The chart below illustrates what the process will look like if the committee eliminates the DCF 2-day public disclosure requirement so only substantiated cases are disclosed Critical Incident publicly. An option to disclose prior to substantiation has also been noted and Serious injury, ergregious could be considered by the committee incident or death to address concerns raised at the prior meeting. 2 day notice County sends this to DCF Case qualifies for Case qualifies for Case does not qualify for review practice review summary review County & DCF response; Case closed and is not included County response only; option in subsequent reports to publicly disclose. option to publicly disclose. County completes investigation Systems change review may also be occurring. Case Case unsubstantiated substantiated Systems change review could Nothing further. Data could still be occurring. be included in the annual report. 90-day summary report completed Report provided to governor, legislature & publicly disclosed.