Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau
This bill is explained in the NOTES provided by the Joint Legislative Council in the bill.
For further information see the local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

JOINT LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL PREFATORY NOTE: This bill was prepared for the Joint Legislative Council's Study Committee on Volunteer Firefighter and Emergency Medical Technician (EMT) Shortages. This bill applies to a city, village, town, or county that employs firefighters, EMTs, or first responders. The bill specifies that the local public employer may not prohibit those employees from volunteering in that same capacity with another fire department or emergency medical service provider.

SECTION 1. 66.0501 (5) (title) of the statutes is amended to read:
66.0501 (5) (title) Employees may be candidates, volunteers.

SECTION 2. 66.0501 (5) (c) of the statutes is created to read:

66.0501 (5) (c) No political subdivision may prohibit its public employees who are fire fighters, emergency medical technicians, or first responders from volunteering to serve in that same capacity in another jurisdiction.
