“(4m) Exception for alcohol beverages provided by retail licensee.

Notwithstanding any operating limitation in sub. (1) or (2), a Class “A” or Class “B” licensee may serve fermented malt beverages, and a “Class A” or “Class B” licensee may serve intoxicating liquor, at an event on the event venue covered by a permit under this section if all of the following apply:

(a) The alcohol beverages served were purchased from the licensee in a face-to-face transaction on the licensee’s licensed premises.
(b) The alcohol beverages were purchased from the licensee by either the person who holds the no-sale event venue permit or a renter or lessee of the event venue.

(c) The purchaser of the alcohol beverages and the licensee entered into a written agreement, prior to the event at which the alcohol beverages are served, governing service of the alcohol beverages at the event.

(d) The alcohol beverages are served only by persons holding an operator’s license under s. 125.17 or an operator’s permit under s. 125.175.”.
