The guardian, general or special, may expend usual and customary brokers' fees, as well as necessary expenditures for abstracting, title insurance, survey, revenue stamps and other necessary costs and expenses in connection with the sale, all subject to review and approval by the court.

History: 1979 c. 32 s. 63.

786.12 Wards; other disposal of real estate; acquisition of real estate. The courts and judges mentioned in this chapter are further empowered and authorized to make any other disposition of the real estate of any minor or other ward mentioned herein when it shall be made to appear to such court or judge that such proposed disposition will substantially promote the interests of any such ward. The court or judge of the court in which the general guardian has been appointed is empowered to authorize the purchase in the name of such ward of any real estate within the state of Wisconsin when it shall be made to appear to such court or judge that such proposed purchase will substantially promote the interests of such ward, provided that no debt shall be incurred or assumed by such ward for purchase of any such real estate. The provisions of this chapter are applicable to all proceedings under this section.

History: 1979 c. 32 s. 63.

786.13 Platting realty of wards before sale. Whenever an order shall have been made for the sale of any such real estate and it shall be made to appear to the court or judge that the interest of the minor or other ward would be promoted by platting such real estate the court or judge may, by order, authorize the guardian either alone or together with the cotenants, if any, or other owners, to make and acknowledge a plat of such real estate in the manner prescribed in ch. 236. A plat made pursuant to such order, certified and acknowledged in manner and form prescribed in ch. 236 and approved by the court or presiding judge, shall be as valid and effectual as if made by such minor when of full age or by such incompetent person when of sound memory and understanding. After such plat shall have been duly made and recorded such guardians may make separate sales of any lot or lots, according to such plat, or of such ward's interest therein in the manner above prescribed.

History: 1979 c. 32 s. 63.

786.14 Realty of wards; will or conveyance not disregarded. No real estate or interest therein shall be sold, mortgaged or leased under the provisions of this chapter contrary to the provisions of any will by which the same was devised or of any conveyance by which the same was transferred to such minor or incompetent person.

History: 1979 c. 32 s. 63.

786.15 Realty of wards, validity of the conveyance. Every deed, mortgage, lease or other conveyance made in good faith by the guardian of a minor or incompetent person, pursuant to any order or judgment of a circuit court, made under the provisions of this chapter, shall be as valid and effectual as if made by the minor when of full age or by the incompetent person when of sound memory and understanding.

History: 1977 c. 449; 1979 c. 32 s. 63.

A conveyance of ward's real property by a guardian acting pursuant to court order is binding upon the ward beyond the time of the latter's majority. An option is a "conveyance" within the meaning of this section. Clear View Estates, Inc. v. Veitch, 67 W (2d) 372, 227 NW (2d) 84.

786.16 Realty of wards; effect of sale; proceeds realty. No sale of the real estate of any minor or incompetent person shall give to such minor or incompetent person any other or greater interest or estate in the proceeds of such sale than the minor or incompetent person had in the estate so sold; but the said proceeds shall be deemed real estate of the same nature as the property sold.

History: 1979 c. 32 s. 63; 1979 c. 176.

786.17 Realty of wards, proceeds, how applied; accounts. (1) The court shall make an order for the application and disposition of the proceeds of any such sale or mortgage, and of the income derived from the investment thereof and of the rent accruing upon any such lease, and direct the investment of any portion thereof belonging to the minor or incompetent person which is not needed for the payment of debts or the immediate support of the person and the person's family, so as to secure the same for the benefit of the minor or incompetent person, and shall direct a return of the investment to be made on oath as soon as possible, and shall require accounts to be rendered periodically by any guardian or other person who may be intrusted with the disposition of the proceeds or the income thereof.

(2) If a guardian or other person fails or neglects to make a proper return or to render such accounts as the order of the circuit court requires the court may find the guardian or other person in default.

History: 1977 c. 449; 1979 c. 32 s. 63.

786.18 Ward's estate is subject to particular estates. (1) If the real estate or interest therein of any minor or any incompetent person which is directed to be sold is subject to an estate for life or for years in the whole or any part thereof the order for the sale may, in the discretion of the court or presiding judge, direct that such estate shall be sold, with the reversionary estate or interest of the minor or incompetent person.

(2) After such sale the court or judge must ascertain the present value of such estate according to the law applicable to annuities and direct the payment of such sum in gross, or the investment of the proceeds or the proper portion thereof and the payment of the interest therefrom to the person having such particular estate until the expiration thereof.

History: 1979 c. 32 s. 63.

786.19 Ward's particular estate, disposition. Where the interest of the minor or incompetent person in real estate consists of an estate for life or for years the court or presiding judge may, by order, authorize the guardian to join with the person holding the reversionary estate in a conveyance of the property to which such interest attaches, so as to fully convey the particular estate, on receiving from the proceeds of the sale a gross sum in satisfaction of such estate or such proceeds or the proper portion thereof to be invested, and the interest thereon paid to the person having such estate until the termination thereof; in either case the amount to be ascertained as prescribed in s. 786.18. When the proceeds or a proportionate part of such proceeds is received by the guardian for investment, the order of the court or presiding judge must provide for the investment thereof until termination of the particular estate, and then for the payment thereof to the person entitled thereto.

History: 1979 c. 32 ss. 63, 92 (14); 1979 c. 176.

786.20 Minor, or incompetent, ward of the court. (2) Upon such filing and proper application such foreign guardian or conservator may be licensed by the court or presiding judge to lease, mortgage, or sell the real estate of his ward in said county, or any portion thereof, or interest therein, in the same manner and upon the same terms and conditions and for the same purposes as prescribed in this chapter in the case of a guardian appointed in this state. And such court, or the presiding judge thereof may, upon the petition of such foreign guardian or conservator, appoint some suitable person residing in this state, special guardian of such minor or incompetent person to make such lease, mortgage or sale in the manner provided by this chapter.

(3) In case a special guardian shall be appointed the moneys arising from such lease, mortgage or sale shall be paid out and disposed of or invested as may be directed by the court or judge appointing such special guardian. If any petitioners are minors, the petition shall be signed by their general guardian. The petition must set forth facts which would authorize the selling, mortgaging, leasing or otherwise disposing of the real estate or some part thereof, or interest therein, for one or more of the reasons set forth in s. 786.06. The lands or interests therein shall be sold, mortgaged, leased or otherwise disposed of in such manner as will best promote the interests of those concerned, whether in being or not, and whether their interests are present or contingent. Notice of the application shall be given to all parties having any title to or interest in the lands, who are living at the time of the petition, except those who have joined in the petition at least 10 days prior to the date of the hearing of the application, by service of the same as provided in ch. 801 for the service of the summons in a civil action.

786.30 Future estates, order for disposition. If, after the summary examination or on the coming in of the report of the referee, and on examination of the matter it shall satisfactorily appear that a sale, mortgage, lease or other disposition of the whole or any part of the real estate or interest therein is necessary or proper, the circuit court shall make an order directing the sale, mortgaging, leasing or other disposition of the real estate or interest therein or of such part thereof as the court deems proper to be made by the referee, in such manner and with such restrictions as deemed expedient.

deed or other instrument, or under and by virtue of any last will and testament, and the court may require any or all parties who are living having any interest in the lands to join the referee in the execution of the instrument of conveyance and release all their interests therein.

History: 1977 c. 449; 1979 c. 32 ss. 63, 92 (14).

786.33 Proceeds deemed real estate. No sale, mortgage, lease or other conveyance made as aforesaid of the real estate or any interest therein of any person, whether in being or not, shall give to such person any other or greater interest or estate in the proceeds of such sale, mortgaging or other disposition of said lands or interest therein than the person had in the estate so sold or disposed of but the said proceeds shall be deemed real estate of the same nature as the property sold.

History: 1979 c. 32 ss. 63, 92 (14).

786.36 Changing names, court procedure. Any resident of this state, whether a minor or adult, may upon petition to the circuit court of the county where he or she resides and upon filing a copy of the notice, with proof of publication, as required by s. 786.37, if no sufficient cause is shown to the contrary, have his or her name changed or established by order of the court. If the person whose name is to be changed is a minor under the age of 14 years, the petition may be made by: both parents, if living, or the survivor of them; the guardian or person having legal custody of the minor if both parents are dead or if the parental rights have been terminated by judicial proceedings; or the mother, if the minor is born out of wedlock and not subsequently legitimated or adopted, except that the father must also make the petition unless his rights have been legally terminated. The order shall be entered at length upon the records of the court and a duly certified copy of the record shall be filed in the office of the register of deeds of the county, who shall make an entry in a book to be kept by the register. The state registrar of vital statistics shall then correct the birth record, marriage record or both, and direct the register of deeds and local registrar to make similar corrections on their records. No person engaged in the practice of any profession for which a license is required by the state may change his or her given name or his or her surname to any other given name or any other surname than that under which the person was originally licensed in the profession in this or any other state, in any instance in which the state board or commission for the particular profession, after a hearing, finds that practicing under the changed name operates to unfairly compete with another practitioner or misleads the public as to identity or otherwise results in detriment to the profession or the public. This prohibition against a change of name by a person engaged in the practice of any profession does not apply to any person legally qualified to teach in the public schools in this state, nor to a change of name resulting from marriage or divorce, nor to members of any profession for which there exists no state board or commission authorized to issue licenses or pass upon the qualifications of applicants or hear complaints respecting conduct of members of the profession. Any change of name other than as authorized by law is void.

Although a woman may adopt the surname of her husband subsequent to marriage by customarily using that name, there is no common law, case law or statutory requirement in Wisconsin that she do so, and if the woman continues to use her antenuptial surname, her name is unchanged by the fact that marriage has occurred. This section shall not apply to the name change of a minor if parental rights to the minor have been terminated and guardianship and legal custody transferred under subch. VIII of ch. 48, and the minor has been placed in a permanent foster home, where the guardian and legal custodian have petitioned to change such minor's name to the name or names of the minor's foster parents.
