STUDY ASSIGNMENT: The committee is directed to examine the election process and the administration of elections in the state, other than campaign financing law. The special committee shall specifically examine the implementation of the federal Help America Vote Act of 2002 (HAVA), state oversight of elections in Wisconsin, and the recount process. The special committee may also examine other election-related issues such as voter registration and identification, new technologies for voting, the adequacy of staffing at polling places, and the adequacy of training received by poll workers.

13 MEMBERS: 2 Senators, 3 Representatives, and 8 Public Members.

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL STAFF: Robert J. Conlin, Senior Staff Attorney, Nicholas Zavos, Staff Attorney, and Tracey Uselman, Support Staff.
