

For organizational purposes, future Wisconsin comparative retirement studies will be conducted during legislative interim periods.

The next study will be completed for the year 2015 in late 2016.