
AN ACT to create 610.63 of the statutes; relating to: permitted electronic transmissions under employer-sponsored health insurance policies and plans.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill allows an insurer or health maintenance organization to agree to deliver all communications related to an employer-sponsored group health benefit plan, group health plan, or, if provided under a separate policy, certificate, or contract of insurance, limited scope-dental or vision benefits to persons covered under such a policy or plan by electronic means when the person's employer consents to electronic delivery. In order to consent to electronic delivery, the employer must confirm that each employee covered under the policy or plan routinely uses electronic communications during the normal course of employment, was given an opportunity to opt out of delivery by electronic means, and will be given an opportunity to opt out of delivery by electronic means on an annual basis. Under current law, an insurer may deliver notices and documents to a party by electronic means if certain conditions are satisfied, including that the party affirmatively consented to that method of delivery and, before the party gave consent, the insurer provided the party with a clear and conspicuous statement informing the party of the right or option to have notices and documents provided or made available in paper or another nonelectronic form and the right of the party to withdraw their consent to have notices and documents delivered to them by electronic means.
