

Wisconsin Legislative Council Symposia Series on Early Literacy

Week 5: Survey of Early Literacy Policy Initiatives in Other States

Experts from the Education Commission of the States (ECS) will provide an overview of state policies in K-3 literacy, including common policy components, state examples, and national trends. Learning about early literacy initiatives in other states may provide Wisconsin legislators with ideas for policy to pursue here in our own state.

ECS is a nonpartisan organization that conducts education policy research, tracks education policy trends, and provides advice and policy assistance to state education policymakers. ECS is overseen by a Commission made up of members from every state and territory. For more information visit: <https://www.ecs.org/>.
