JOINT LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL PREFATORY NOTE: The bill draft was prepared for the Joint Legislative Council's Special Committee on Permanency for Young Children in the Child Welfare System.

Posttermination Contact Agreement

Under current law, a termination of parental rights (TPR) order permanently severs all legal rights and duties between a birth parent and the child. Current law does, however, permit the court assigned to exercise jurisdiction under the Children's Code (juvenile court) to order visitation by a birth parent of a child placed in sustaining care following a TPR. Current law also permits the juvenile court, in the case of a child who is adopted by a stepparent or relative, to grant reasonable visitation rights to a relative of the child who has maintained a relationship similar to a parent-like relationship with the child if the juvenile court determines that the visitation is in the best interests of the child and that the relative will not undermine the adoptive parents' relationship with the child.

Also under current law, the juvenile court is required to consider certain factors in determining whether TPR would be in the best interests of the child. One of those factors is whether the child has substantial relationships with the parent or other family members, and whether it would be harmful to the child to sever those relationships. The Wisconsin Supreme Court held, in State v. Margaret H., 2000 WI 42, that the severance of substantial relationships factor requires the juvenile court to examine the impact of a legal severance of those relationships on the broader relationships existing between the child and his or her family and that the juvenile court, in its discretion, may afford due weight to an adoptive parent's stated intent to permit continued visitation between the child and his or her pretermination family, even though such a promise is legally unenforceable after TPR and adoption.

This draft permits a posttermination contact agreement to be entered into between the proposed adoptive parents or guardian of a child and a relative of the child at any time before a TPR order is granted if: 1) the child is in the legal custody or under the supervision or guardianship of an agency; and 2) the child, if 12 years of age or over, consents to the terms of the agreement.

Terms of the Agreement

Under the draft, a posttermination contact agreement may provide for any of the following:

1. Visitation between the child and a relative of the child.
2. Future contact and communication between the child, adoptive parent, or guardian and a relative of the child.
3. The sharing of information about the child in the future between the adoptive parent or guardian and a relative of the child.
4. The maintenance and sharing of the medical and genetic history of any relative who is a party to the agreement.

A posttermination contact agreement must contain: (1) an acknowledgement by all relatives who are parties to the agreement that, subject to certain exceptions under current law, the TPR and adoption are irrevocable and that failure by a party to comply with the agreement is not grounds to revoke the TPR or adoption; (2) an acknowledgement by the proposed adoptive parents or guardian that the agreement is enforceable by any person who is permitted posttermination visitation, contact, communication, or sharing of information under the agreement; and (3) a statement by all parties to the agreement that the agreement was entered into voluntarily and with understanding of the terms of the agreement, that no promises or threats were made to coerce any person into entering into the agreement, and that the parties have not relied on any representations other than those contained in the agreement.

Approval of the Agreement

Under the draft, at the time a TPR order is granted, a juvenile court may approve a posttermination contact agreement if: (1) the child and the parent meet the conditions for entering into the agreement; (2) the agreement contains the required provisions; (3) the parties to the agreement, including the parent and child, if 12 years of age or over, sign the agreement; (4) the agency, the child's guardian ad litem, or, in the case of an Indian child, the tribal child welfare department of the Indian child's tribe files the agreement; (5) the juvenile court addresses all parties to the agreement and determines that the agreement was entered into voluntarily and with understanding of the terms of the agreement, that no promises or threats were made to coerce any person into entering into the agreement, and that the parties have not relied on any representations other than those contained in the agreement; (6) the agency, the child's guardian ad litem, and, in the case of an Indian child, the Indian child's tribe submit to the juvenile court recommendations concerning the granting of posttermination visitation, contact, communication, or sharing of information as provided for in the agreement; (7) the juvenile court determines that the relative will not undermine the adoptive parents' or guardian's relationship with the child; and (8) the juvenile court determines that granting posttermination visitation, contact, communication, or sharing of information as provided for in the agreement would be in the best interests of the child.

In determining whether granting posttermination visitation, contact, communication, or sharing of information as provided for in the agreement would be in the best interests of the child, the juvenile court must consider: (1) whether the child has substantial relationships with the person who would have visitation, contact, communication, or sharing of information under the agreement, and whether it would be harmful to the child not to preserve those relationships; (2) any special needs of the child and how those special needs would be affected by visitation, contact, communication, or sharing of information as provided for in the agreement; (3) the specific terms of the agreement and the likelihood that the parties will cooperate in complying with the agreement; (4) the recommendations of the agency, the child's guardian ad litem, and, in the case of an Indian child, the Indian child's tribe; and (5) any other factors that are relevant to the best interests of the child.

The draft requires the juvenile court, in evaluating the TPR factor of a child's substantial relationship with pretermination family members, to consider the terms of any posttermination contact agreement that has been entered into with respect to the child and permits the juvenile court to consider any other agreement by a proposed adoptive parent or guardian to permit contact between the child and his or her pretermination family after adoption of the child.

Enforcement of the Agreement

Under the draft, a posttermination contact agreement that has been approved by the juvenile court is enforceable by the juvenile court. Before petitioning the juvenile court for specific performance of the agreement, however, the petitioner must participate, or attempt to participate, in good faith in formal or informal mediation or other appropriate dispute resolution proceedings to resolve the dispute giving rise to the filing of the petition.

If the juvenile court finds that a person is not in compliance with the agreement, that enforcement of the agreement is in the best interests of the child, and that the petitioner, before filing the petition, participated, or attempted to participate, in good faith in formal or informal mediation or other appropriate dispute resolution proceedings to resolve the dispute giving rise to the filing of the petition, the juvenile court must issue an order requiring specific performance of the agreement, which order is the sole remedy for noncompliance with the agreement.

Termination or Modification of the Agreement

The draft provides that a posttermination contact agreement that has been approved by the juvenile court may be terminated or modified by agreement of the parties, which the juvenile court must approve if it finds that the termination or modification would be in the best interests of the child.

The juvenile court may also terminate or modify an agreement if a party shows that the termination or modification would be in the best interests of the child, or that there has been a substantial change in circumstances since the entry of the last order affecting the agreement, and that the petitioner, before filing the petition, participated, or attempted to participate, in good faith in formal or informal mediation or other appropriate dispute resolution proceedings to resolve the dispute giving rise to the filing of the petition. An order upon a petition to modify an approved posttermination contact agreement may limit, restrict, condition, or decrease visitation, contact, communication, or sharing of information between the child and a relative of the child, but may not expand that visitation, contact, communication, or sharing of information or place any new obligations on the adoptive parent or guardian.

Sharing of Home Study Report

Under current law, all records and papers pertaining to an adoption proceeding may not be disclosed except under certain statutory exceptions or by order of the juvenile court for good cause shown.

The draft permits a proposed adoptive parent whose home is the subject of an investigation to determine whether the home is suitable for the child (home study) to ask the agency conducting the home study to disclose its report of the home study to another agency authorized to place children for adoption, the state adoption information exchange, or the state adoption center. Within ten days after receipt of such a request, the agency must disclose the report to the person named in the request, unless within those ten days the agency petitions the juvenile court for an order permitting the agency not to disclose the report, to restrict the information to be disclosed, or to defer disclosure of the report to a later date or for such other appropriate relief as the agency may request and the juvenile court finds good cause for granting the relief requested.

Disclosure of Name and Address of an Out-of-Home Placement

Under current law, if a child or juvenile is removed from the home and placed in custody, the child in need of protection or services (CHIPS) petition or petition filed under the Juvenile Justice Code must include the place where the child or juvenile is being held unless there is reasonable cause to believe disclosure would result in imminent danger to the child, juvenile, or physical custodian.

Also, before a child is adjudged to be in need of protection or services, the department of children and families (DCF), a county department of human or social services (county department), or a child welfare agency must submit a report to the juvenile court that includes the name and address of the foster parent if the report recommends out-of-home placement (original disposition report to the court). A copy of this report must be given to the child's parent or guardian. However, the juvenile court may order that the name and address of the foster parent be withheld and not included in the copy of the report given to the child's parent or guardian if the court finds that disclosure would result in imminent danger to the child or to the foster parent. The court must hold a hearing on this matter prior to ordering that the information be withheld.

The court may also order the name and address of a foster parent be withheld in the copy of the dispositional order given to the child's parent or guardian if the court holds a hearing and finds that disclosure would result in imminent harm to the child or foster parent. Current law does not include a confidentiality provision for withholding this information if there is a change in out-of-home placement.

The draft creates a procedure for a juvenile court to order the name and address of any out-of-home placement to be withheld from the copy of the CHIPS petition, petition filed under the Juvenile Justice Code, original disposition report to the court, or dispositional order that is given to a child or juvenile's parent or guardian if, after holding a hearing on the matter with notice given to the parent or guardian, the court finds that disclosure is not in the best interest of the child.

Likewise, the draft also gives the ability for the name and address of a proposed change in out-of-home placement or a change from an in-home placement to out-of-home placement to be withheld from the change in placement notice given to the child or juvenile's parent or guardian, and if the child or juvenile is an Indian child or Indian juvenile, the Indian child or Indian juvenile's parent or Indian custodian, if the person or agency primarily responsible for implementing the dispositional order, the district attorney, or the corporation counsel reasonably believes that withholding of this information is in the best interest of the child. The court must then hold a hearing on this matter after giving notice to the child or juvenile's parent or guardian, and if the child or juvenile is an Indian child or juvenile, the Indian child or juvenile's custodian and tribe. The court must order that this information be disclosed if it finds that withholding is not in the best interest of the child or juvenile.

Home Investigation of An Adoptive Parent

Under current law, after an adoption petition is filed, the juvenile court must order an investigation to determine whether the child is a proper subject for adoption and whether the petitioner's (adoptive parent's) home is suitable for the child. The home of an adoptive parent must be investigated for adoption purposes even if the adoptive parent has obtained a license to operate a foster home.

The draft eliminates the requirement for a home investigation to be conducted for purposes of an adoption if all of the following apply: (1) the petitioner's home is a foster home certified to provide level 2 care; (2) the petitioner is licensed to operate his or her home as a foster home certified to provide level 2 care and the license is effective at the time the adoption petition is filed; (3) the petitioner has never had a license to operate a foster home revoked or suspended; (4) the child to be adopted has resided in the home for 12 consecutive months or more immediately prior to the filing of the adoption petition; and (5) the foster home investigation was conducted in accordance with standards established by DCF for investigating a foster home that will be converting into an adoptive home.

Disclosure of Last Known Address of an Adoptive Parent or Proposed Adoptive Parent

Current law requires DCF, a county department, or a child welfare agency to include in a child's permanency plan, which is a plan designed to ensure that the child quickly attains a placement or home providing long-term stability, a statement as to the availability of a safe and appropriate placement for the child with a foster parent, adoptive parent, or proposed adoptive parent of a sibling of the child. Current law also requires DCF, a county department, or a child welfare agency, before placing for adoption a child who has a sibling who has been adopted or has been placed for adoption, to consider the availability of a placement for adoption with an adoptive parent or proposed adoptive parent of a sibling of the child who is identified in the child's permanency plan or who is otherwise known by DCF, the county department, or the child welfare agency. However, those records and papers must be kept in a separate locked file and may not be disclosed except under certain exceptions or by order of the court assigned to exercise jurisdiction under the Children's Code for good cause shown.

This draft permits records and papers pertaining to an adoption proceeding to be disclosed for purposes of determining the availability of a placement for a child with an adoptive parent or proposed adoptive parent of a sibling of the child.

Tribal Court Proceeding for a Suspension of Parental Rights or an Adoption Under the Tribal Law or Custom

In 2009, Wisconsin incorporated the Federal Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA) in the Children's Code and the Juvenile Justice Code.

In very general terms, ICWA applies to certain child custody proceedings in state courts involving an Indian child, and requires certain notices, findings, and placement preferences in state court child custody proceedings under certain circumstances. ICWA provides for tribal court jurisdiction in some circumstances and also provides a process for a tribe to assume exclusive jurisdiction of a state court's child custody proceeding under certain circumstances.

ICWA accords full faith and credit by the state to a tribal court's Indian child custody proceeding, just as the state would to a judicial proceeding of any other governmental entity.

An "Indian child custody proceeding" in a state court means an action for an adoptive placement, an out-of-home care placement, a preadoptive placement, or a termination of parental rights. It does not include a proceeding in a tribal court for a suspension, rather than termination, of parental rights, or an adoption under tribal law or custom.

The draft provides definitions for an "adoption under tribal law or custom" and a "suspension of parental rights", and provides that such actions by a tribal court are accorded full faith and credit by a state court.

Jurisdiction and Venue for an Adoption Petition

Under current law, the court assigned to exercise jurisdiction under the Children's Code (juvenile court) located in the county where the proposed adoptive parent or child resides, upon the filing of a petition for adoption or for the adoptive placement of a child, has jurisdiction over the child until the adoption petition is withdrawn, denied, or granted. The venue for an adoption petition is the county where the proposed adoptive parent or child resides at the time that the petition is filed. The juvenile court may, however, transfer the case to another juvenile court in the county in which the proposed adoptive parents reside.

This draft expands jurisdiction over an adoption petition to also include a juvenile court in a county where the TPR petition was filed and expands the venue to also include the county where the TPR petition was filed.

1           48.02 (1c) “Adoption under tribal law or custom” means an adoption recognized by an
2 Indian child’s tribe that gives a child a permanent parent–child relationship with an individual 3 other than a biological parent.

NOTE: This SECTION provides a definition for an “adoption under tribal law or custom”.

4           SECTION 2. 48.028 (2) (b) and (c) of the statutes are amended to read:

5           48.028 (2) (b) “Former Indian custodian” means a person who was the Indian custodian
6 of an Indian child before termination or suspension of parental rights to and adoption of the 7 Indian child.

8           (c) “Former parent” means a person who was the parent of an Indian child before 9 termination or suspension of parental rights to and adoption of the Indian child.

NOTE: This SECTION modifies the definitions of “former Indian custodian” and “former parent” in the Wisconsin Indian Child Welfare Act (WICWA) to specify that a former parent or former Indian custodian in a state court proceeding includes a person who had parental rights or custodial responsibilities prior to a suspension of parental rights by a tribal court.

10          SECTION 3. 48.028 (2) (f) of the statutes is amended to read:

11          48.028 (2) (f) “Preadoptive placement” means the temporary placement of an Indian 12 child in a foster home, group home, or residential care center for children and youth, in the 13 home of a relative other than a parent, or in the home of a guardian after a termination or 14 suspension of parental rights but prior to or in lieu of an adoptive placement.

NOTE: This SECTION specifies that a preadoptive placement in a state court proceeding under WICWA includes placement after a suspension of parental rights by a tribal court.

15          SECTION 4. 48.028 (2) (i) of the statutes is created to read:

1           48.028 (2) (i) “Suspension of parental rights” means a suspension, pursuant to a tribal 2 court order, of all rights, powers, privileges, immunities, duties, and obligations existing 3 between parent and child.

NOTE: This SECTION provides a definition for a “suspension of parental rights” ordered by a tribal court.

4           SECTION 5. 48.028 (3) (f) of the statutes is amended to read:

5           48.028 (3) (f) Full faith and credit. The state shall give full faith and credit to the public
6 acts, records, and judicial proceedings of any Indian tribe that are applicable to an Indian child
7 custody proceeding, including a proceeding for a suspension of parental rights or an adoption 8 under tribal law or custom, to the same extent that the state gives full faith and credit to the 9 public acts, records, and judicial proceedings of any other governmental entity.

NOTE: This SECTION specifies that a state court must accord full faith and credit to a tribal court’s order for a suspension of parental rights or an adoption under tribal law or custom.

10          SECTION 6. 48.23 (2g) of the statutes is amended to read:

11          48.23 (2g) RIGHT OF INDIAN CHILD’S PARENT OR INDIAN CUSTODIAN TO COUNSEL.
12 Whenever an Indian child is the subject of a proceeding involving the removal of the Indian 13 child from the home of his or her parent or Indian custodian, placement of the Indian child in 14 an out-of-home care placement, or termination or suspension of parental rights to the Indian 15 child, the Indian child’s parent or Indian custodian shall have the right to be represented by 16 counsel as provided in subs. (2) and (4).

NOTE: This SECTION specifies that the State Public Defender may provide representation for an Indian child’s parent or Indian custodian in a proceeding for a suspension of parental rights to the child.

17          SECTION 7. 48.255 (1) (c) of the statutes is amended to read:

18          48.255 (1) (c) Whether the child is in custody, and, if so, the place where the child is 19 being held and the time he or she was taken into custody unless there is reasonable cause to

1 believe that such disclosure ~~would result in imminent danger to the child or physical custodian~~
2 is not in the best interest of the child.

NOTE: This SECTION amends the standard for when the location of a child may not be disclosed in a CHIPS petition. It changes the standard from “imminent danger to a child or physical custodian” to “best interest of the child”.

3 SECTION 8. 48.33 (5) of the statutes is renumbered 48.33 (5) (a) and amended to read:

4 48.33 (5) (a) IDENTITY OF FOSTER PARENT; CONFIDENTIALITY. ~~If Except as provided in par.~~
5 (b), if the report recommends placement in a foster home, and the name of the foster parent
6 is not available at the time the report is filed, the agency shall provide the court and the child’s 7 parent or guardian with the name and address of the foster parent within 21 days after the 8 dispositional order is entered, ~~except that the court may order the information withheld from~~ 9 ~~the child’s parent or guardian if the court finds that disclosure would result in imminent danger~~
10 ~~to the child or to the foster parent. After notifying the child’s parent or guardian, the court shall~~ 11 ~~hold a hearing prior to ordering the information withheld.~~

12 SECTION 9. 48.33 (5) (b) of the statutes is created to read:

13 48.33 (5) (b) If the report recommends that a child be placed outside of his or her home, 14 the court may order the name and address of the out-of-home placement to be withheld from 15 the child’s parent or guardian if the court finds that disclosure of the name and address of the 16 placement is not in the best interest of the child. After notifying the child’s parent or guardian, 17 the court shall hold a hearing prior to ordering that the information be withheld.

NOTE: SECTIONS 8 and 9 allow the court to order the name and address of the recommended out-of-home placement to be withheld from the copy of the CHIPS court report (prepared by DCF, a county department, or a child welfare agency and submitted to the court) that is given to the child’s parent or guardian if the court finds that disclosure is not in the best interest of the child. The court may not order that this information be withheld until a hearing is held on the issue, with notice of the hearing given to the child’s parent or guardian.

1           SECTION 10. 48.355 (2) (b) 2. of the statutes is amended to read:

2           48.355 (2) (b) 2. ~~If Except as provided under subd. 2g., if the child is placed outside the~~
3 home, the name of the place or facility, including transitional placements, where the child will 4 be cared for or treated, except that if the placement is a foster home and if the name and address
5 of the foster parent is not available at the time of the order, the name and address of the foster
6 parent shall be furnished to the court and the parent within 21 days after the order. ~~If, after~~
7 ~~a hearing on the issue with due notice to the parent or guardian, the judge finds that disclosure~~
8 ~~of the identity of the foster parent would result in imminent danger to the child or the foster~~
9 ~~parent, the judge may order the name and address of the prospective foster parents to be~~ 10 ~~withheld from the parent or guardian.~~

11           SECTION 11. 48.355 (2) (b) 2g. of the statutes is created to read:

12           48.355 (2) (b) 2g. If the child is placed outside the home, the court may order the name
13 and address of the placement to be withheld from the child's parent or guardian if the court 14 finds that disclosure of the name and address of the placement is not in the best interest of the 15 child. After notifying the child's parent or guardian, the court shall hold a hearing prior to 16 ordering that the information be withheld.

NOTE: SECTIONS 10 and 11 allow the court to order that the name and address of the out-of-home placement be withheld from the copy of the CHIPS dispositional order that is given to the child's parent or guardian if the court finds that disclosure is not in the best interest of the child.
The court may not order that this information be withheld until a hearing is held on the issue, with notice of the hearing given to the child's parent or guardian.

17           SECTION 12. 48.357 (1) (am) 1. of the statutes is amended to read:

18           48.357 (1) (am) 1. ~~If Except as provided under subd. 1r., if the proposed change in~~ 19 placement involves any change in placement other than a change in placement specified in par.
20 (c), the person or agency primarily responsible for implementing the dispositional order, the

1 district attorney, or the corporation counsel shall cause written notice of the proposed change
2 in placement to be sent to the child, the parent, guardian, and legal custodian of the child, any 3 foster parent or other physical custodian described in s. 48.62 (2) of the child, the child's 4 court-appointed special advocate, and, if the child is an Indian child who has been removed 5 from the home of his or her parent or Indian custodian, the Indian child's Indian custodian and 6 tribe. If the child is the expectant mother of an unborn child under s. 48.133, written notice
7 shall also be sent to the unborn child by the unborn child's guardian ad litem. If the change
8 in placement involves an adult expectant mother of an unborn child under s. 48.133, written 9 notice shall be sent to the adult expectant mother and the unborn child by the unborn child's 10 guardian ad litem. The notice shall contain the name and address of the new placement, the 11 reasons for the change in placement, a statement describing why the new placement is 12 preferable to the present placement, and a statement of how the new placement satisfies 13 objectives of the treatment plan ordered by the court.

14 SECTION 13. 48.357 (1) (am) 1r. of the statutes is created to read:

15 48.357 (1) (am) 1r. If the person or agency primarily responsible for implementing the 16 dispositional order, the district attorney, or the corporation counsel reasonably believes that 17 withholding the name and address of the new placement is in the best interest of the child, then 18 the person or agency primarily responsible for implementing the dispositional order, the 19 district attorney, or the corporation counsel may cause written notice of the proposed change 20 in placement under subd. 1. to be sent to the child's parent or guardian without disclosure of 21 the name and address of the new placement. The court shall hold a hearing to determine 22 whether withholding the name and address of the placement is in the best interest of the child
23 with due notice to the child's parent or guardian, and if the child is an Indian child, the Indian 24 child's Indian custodian and tribe. If, after a hearing on the issue, the court finds that

1 withholding the name and address of the new placement is not in the best interest of the child,
2 then the court shall order the name and address to be disclosed to the parent or guardian, and
3 if the child is an Indian child his or her parent or Indian custodian.

NOTE: SECTIONS 12 and 13 allow the name and address of a proposed change in out-of-home placement to be withheld from the written notice of the proposed change in placement that is given to the child's parent or custodian, and if the child is an Indian child, the Indian child's parent or Indian custodian, if the person or agency primarily responsible for implementing the dispositional order, the district attorney, or the corporation counsel reasonably believes that disclosure of this information is not in the best interest of the child.

If the name and address of the new placement is withheld, then the court must hold a hearing to determine whether disclosure of the name and address is in the best interest of the child, after notice is given to the child's parent or custodian, and if the child is an Indian child, the Indian child's parent or Indian custodian and tribe. 9 parent or guardian, and if the child is an Indian child, the Indian child's Indian custodian and 10 tribe, the court shall hold a hearing prior to ordering that the information be withheld.

8 relationships, the court shall consider the terms of any posttermination contact agreement that 9 has been entered into under s. 48.429 with respect to the child and may consider any other
10 agreement by a proposed adoptive parent to permit contact between the child and the parent 11 or other family members after adoption of the child.

NOTE: This SECTION requires the juvenile court, in evaluating the best interests of a child for disposition of a TPR action, to consider the terms of a posttermination contact agreement in the context of the child's substantial relationships with the parent or any other family member.

12           SECTION 21. 48.428 (6) (a) of the statutes is renumbered 48.428 (6) and amended to 17           SECTION 22. 48.428 (6) (b) of the statutes is repealed.

NOTE: This SECTION removes the considerations for a court to grant posttermination contact privileges to a parent of a child placed in sustaining care after a TPR is ordered.

1       SECTION 23. 48.429 of the statutes is created to read:

2       48.429 Posttermination contact privileges. (1) DEFINITIONS. In this section:

3       (a) “Approved posttermination contact agreement” means a posttermination contact
4 agreement that has been approved by the court under sub. (4).

5       (b) “Posttermination contact agreement” means an agreement between a proposed 6 adoptive parent or guardian of a child and a relative of the child that provides for any of the 7 following after termination of parental rights to the child:

8           1. Visitation between the child and a relative of the child.

9           2. Future contact and communication between the child, adoptive parent, or guardian 10 and relative of the child.

14 is a party to the agreement.

15       (c) “Relative” means a relative as defined in s. 48.02 (15), and, in the case of an Indian 16 child, includes an extended family member, as defined in s. 48.028 (2) (am).

17       (2) POSTTERMINATION CONTACT AGREEMENTS; WHEN PERMITTED. At any time before a 18 termination of parental rights order is granted, a posttermination contact agreement may be 19 entered into between the proposed adoptive parents or guardian of a child and a relative of the 20 child if all of the following conditions are met:

21           (a) The child is in the legal custody or under the supervision or guardianship of an 22 agency.

1 (b) The child, if 12 years of age or over, consents to the terms of the agreement.

2 (3) PROVISIONS OF POSTTERMINATION CONTACT AGREEMENT. A posttermination contact

5 parties to the agreement that, subject to ss. 48.028 (5) (c) and (6) and 48.46 (1m) and (2), the 6 termination of parental rights to and adoption of the child are irrevocable and that failure by 7 a party to comply with the agreement is not grounds to revoke the termination of parental rights
8 or adoption. A posttermination contact agreement in which one of the parties is a parent, as 9 defined in s. 48.02 (13) for purposes of the application of s. 48.028 and the federal Indian Child

16 voluntarily and with understanding of the terms of the agreement, that no promises or threats 17 were made to coerce any person into entering into the agreement, and that the parties have not 18 relied on any representations other than those contained in the agreement.

19 (4) APPROVAL OF GRANTING POSTTERMINATION CONTACT AGREEMENT. At the time a 20 termination of parental rights order is granted, a court may approve a posttermination contact 21 agreement if all of the following conditions are met:

22 (a) The child and the parent meet the conditions specified in sub. (2).

23 (b) The agreement contains the provisions specified in sub. (3) (a) to (c).

1 (c) The agreement is signed by all parties to the agreement including the parent and 2 child, if 12 years of age or over. If a parent who is under 12 years of age or other relative who 3 is a child is to be granted posttermination visitation, contact, communication, or sharing of 4 information under the agreement, the parent, guardian, legal custodian, or Indian custodian
5 of the parent or other relative shall sign the agreement on behalf of the parent or other relative.

6 (d) The agency having guardianship, legal custody, or supervision of the child, the 7 child's guardian ad litem or, in the case of an Indian child, the tribal child welfare department
8 of the Indian child's tribe files the agreement with the court. If the agency or tribal child 9 welfare department files the agreement, the agency or tribal child welfare department shall 10 comply with this paragraph by including in the court report under s. 48.425 (1) the statement 11 under s. 48.425 (1) (h) and attaching the agreement to the court report.

12 (e) The court addresses all parties to the agreement and determines by clear and 13 convincing evidence that the agreement was entered into voluntarily and with understanding 14 of the terms of the agreement, that no promises or threats were made to coerce any person into 15 entering into the agreement, and that the parties have not relied on any representations other 16 than those contained in the agreement.

17 (f) The agency having guardianship, legal custody, or supervision of the child, the 18 child's guardian ad litem, and, in the case of an Indian child, the Indian child's tribe submit 19 to the court recommendations concerning the granting of posttermination visitation, contact, 20 communication, or sharing of information as provided for in the agreement.

21 (g) The court determines that the relative will not undermine the guardian or adoptive 22 parent's or parents' relationship with the child.

23 (h) The court determines by clear and convincing evidence that granting 24 posttermination visitation, contact, communication, or sharing of information as provided for

1 in the agreement would be in the best interests of the child. In determining whether granting
2 posttermination visitation, contact, communication, or sharing of information as provided for 3 in the agreement would be in the best interests of the child, the court shall consider all of the 4 following factors:

5 1. Whether the child has substantial relationships with the person who would have 6 visitation, contact, communication, or sharing of information under the agreement, and 7 whether it would be harmful to the child not to preserve those relationships.

8 2. Any special needs of the child and how those special needs would be affected by 9 visitation, contact, communication, or sharing of information as provided for in the 10 agreement.

11 3. The specific terms of the agreement and the likelihood that the parties will cooperate 12 in complying with the agreement.

13 4. The recommendations of the agency having guardianship, legal custody, or 14 supervision of the child, the child's guardian ad litem, and, in the case of an Indian child, the 15 Indian child's tribe.

16 5. Any other factors that are relevant to the best interests of the child under s. 48.01 (1)
17 (intro.) or, in the case of an Indian child, the best interests of the Indian child under s. 48.01 18 (2).

19 (5) ENFORCEMENT OF POSTTERMINATION CONTACT AGREEMENT. (a) A posttermination
20 contact agreement is enforceable only if the agreement is approved by the court under sub. (4).
21 Any party to an approved posttermination contact agreement may petition the court that 22 approved the agreement for specific performance of the agreement. The petition shall allege 23 facts sufficient to show that a person who is bound by the agreement is not in compliance with 24 the agreement, that enforcement of the agreement is in the best interests of the child in light

1 of the factors specified in sub. (4) (g), and that the petitioner, before filing the petition,
2 participated, or attempted to participate, in good faith in formal or informal mediation or other 3 appropriate dispute resolution proceedings to resolve the dispute giving rise to the filing of 4 the petition.

5 (b) The court shall set a date and time for a hearing on a petition filed under par. (a) and 6 shall provide notice of the hearing to the petitioner and to all other parties to the approved
7 posttermination contact agreement, the agency that had guardianship, legal custody, or
8 supervision of the child before the termination of parental rights, and, in the case of an Indian
9 child, the Indian child's tribe. The hearing shall take place on a date that allows the persons
10 notified of the hearing a reasonable time to prepare, but is no more than 30 days after the filing
11 of the petition.

12 (c) If the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that any person bound by an 13 approved posttermination contact agreement is not in compliance with the agreement; that 14 enforcement of the agreement is in the best interests of the child in light of the factors specified 15 in sub. (4) (g); and that the petitioner, before filing the petition, participated, or attempted to 16 participate, in good faith in formal or informal mediation or other appropriate dispute
17 resolution proceedings to resolve the dispute giving rise to the filing of the petition, the court
18 shall issue an order requiring specific performance of the agreement. An order for specific 19 performance shall be the sole remedy for any noncompliance with the agreement.

20 (d) A court may not award damages, costs, or attorney fees or revoke a termination of 21 parental rights order or an order of adoption because a party to a posttermination contact 22 agreement fails to comply with the agreement.

23 (6) TERMINATION OR MODIFICATION OF POSTTERMINATION CONTACT AGREEMENT. (a) The 24 parties to an approved posttermination contact agreement may agree to terminate or modify

1 the agreement. If the parties agree to terminate or modify the agreement and if the child, if 2 12 years of age or over, consents to the termination or modification, the parties shall sign and 3 file with the court that approved the agreement the modified agreement or a stipulation
4 terminating the agreement. If, after reviewing the stipulation or modified agreement, the court
5 finds by clear and convincing evidence that termination or modification of the agreement
6 would be in the best interests of the child in light of the factors specified in sub. (4) (g), the 7 court shall, without a hearing, approve the termination or modification of the agreement.

8 (b) 1. Any party to an approved posttermination contact agreement may petition the 9 court that approved the agreement to terminate or modify the agreement. The petition shall 10 allege facts sufficient to show that termination or modification of the agreement would be in 11 the best interests of the child in light of the factors specified in sub. (4) (g), or that there has 12 been a substantial change in circumstances since the entry of the last order affecting the 13 agreement, and that the petitioner, before filing the petition, participated, or attempted to 14 participate, in good faith in formal or informal mediation or other appropriate dispute
15 resolution proceedings to resolve the issue giving rise to the filing of the petition.

16 2. The court shall set a date and time for a hearing on a petition under subd. 1. and shall 17 provide notice of the hearing to the petitioner and to all other parties to the approved
18 posttermination contact agreement, the agency that had guardianship, legal custody, or
19 supervision of the child before the termination of parental rights, and, in the case of an Indian
20 child, the Indian child's tribe. The hearing shall take place on a date that allows the persons
21 notified of the hearing a reasonable time to prepare, but is no more than 30 days after the filing
22 of the petition.

23 3. Notwithstanding s. 48.01 (1) (intro.) and (2), the court may terminate or modify the 24 approved posttermination contact agreement if the court finds by clear and convincing

1 evidence that termination or modification of the agreement would be in the best interests of 2 the child in light of the factors specified in sub. (4) (g), or that there has been a substantial 3 change in circumstances since the entry of the last order affecting the agreement, and that the 4 petitioner, before filing the petition, participated, or attempted to participate, in good faith in 5 formal or informal mediation or other appropriate dispute resolution proceedings to resolve
6 the issue giving rise to the filing of the petition. An order to modify an approved
7 posttermination contact agreement may limit, restrict, condition, or decrease visitation, 8 contact, communication, or sharing of information between the child and a birth relative of 9 the child, but may not expand, enlarge, or increase that visitation, contact, communication, or 10 sharing of information or place any new obligation on the adoptive parent or agency having 11 guardianship, legal custody, or supervision of the child.

NOTE: This SECTION creates a new section to govern posttermination contact privileges, specifying who may enter into such an agreement, what must be included in the agreement, the conditions for a court's approval of such an agreement, and the procedures for enforcement, modification, or termination of such an agreement.

12 SECTION 24. 48.43 (2) (d) of the statutes is created to read:

13 48.43 (2) (d) A court may approve a posttermination contact agreement under s. 48.429.
