(g) Relieve or exonerate a person from liability for conduct that constitutes any of the following:

1. A willful failure to deal fairly with the company or its members in connection with a matter in which the person has a material conflict of interest.

2. A violation of the criminal law, unless the person had reasonable cause to believe that the person's conduct was lawful or no reasonable cause to believe that the person's conduct was unlawful.

(c) Except as provided in sub. (3) (g), a written operating agreement may do any of the following:

1. Alter or eliminate the aspects of, or restrict remedies with respect to, the duty of loyalty stated in s. 183.0409 (2) and (9).

(5) The court shall decide as a matter of law whether a term of an operating agreement is manifestly unreasonable under sub. (3) (f). The court shall make its determination as of the time the challenged term became part of the operating agreement and by considering only circumstances existing at that time. The court may invalidate the term only if, in light of the purposes, activities, and affairs of the limited liability company, it is readily apparent that the objective of the term is unreasonable or that the term is an unreasonable means to achieve the term's objective.

SUBCHAPTER IIIRELATIONS OF MEMBERS AND MANAGERS TO PERSONS DEALING WITH LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY

183.0301 No agency power of member as member.

(1) A member is not an agent of a limited liability company solely by reason of being a member.

(2) A person's status as a member does not prevent or restrict law other than this chapter from imposing liability on a limited liability company because of the person's conduct.

History: 2021 a. 258.

183.0302 Statement of authority. (1) (a) A limited liability company may deliver to the department for filing a statement of authority.

(d) The contents of the amendment or a declaration that the statement is canceled.

(2m) (a) A statement of authority is renewable for successive 5-year periods. To renew a statement of authority filed by the department, a limited liability company must deliver to the department for filing, during the 3 months before the cancellation would occur under sub. (10), a statement of renewal that includes all of the following:

1. The name of the company.

2. The street address of the company's registered office in this state and the name and e-mail address of its registered agent at that office.

3. The statement of authority being affected.

4. A declaration that the statement of authority is being renewed.

(b) When filed, a statement of renewal that complies with par. (a) renews the statement of authority for a 5-year period commencing with the date of filing of the statement of renewal.

(3) A statement of authority affects only the power of a person to bind a limited liability company to persons that are not members.

(4) Subject to sub. (3) and s. 183.0103 (4), and except as otherwise provided in subs. (6) to (8), a limitation on the authority of a person or a position contained in an effective statement of authority is not by itself evidence of any person's knowledge or notice of the limitation.

(5) Subject to sub. (3), a grant of authority not pertaining to transfers of real property and contained in an effective statement of authority is conclusive in favor of a person that gives value in reliance on the grant, except to the extent that when the person gives value any of the following applies:

(a) The person has knowledge to the contrary.

(b) The statement has been canceled or restrictively amended under sub. (2).

(c) A limitation on the grant is contained in another statement of authority that became effective after the statement containing the grant became effective.

(6) Subject to sub. (3), an effective statement of authority that grants authority to transfer real property held in the name of the limited liability company, a certified copy of which statement is recorded in the office of the register of deeds for the county in which the property is located, is conclusive in favor of a person that gives value in reliance on the grant without knowledge to the contrary, except to the extent that when the person gives value any of the following applies:

(a) The statement has been canceled or restrictively amended under sub. (2) and a certified copy of the cancellation or restrictive amendment has been recorded in the office of the register of deeds for the county in which the property is located.

(b) A limitation on the grant is contained in another statement of authority that became effective after the statement containing the grant became effective, and a certified copy of the later-effective statement is recorded in the office of the register of deeds for the county in which the property is located.

(7) Subject to sub. (3), if a certified copy of an effective statement containing a limitation on the authority to transfer real property held in the name of a limited liability company is recorded in the office of the register of deeds for the county in which the property is located, all persons are deemed to know of the limitation.

(8) Subject to sub. (9), an effective statement of dissolution or termination is a cancellation of any filed statement of authority for the purposes of sub. (6) and is a limitation on authority for the purposes of sub. (7).

(9) After a statement of dissolution becomes effective, a limited liability company may deliver to the department for filing and, if appropriate, may record a statement of authority that is designated as a post-dissolution statement of authority. The statement operates as provided in subs. (6) and (7).

(10) Unless earlier canceled, an effective statement of authority is canceled by operation of law 5 years after the date on which the statement, or its most recent amendment or renewal, becomes effective. This cancellation operates without need for any recording under sub. (6) or (7).

(11) An effective statement of denial operates as a restrictive amendment under this section and may be recorded by certified copy for purposes of sub. (6) (a).

History: 2021 a. 258.

183.0303 Statement of denial. A person named in a filed statement of authority granting that person authority may deliver to the department for filing a statement of denial that does all of the following:

(1) Provides the name of the limited liability company and the caption of the statement of authority to which the statement of denial pertains.

(2) Denies the grant of authority.

History: 2021 a. 258.

183.0304 Liability of members and managers. (1) A debt, obligation, or other liability of a limited liability company is solely the debt, obligation, or other liability of the company. Except as provided in ss. 73.0306, 183.0403, and 183.0406, a member or manager is not personally liable, directly or indirectly, by way of contribution or otherwise, for a debt, obligation, or other liability of the company solely by reason of being or acting as a member or manager. This subsection applies regardless of the dissolution of the company.

(2) The failure of a limited liability company to observe formalities relating to the exercise of its powers or management of its activities and affairs is not a ground for imposing liability on a member or manager for a debt, obligation, or other liability of the company.

History: 2021 a. 258.

SUBCHAPTER IV

RELATIONS OF MEMBERS TO EACH OTHER AND TO LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY

183.0401 Becoming member. (1) If a limited liability company is to have only one member upon formation, the person becomes a member as agreed by that person and the organizer of the company. That person and the organizer may be, but need not be, different persons. If different, the organizer acts on behalf of the initial member.

(2) If a limited liability company is to have more than one member upon formation, those persons become members as agreed by the persons before the formation of the company. The organizer acts on behalf of the persons in forming the company and may be, but need not be, one of the persons.

(3) A person becomes an initial member of a limited liability company with the consent of a majority of the organizers. The organizers may consent to more than one person simultaneously becoming the company's initial members.

(4) After formation of a limited liability company, a person becomes a member in any of the following ways:

- (a) As provided in the operating agreement.
- (b) As the result of a transaction effective under subch. X.
- (c) With the affirmative vote or consent of all the members.
- (d) As provided in s. 183.0701 (1) (c).
- (e) As provided in s. 183.0503 (6) (c).

(5) A person may become a member without doing any of the following:

- (a) Acquiring a transferable interest.
- (b) Making or being obligated to make a contribution to the limited liability company.

History: 2021 a. 258.

183.0402 Form of contribution. (1) A contribution may consist of money or property transferred to, services performed for, or another benefit provided to the limited liability company or an agreement to transfer money or property to, perform services for, or provide another benefit to the company.

(2) The value of a member's contribution shall be determined in the manner provided in an operating agreement. If the operating agreement does not so provide, the value of a contribution shall be approved by the members under s. 183.0407 (2) (d). This value shall be properly reflected in the records and information kept by the limited liability company at its principal place of business or activity, and this value shall be binding and conclusive on the limited liability company and its members.

History: 2021 a. 258.

183.0403 Liability for contributions. (1) A person's obligation to make a contribution to a limited liability company is not excused by the person's death, disability, termination, or other inability to perform personally.

(2) If a person does not fulfill an obligation to make a contribution other than money, the person is obligated at the option of the limited liability company to contribute money equal to the value of the part of the contribution which has not been made.

(3) Unless otherwise provided in a written operating agreement, a member's obligation to provide tangible or intangible property or other benefit to a limited liability company, including money, services performed, promissory notes, other agreements to contribute money or property, and contracts for services to be performed, as a contribution to the limited liability company may be compromised only by the written consent of all the members. If a creditor of a limited liability company extends credit or otherwise acts in reliance on an obligation described in sub. (1) without knowledge or notice of a compromise under this subsection, the creditor may enforce the obligation.

History: 2021 a. 258.

183.0404 Sharing of and right to distributions before dissolution. (1) Except to the extent necessary to comply with any transfer effective under s. 183.0502 or charging order in effect under s. 183.0503, any distributions made by a limited liability company before its dissolution and winding up must be made proportionally among members and dissociated members on the basis of the value of the contributions made by each such member, as stated in the records required to be kept under s. 183.0402 (2), or, in the case of a company treated as a partnership for tax purposes, the partnership capital account of each such member as computed for tax reporting purposes.

(2) A person has a right to a distribution before the dissolution and winding up of a limited liability company only if the company decides to make an interim distribution. A person's dissociation does not entitle the person to a distribution.

(3) A person does not have a right to demand or receive a distribution from a limited liability company in any form other than money. Except as otherwise provided in s. 183.0707 (4), a limited liability company may distribute an asset in kind if each part of the asset is fungible with each other part and each person receives a percentage of the asset equal in value to the person's share of distributions.

(4) If a member or transferee becomes entitled to receive a distribution, the member or transferee has the status of, and is entitled to all remedies available to, a creditor of the limited liability company with respect to the distribution. However, the company's obligation to make a distribution is subject to offset for any amount owed to the company by the member or a person dissociated as a member on whose account the distribution is made.

History: 2021 a. 258.

183.0405 Limitations on distributions. (1) A limited liability company may not make a distribution, including a distribution under s. 183.0707, if after the distribution any of the following applies:

(a) The company would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the ordinary course of the company's activities and affairs.

(b) The company's total assets would be less than or equal to the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed, if the company were to be dissolved and wound up at the time of the distribution, to satisfy the preferential rights upon dissolution and winding up of members and transferees whose preferential rights are superior to the rights of persons receiving the distribution.

(2) A limited liability company may base a determination that a distribution is not prohibited under sub. (1) on any of the following:

(a) Financial statements prepared on the basis of accounting practices and principles that are reasonable in the circumstances.

(b) A fair valuation or other method that is reasonable under the circumstances.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in sub. (5), the effect of a distribution under sub. (1) is measured as follows:

(a) In the case of a distribution as described in s. 183.0102 (4) (a) 1. and 2., as of the earlier of the following:

1. The date money or other property is transferred or debt is incurred by the limited liability company.

2. The date the person entitled to the distribution ceases to own the interest or right being acquired by the company in return for the distribution.

(b) In the case of any distribution of indebtedness other than one under par. (a), as of the date the indebtedness is distributed.

(c) In all cases other than those under par. (a) or (b), as of the following:

183.0405 UNIFORM LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY LAW

Updated 21-22 Wis. Stats. 14

1. The date the distribution is authorized, if the payment occurs not later than 120 days after that date.

2. The date the payment is made, if the payment occurs more than 120 days after the distribution is authorized.

(4) A limited liability company's indebtedness to a member or transferee incurred by reason of a distribution made in accordance with this section is at parity with the company's indebtedness to its general, unsecured creditors, except to the extent subordinated by agreement.

(5) A limited liability company's indebtedness, including indebtedness issued as a distribution, is not a liability for purposes of sub. (1) if the terms of the indebtedness provide that payment of principal and interest is made only if and to the extent that payment of a distribution could then be made under this section. If the indebtedness is issued as a distribution, each payment of principal or interest is treated as a distribution, the effect of which is measured on the date the payment is made.

(6) In measuring the effect of a distribution under s. 183.0707, the liabilities of a dissolved limited liability company do not include any claim that has been disposed of under s. 183.0704, 183.0705, or 183.0706.

History: 2021 a. 258.

183.0406 Liability for improper distributions. (1) Except as otherwise provided in sub. (2), if a member of a member-managed limited liability company or manager of a manager-managed limited liability company consents to a distribution made in violation of s. 183.0405 and in consenting to the distribution fails to comply with s. 183.0409, the member or manager is personally liable to the company for the amount of the distribution which exceeds the amount that could have been distributed without the violation of s. 183.0405.

(2) To the extent a written operating agreement of a member-managed limited liability company relieves a member of the authority and responsibility to consent to distributions and imposes that authority and responsibility on one or more other members, the liability stated in sub. (1) applies to the other members and not the member that the written operating agreement relieves of the authority and responsibility.

(3) A person that receives a distribution knowing that the distribution violated s. 183.0405 is personally liable to the limited liability company but only to the extent that the distribution received by the person exceeded the amount that could have been properly paid under s. 183.0405.

(4) A person against which an action is commenced because the person is liable under sub. (1) may do any of the following:

(a) Implead any other person that is subject to liability under sub. (1) and seek to enforce a right of contribution from the person.

(b) Implead any person that is subject to liability under sub. (3) and seek to enforce a right of contribution from the person in the amount of the liability under sub. (3).

(5) An action under this section is barred unless commenced not later than 2 years after the distribution.

History: 2021 a. 258.

183.0407 Management of limited liability company.

(1) A limited liability company is a member-managed limited liability company unless a written operating agreement provides any of the following or includes words of similar import:

(a) That the company is or will be "manager-managed."

(b) That the company is or will be "managed by managers."

(c) That management of the company is or will be "vested in managers."

(2) In a member-managed limited liability company, all of the following rules apply:

(a) Except as expressly provided in this chapter, the management and conduct of the company are vested in the members.

(b) Each member has rights in the management and conduct of the company's activities and affairs proportional to the value of the contributions made by each such member, as stated in the records required to be kept under s. 183.0402 (2), or, in the case of a company treated as a partnership for tax purposes, the partnership capital account of each such member.

(c) A difference arising among members as to a matter not described in par. (d) may be decided by a majority of the members' transferable interests.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the affirmative vote or consent of all members is required to do any of the following:

1. Amend the articles of organization.

2. Issue a transferable interest in the limited liability company to any person.

3. Allow the limited liability company to accept any additional contribution from a member.

4. Allow a partial redemption of a transferable interest in the limited liability company.

5. Value the contributions of members under s. 183.0402 (2).

6. Approve a merger, interest exchange, conversion, or domestication under subch. X.

7. Authorize a manager, member, or other person to do any act on behalf of the limited liability company that contravenes an operating agreement, including any provision of the operating agreement that expressly limits the purpose or business of the limited liability company or the conduct of the business of the limited liability company.

(e) The operating agreement may be amended only with the consent of all members.

(3) In a manager-managed limited liability company, all of the following rules apply:

(a) Except as expressly provided in this chapter, any matter relating to the activities and affairs of the company is decided exclusively by the manager, or, if there is more than one manager, by a majority of the managers.

(b) Each manager has equal rights in the management and conduct of the company's activities and affairs.

(c) The affirmative vote or consent of all members is required to do any of the following:

1. Sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of the company's property, with or without the goodwill, outside the ordinary course of the company's activities.

2. Approve a merger, interest exchange, conversion, or domestication under subch. X.

3. Undertake any activity described in sub. (2) (d).

4. Amend the operating agreement.

(d) A manager may be chosen at any time by the affirmative vote or consent of a majority of the members' transferable interests and remains a manager until a successor has been chosen, unless the manager at an earlier time resigns, is removed, or dies, or, in the case of a manager that is not an individual, terminates. A manager may be removed at any time by the consent of a majority of the members' transferable interests without notice or cause.

(e) A person need not be a member to be a manager, but the dissociation of a member that is also a manager removes the person as a manager. If a person that is both a manager and a member ceases to be a manager, that cessation does not by itself dissociate the person as a member.

15 Updated 21-22 Wis. Stats.UNIFORM LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY LAW 183.0410

(f) A person's ceasing to be a manager does not discharge any debt, obligation, or other liability to the limited liability company or members which the person incurred while a manager.

(4) Unless otherwise provided in a written operating agreement, an action requiring the vote or consent of members under this chapter may be taken without a meeting if all of such members consent to the action, and a member may appoint a proxy or other agent to consent or otherwise act for the member by signing an appointing record, personally or by the member's agent. The consent shall be evidenced by one or more written consents describing the action, signed by each of such members, and delivered to the limited liability company for inclusion in the limited liability company records. Unless otherwise provided in a written operating agreement, if a person, whether or not then a member, so consenting directs, whether through instruction to a proxy or other agent, that such consent will be effective at a future time, including a time determined upon the happening of an event, then the person shall be deemed to have consented as a member at this future time so long as the person is then a member and did not revoke the consent prior to that time. Any such consent shall be revocable prior to its becoming effective, unless the written consent provides otherwise.

(5) The dissolution of a limited liability company does not affect the applicability of this section. However, a person that wrongfully causes dissolution of the company loses the right to participate in management as a member and a manager.

(8) This chapter does not entitle a member to remuneration for services performed for a member-managed limited liability company.

History: 2021 a. 258.

183.0408 Reimbursement; indemnification; advancement; and insurance. (1) A limited liability company shall reimburse a member of a member-managed company or the manager of a manager-managed company for any payment made by the member or manager in the course of the member's or manager's activities on behalf of the company, if the member or manager complied with ss. 183.0405, 183.0407, and 183.0409 in making the payment.

(2) A limited liability company shall indemnify and hold harmless a person with respect to any claim or demand against the person and any debt, obligation, or other liability incurred by the person by reason of the person's former or present capacity as a member or manager, if the claim, demand, debt, obligation, or other liability does not arise from the person's breach of s. 183.0405, 183.0407, or 183.0409.

(3) In the ordinary course of its activities and affairs, a limited liability company may advance reasonable expenses, including attorney fees and costs, incurred by a person in connection with a claim or demand against the person by reason of the person's former or present capacity as a member or manager, if the person promises to repay the company if the person ultimately is determined not to be entitled to be indemnified under sub. (2).

(4) A limited liability company may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of a member or manager against liability asserted against or incurred by the member or manager in that capacity or arising from that status even if, under s. 183.0105 (3) (g), the operating agreement could not eliminate or limit the person's liability to the company for the conduct giving rise to the liability.

History: 2021 a. 258.

183.0409 Standards of conduct for members and managers. (1) A member of a member-managed limited liability company owes to the company and, subject to s. 183.0801, the other members the fiduciary duties of loyalty and care stated in subs. (2) and (3).

(2) The duty of loyalty of a member in a member-managed limited liability company includes all of the following duties:

(a) The duty to account to the company and hold as trustee for it any property, profit, or benefit derived by the member in or from any of the following:

1. The conduct or winding up of the company's activities and affairs.

2. A use by the member of the company's property.

3. The appropriation of a limited liability company opportunity.

(b) The duty to refrain from dealing with the company in the conduct or winding up of the company's activities and affairs as or on behalf of a person having an interest adverse to the company.

(c) The duty to refrain from competing with the company in the conduct of the company's activities and affairs before the dissolution of the company.

(3) The duty of care of a member of a member-managed limited liability company in the conduct or winding up of the company's activities and affairs is to refrain from engaging in conduct for which relief or exoneration from liability is not permitted under s. 183.0105 (3) (g).

(4) A member shall discharge the duties and obligations under this chapter and under the operating agreement and exercise any rights consistently with the contractual obligation of good faith and fair dealing.

(5) A member does not violate a duty or obligation under this chapter or under the operating agreement solely because the member's conduct furthers the member's own interest.

(6) All the members of a member-managed limited liability company or a manager-managed limited liability company may authorize or ratify, after full disclosure of all material facts, a specific act or transaction that otherwise would violate the duty of loyalty and this authorization or ratification precludes a claim for breach of the duty of loyalty for the act or transaction by such members.

(7) It is a defense to a claim under sub. (2) (b) and any comparable claim in equity or at common law that the transaction was fair to the limited liability company.

(8) If, as permitted by sub. (6) or (9) (e) or the operating agreement, a member enters into a transaction with the limited liability company which otherwise would be prohibited by sub. (2) (b), the member's rights and obligations arising from the transaction are the same as those of a person that is not a member.

(9) In a manager-managed limited liability company, the following rules apply:

(a) Subsections (1), (2), (3), and (7) apply to the manager or managers and not the members.

(b) The duty stated under sub. (2) (c) continues until winding up is completed.

(c) Subsection (4) applies to managers and members.

(d) Subsection (5) applies only to members.

183.0410 Rights to information of member, manager, and person dissociated as member. (1) In a member-managed limited liability company, the following rules apply:

(a) On reasonable notice, a member may inspect and copy during regular business hours, at a reasonable location specified by the company, any record maintained by the company regarding the company's activities, affairs, financial condition, and other circumstances, to the extent the information is material to the member's rights and duties under the operating agreement or this chapter.

(b) The company shall furnish to each member all of the following:

1. Without demand, any information concerning the company's activities, affairs, financial condition, and other circumstances which the company knows and is material to the proper exercise of the member's rights and duties under the operating agreement or this chapter, except to the extent the company can establish that it reasonably believes the member already knows or has notice of the information.

2. On demand, any other information concerning the company's activities, affairs, financial condition, and other circumstances, except to the extent the demand or the information demanded is unreasonable or otherwise improper under the circumstances.

(c) The duty to furnish information under par. (b) also applies to each member to the extent the member knows any of the information described in par. (b).

(2) In a manager-managed limited liability company, the following rules apply:

(a) The informational rights stated in sub. (1) and the duty stated in sub. (1) (c) apply to the managers and not the members.

(b) During regular business hours and at a reasonable location specified by the company, a member may obtain from the company and inspect and copy information regarding the company's activities, affairs, financial condition, and other circumstances of the company as is reasonable if all of the following apply:

1. The member seeks the information for a purpose material to the member's interest as a member.

2. The member makes a demand in a record received by the company, describing with reasonable particularity the information sought and the purpose for seeking the information.

3. The information sought is directly connected to the member's purpose.

(c) Not later than 10 days after receiving a demand pursuant to par. (b) 2., the company shall inform, in a record, the member that made the demand of all of the following:

1. What information the company will provide in response to the demand and when and where the company will provide the information.

2. The company's reasons for declining, if the company declines to provide any demanded information.

(d) Whenever this chapter or an operating agreement provides for a member to vote on or give or withhold consent to a matter, before the vote is cast or consent is given or withheld, the company shall, without demand, provide the member with all information that is known to the company and that is material to the member's decision.

(3) Subject to sub. (8), on 10 days' demand made in a record received by a limited liability company, a person dissociated as a member may have access to the information to which the person was entitled while a member if all of the following apply:

(a) The information pertains to the period during which the person was a member.

(b) The person seeks the information in good faith.

(c) The person satisfies the requirements imposed on a member by sub. (2) (b).

(6) A member or person dissociated as a member may exercise the rights under this section through an agent or, in the case of an individual under legal disability, a legal representative. Any restriction or condition imposed by the operating agreement or under sub. (8) applies both to the agent or legal representative and to the member or person dissociated as a member.

(7) Subject to s. 183.0504, the rights under this section do not extend to a person as transferee.

(8) In addition to any restriction or condition stated in its operating agreement, a limited liability company, as a matter within the ordinary course of its activities and affairs, may impose reasonable restrictions and conditions on access to and use of information to be furnished under this section, including designating information confidential and imposing nondisclosure and safeguarding obligations on the recipient. In a dispute concerning the reasonableness of a restriction under this subsection, the company has the burden of proving reasonableness.

SUBCHAPTER V

TRANSFERABLE INTERESTS AND RIGHTS OF TRANSFEREES AND CREDITORS

183.0501 Nature of transferable interest. A transferable interest is personal property.

History: 2021 a. 258.

183.0502 Transfer of transferable interest. (1) Subject to s. 183.0503 (6), all of the following apply to a transfer, in whole or in part, of a transferable interest:

(a) It is permissible.

(b) It does not by itself cause a member's dissociation or a dissolution and winding up of the limited liability company's activities and affairs.

(c) Subject to s. 183.0504, it does not entitle the transferee to any of the following:

1. Participate in the management or conduct of the company's activities and affairs.

2. Except as otherwise provided in sub. (3) and s. 183.0410 (3), have access to records or other information concerning the company's activities and affairs.

(2) A transferee has the right to receive, in accordance with the transfer, distributions to which the transferor would otherwise be entitled.

(3) In a dissolution and winding up of a limited liability company, a transferee is entitled to an account of the company's transactions only from the date of dissolution.

(4) A transferable interest may be evidenced by a certificate of the interest issued by a limited liability company in a record, and, subject to this section, the interest represented by the certificate may be transferred by a transfer of the certificate.

(5) A limited liability company need not give effect to a transferee's rights under this section until the company knows or has notice of the transfer.

(6) A transfer of a transferable interest in violation of a restriction on transfer contained in the operating agreement is ineffective if the intended transferee knows or has notice of the restriction at the time of the intended transfer.

(7) Except as otherwise provided in s. 183.0602 (5) (b), if a member transfers a transferable interest and the transferee does not become a member with respect to the transferred interest, the transferor retains the rights of a member other than the interest in distributions transferred and retains all the duties and obligations of a member.

(8) If a member transfers a transferable interest to a person that becomes a member with respect to the transferred interest, the transferee is liable for the member's obligations under ss. 183.0403 and 183.0406 known to the transferee when the transferee becomes a member.

History: 2021 a. 258.

183.0503 Charging order. (1) On application by a judgment creditor of a member or transferee, a court may enter a charging order against the transferable interest of the judgment debtor for the unsatisfied amount of the judgment. Except as otherwise provided in sub. (6), a charging order constitutes a lien on a judgment debtor's transferable interest and requires the limited liability company to pay over to the person to which the charging order was issued any distribution that otherwise would be paid to the judgment debtor.

(2) To the extent necessary to effectuate the collection of distributions pursuant to a charging order in effect under sub. (1), the court may do any of the following:

(a) Appoint a receiver of the distributions subject to the charging order, with the power to make all inquiries the judgment debtor might have made.

(b) Make all other orders necessary to give effect to the charging order.

(3) Upon a showing that distributions under a charging order will not pay the judgment debt within a reasonable time, the court may foreclose the lien and order the sale of the transferable interest. Except as otherwise provided in sub. (6), the purchaser at the foreclosure sale obtains only the transferable interest, does not thereby become a member, and is subject to s. 183.0502.

(4) At any time before foreclosure under sub. (3), the member or transferee whose transferable interest is subject to a charging order under sub. (1) may extinguish the charging order by satisfying the judgment and filing a certified copy of the satisfaction with the court that issued the charging order.

(5) At any time before foreclosure under sub. (3), a limited liability company or one or more members whose transferable interests are not subject to the charging order may pay to the judgment creditor the full amount due under the judgment and thereby succeed to the rights of the judgment creditor, including the charging order.

(6) If a court orders foreclosure of a charging order lien against the sole member of a limited liability company, all of the following apply:

(a) The court shall confirm the sale.

(b) The purchaser at the sale obtains the member's entire interest, not only the member's transferable interest.

(c) The purchaser thereby becomes a member.

(d) The person whose interest was subject to the foreclosed charging order is dissociated as a member.

(7) This chapter does not deprive any member or transferee of the benefit of any exemption law applicable to the transferable interest of the member or transferee.

(8) This section provides the exclusive remedy by which a person seeking to enforce a judgment against a member or transferee may, in the capacity of judgment creditor, satisfy the judgment from the judgment debtor's transferable interest.

History: 2021 a. 258.

183.0504 Power of legal representative of deceased member. If a member dies, the deceased member's legal representative may exercise all of the following rights:
