2023 Administrative Rules Review Report

March 31, 2023

[This page left intentionally blank.]

Introduction

The Wisconsin Ethics Commission is pleased to submit its biennial report to the Joint Committee for Review of Administrative Rules, in accordance with WIS. STAT. § 227.29.

This report provides a list of all rules promulgated or otherwise administered by the Wisconsin Ethics Commission within the following categories:

- a. Unauthorized Rules.
- b. Rules for Which the Authority to Promulgate has been Restricted.
- c. Rules that are Obsolete or have been Rendered Unnecessary.
- d. Rules that are Duplicative of, Superseded by, or in Conflict with Another Rule, a State Statute, a Federal Statute or Regulation, or a Ruling of a Court of Competent Jurisdiction.
- e. Rules that the Agency Determines are Economically Burdensome.

This report also includes a description of the agency's action to address each rule listed in this report, a description of the status of each rule listed in the previous biennial report, and the agency's formal statement of a determination that there are no rules that fall into a particular category.

A. Unauthorized Rules

The Wisconsin Ethics Commission has determined that none of the agency's administrative rules currently fall into this category.

B. Rules for Which the Authority to Promulgate has been Restricted

The Wisconsin Ethics Commission has determined that none of the agency's administrative rules currently fall into this category.

C. Rules that are Obsolete or have been Rendered Unnecessary

The Wisconsin Ethics Commission has determined that none of the agency's administrative rules currently fall into this category.

D. Rules that are Duplicative of, Superseded by, or in Conflict with Another Rule, a State Statute, a Federal Statute or Regulation, or a Ruling of a Court of Competent Jurisdiction

While not strictly duplicative of, superseded by, or in conflict with state statute, the Wisconsin Ethics Commission has identified a potential inconsistency between WIS. ADMIN. CODE ETH 1.26 (5) and WIS. STAT. §§ 11.0103 (2) (b), 11.0104 (5) (b), and 11.1110 (2) (b). The Commission plans to review this rule to determine if further action is necessary.

E. Rules that the Agency Determines are Economically Burdensome

The Wisconsin Ethics Commission has determined that none of the agency's administrative rules currently fall into this category.
