Summary of, and comparison with, existing or proposed federal regulation:

The Federal Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act (“FIRREA”), 12 U.S.C. 3331 et seq., (Title XI) was enacted in 1989. Under FIRREA, insured financial institutions and insured credit unions are required to obtain the services of a state certified or licensed appraiser for appraisals conducted in connection with “federally related transactions.”

The Appraisal Subcommittee of the Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council is authorized under FIRREA to monitor the requirements established by states for the certification and licensing of individuals who are qualified to perform appraisals in connection with federally related transactions. 21 USC 3333; Appraisal Subcommittee – Policy Statements Regarding State Certification and Licensing of Appraisers.

Under FIRREA, real estate appraisals performed in connection with federally related transactions are required to be performed in accordance with generally accepted appraisal standards as evidenced by the appraisal standards promulgated by the Appraisal Standards Board (ASB) of the Appraisal Foundation. 21 USC 3339; Appraisal Subcommittee – Policy Statements Regarding State Certification and Licensing of Appraisers, Statement 3.

The appraisal standards promulgated by the ASB are contained in the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (USPAP) and are available on the Appraisal Foundation’s website at: <http://www.appraisalfoundation.org>.

Comparison with rules in adjacent states:

Under FIRREA, all states, including Illinois, Iowa, Michigan and Minnesota, must assure that certified appraisers comply with the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice promulgated by the Appraisal Standards Board. In Wisconsin, USPAP has been incorporated by reference in Appendix I to ch. RL 87, Code. See also, s. 458.24, Stats.

Anticipated costs incurred by private sector:

The department has determined that this rule will have no significant fiscal effect on the private sector.

This proposed rule will have no impact on the department’s funds.

Effect on small business:

These proposed rules will have no significant economic impact on a substantial number of small businesses, as defined in s. 227.114 (1) (a), Stats.
