RE: Data Relating to Divorce Actions in Wisconsin in 2006

DATE: July 27, 2007

Enclosed is a table setting forth the number of divorce actions opened, by county, in Wisconsin in 2006. The table also breaks down, by county, the number of divorce actions for which a court trial was held; the number for which there was a settlement or a default or uncontested judgment; and the number that were dismissed before trial in 2006, as reported by each county. The information was obtained from the year-end disposition summary document prepared by the Wisconsin Office of Court Operations using data the counties enter in the Consolidated Court Automation Programs (CCAP).
