(2) “Nursing home” has the meaning provided in s. 50.01 (3), plus includes all public medical institutions under ss. 49.70, 49.71 and 49.72.
(3) “Nursing home administrator” means any individual responsible for planning, organizing, directing and controlling the operation of a nursing home, or who in fact performs such functions, whether or not such functions are shared by one or more other persons.
(4) “Practice of nursing home administration” means the planning, organizing, directing and control of the operation of a nursing home.
(5) “Provisional license” is a temporary license issued to a provisional nursing home administrator under this chapter.
(6) “Provisional nursing home administrator” means an individual who has been licensed as such under this chapter.

History: 1975 c. 413 s. 18; 1979 c. 32 s. 92 (1); 1979 c. 124; 1983 a. 189; 1995 a. 27.

456.02 Duties. The examining board shall:
(1) Develop, impose and enforce standards which must be met by individuals in order to receive a license as a nursing home administrator, which standards shall be designed to insure that nursing home administrators will be individuals who are of good character and are otherwise suitable, and who, by training or experience in the field of institutional administration, are qualified to serve as nursing home administrators;
(2) Develop and apply appropriate techniques, including examinations and investigations, for determining whether an individual meets such standards;
(3) Issue licenses to individuals determined, after the application of such techniques, to meet such standards, and revoke or suspend licenses previously granted by the examining board in any case where the individual holding any such license is determined substantially to have failed to conform to the requirements of such standards;
(4) Establish and carry out procedures designed to insure that individuals licensed as nursing home administrators will, during any period that they serve as such, comply with the requirements of such standards;
(5) Subject to the rules promulgated under s. 440.03 (1), receive, investigate, and take appropriate action with respect to, any charge or complaint filed with the examining board to the effect that any individual licensed as a nursing home administrator has failed to comply with the requirements of such standards;
(6) In cooperation with other agencies and appropriate organizations, conduct a continuing study of the practice of nursing home administration within the state with a view to the improvement of the standards imposed for the licensing of such administrators and of procedures and methods for the enforcement of such standards with respect to administrators of nursing homes who have been licensed as such;
(7) Develop and enforce standards for the supervised practical experience to be required for licensure; and
(8) Appoint such advisory councils as are necessary for the proper and efficient administration of this chapter.

(1)  Suspension and revocation. (1) Subject to the rules promulgated under s. 440.03 (1), the examining board may, under sub. (2), revoke, limit or suspend the license or registration of any person practicing or offering to practice nursing home administration or may reprimand, censure or otherwise discipline a licensee under this section if any of the following is applicable:

(a)  Proof is submitted that the licensee is unfit or incapable of performing the duties of a nursing home administrator due to mental or physical incapacity or such condition as to render the licensee unsuitable for the practice of nursing home administration.

(b)  Proof is submitted that the licensee has willfully or repeatedly violated this chapter or the rules enacted in accordance with this chapter.

(c)  Proof is submitted that the licensee is guilty of fraud or deceit in his or her admission to the practice of nursing home administration.

(d)  Proof is submitted that while the licensee was the administrator of a nursing home, that nursing home engaged in conduct that constituted a pattern of serious violations of federal or state statutes, rules or regulations.

(2)  The examining board shall have jurisdiction to hear all charges brought under this section against persons licensed and registered as nursing home administrators or licensed as provisionally authorized to practice as nursing home administrators and upon such hearings shall determine such charges upon their merits. If the examining board determines that such person is guilty of the charges, the license or registration may be revoked or suspended or the licensee may be reprimanded, censured or disciplined.

456.08  Reciprocity. The examining board may grant a nursing home administrator license under this chapter to a person who holds a nursing home administrator license issued by the proper authorities of any other state, upon payment of the fee specified in s. 440.05 (2) and upon submission of satisfactory evidence of the person’s qualifications.

History: 1977 c. 29; 1991 a. 39.

456.09  Penalties. (1) No person may:

(a)  Sell or fraudulently obtain or furnish any license or aid or abet therein; or

(b)  Practice as a nursing home administrator, under cover of any license or registration illegally or fraudulently obtained or unlawfully issued; or

(c)  Practice as a nursing home administrator or use in connection with his or her name any designation tending to imply that the person is a licensed and registered nursing home administrator unless duly licensed and registered as a license under this section is suspended or revoked; or

(d)  Practice as a nursing home administrator during the time his or her license or registration issued under this chapter is suspended or revoked; or

(e)  Otherwise violate this chapter.

(2)  Any person who violates sub. (1) may be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year in the county jail or both.

History: 1979 c. 162 ss. 35, 38 (7); 1981 c. 314.

456.10  Suspension and revocation. (1) Subject to the rules promulgated under s. 440.03 (1), the examining board may, under sub. (2), revoke, limit or suspend the license or registration of any person practicing or offering to practice nursing home administration or may reprimand, censure or otherwise discipline a licensee under this section if any of the following is applicable:

(a)  Proof is submitted that the licensee is unfit or incompetent by reason of negligence, habits or other causes.

(b)  Proof is submitted that the licensee has willfully or repeatedly violated this chapter or the rules enacted in accordance with this chapter.

(c)  Proof is submitted that the licensee is guilty of fraud or deceit in his or her admission to the practice of nursing home administration.

(d)  Proof is submitted that while the licensee was the administrator of a nursing home, that nursing home engaged in conduct that constituted a pattern of serious violations of federal or state statutes, rules or regulations.

(2)  The examining board may, upon approval of an application for registration the examining board shall issue a certificate of registration to the nursing home administrator.

456.11  Restoration of licenses and registrations. (1) The examining board may reinstate a license or registration to any person whose license or registration has been revoked. This subsection does not apply to a license or registration that is revoked under s. 440.12.

(2)  Application for the reinstatement of a license or registration shall not be made prior to one year after revocation and shall be made in such manner as the examining board directs. This subsection does not apply to a license or registration that is revoked under s. 440.12.
