4 “SECTION 2m. 23.15 (5m) of the statutes is created to read:

5 23.15 (5m) Biennially, beginning on December 30, 2021, the department shall 6 submit a report on land sales to the joint committee on finance and the senate and 7 assembly standing committees having jurisdiction over environment, forestry, and 8 natural resources matters regarding land sales. The department shall include in its 9 report a list of all parcels that were approved for sale by the natural resources board 10 under this section during the previous fiscal biennium. For each listed parcel, the 11 department shall identify the location, acreage, proposed sale price, and reason for 12 sale and shall indicate if the parcel was sold, is still for sale, or was removed from the 13 market before sale, and provide an explanation for the parcel’s sale status. The 14 department shall include an accounting of the total revenue received from land sales 15 under this section during the previous fiscal biennium and detail how the proceeds 16 from land sales under this section were allocated during the previous fiscal 17 biennium.”.
