SUBCHAPTER III
OTHER RIGHTS, ALLOWANCES AND EXEMPTIONS

861.17 Rights in property transferred in fraud of surviving spouse.
861.20 Surviving spouse’s right in nondomiciliary decedent’s real property in this state.
861.21 Assignment of home to surviving spouse or surviving domestic partner.
861.31 Allowance to family during administration.
861.33 Selection of personalty by surviving spouse or surviving domestic partner.
861.35 Special allowance for support of spouse or domestic partner and support and education of minor children.
861.41 Exemption of property to be assigned to surviving spouse or surviving domestic partner.
861.43 Authority and powers of conservator, guardian or agent.

861.01 Ownership of marital property at death.

(1) SURVIVING SPOUSE’S ONE-HALF INTEREST IN MARITAL PROPERTY. Upon the death of either spouse, the surviving spouse retains his or her undivided one-half interest in each item of marital property. The surviving spouse’s undivided one-half interest in each item of marital property is not subject to administration. Ownership and management and control rights are set forth under ss. 857.01 and 857.015.

(2) INTEREST OF A 3RD PARTY IN MARITAL PROPERTY. A 3rd party who is a successor in interest to all or part of the decedent’s 50 percent interest in marital property is a tenant in common with the surviving spouse.

(3m) PERSONAL INJURY DAMAGES; LOST EARNINGS. Section 766.31 (7m) determines the rights of a surviving spouse to that part of a personal injury claim that represents future lost earnings of the surviving spouse.

(4) ENFORCEMENT OF SURVIVING SPOUSE’S MARITAL PROPERTY RIGHTS IN NONPROBATE ASSETS. Section 766.70 applies to enforcement of a surviving spouse’s marital property rights in nonprobate assets.

(5) DIVISION OF MARITAL PROPERTY ON AGGREGATE BASIS. Section 766.31 (3) (b) determines how marital property may be divided upon the death of a spouse.

861.015 Satisfaction of nonholding spouse’s marital property interest in certain business property.

(1) If following the death of a spouse property is subject to a directive under s. 857.015, the marital property interest of the nonholding spouse in the property shall be satisfied within one year after the decedent spouse’s death from other property which is of equal clear market value at the time of satisfaction. Except as provided under sub. (3), if the interest of the nonholding spouse under this section is not satisfied within one year after the decedent spouse’s death, this section does not apply and the nonholding spouse’s marital property interest in the property subject to the directive continues as if the directive had not been made.

(2) For purposes of this section, property subject to a directive is valued by its clear market value on the date of the decedent’s death. Satisfaction of the nonholding spouse’s marital property interest in the property subject to the directive shall be based on that value, plus any income from the property subject to the directive after the death of the decedent and before satisfaction. For purposes of determining the income from the property subject to a directive, such property shall be treated as a legacy or devise of property other than money under s. 701.1115.

(3) If the interest of the nonholding spouse under this section is not satisfied within one year after the decedent spouse’s death because the clear market value of the property subject to the directive has not been determined, the court having jurisdiction of the decedent spouse’s estate shall do either of the following:

(a) Order that the interest of the nonholding spouse shall be satisfied after the determination of clear market value, at a date specified by the court.

(b) Order that the interest of the nonholding spouse shall be satisfied before the determination of clear market value based on an estimate of the clear market value, subject to any necessary adjustment upon final determination of clear market value.

(4) The following property is not available to satisfy the nonholding spouse’s marital property interest in the property subject to the directive:

(a) Property included in an order, or extension or revision of an order, for an allowance under s. 861.31 made before satisfaction of the nonholding spouse’s interest.

(b) Property selected under s. 861.33 before satisfaction of the nonholding spouse’s interest.

(c) Property included in an order for an allowance under s. 861.35 made before satisfaction of the nonholding spouse’s interest.

(5) Satisfaction of a nonholding spouse’s marital property interest under this section shall not adversely affect any of the following:

(a) The nonholding spouse’s marital property interest in property not subject to the directive.

(b) The nonholding spouse’s election under s. 861.02 of deferred marital property other than deferred marital property subject to the directive.

DEFERRED MARITAL PROPERTY
ELECTIVE SHARE AMOUNT

861.018 Definitions. In this subchapter:

(1) “Augmented deferred marital property estate” means the property under s. 861.02 (2).

(2) “Deferred individual property” means any property that satisfies all of the following:

(a) Is not classified by ch. 766.

(b) Was brought to the marriage or acquired while the spouses were married.

(c) Would have been classified as individual property under ch. 766 if the property had been acquired when ch. 766 applied.

(3) “Nonadverse party” means a person who has a power relating to a trust or other property arrangement but who does not have a substantial beneficial interest that would be adversely affected by exercise or nonexercise of that power, except that “nonadverse party” does not include a person who has a general power of appointment over property, with respect to that property.

(4) “Power” includes a power to designate the beneficiary of a beneficiary designation.

(5) “Power of appointment” includes a power to designate the beneficiary of a beneficiary designation.

(6) “Presently exercisable general power of appointment” means a power of appointment under which, at the time in question, the decedent held a power to create a present or future interest in himself or herself, his or her creditors, his or her estate or creditors of his or her estate and a power to revoke or invade the principal of a trust or other property arrangement, whether or not the decedent had the capacity to exercise the power at the time.

(7) “Property” has the meaning given in s. 851.27 and includes values subject to a beneficiary designation.

(8) “Right to income” includes a right to payments under a commercial or private annuity, an annuity trust, a unitrust or a similar arrangement.

(9) “Transfer” includes, but is not limited to, the following:

(a) An exercise or release of a presently exercisable general power of appointment held by the decedent.

(b) A lapse at death of a presently exercisable general power of appointment held by the decedent.

(c) An exercise, release or lapse of either of the following:

1. A general power of appointment that the decedent created in himself or herself.

2. A power under s. 861.03 (3) that the decedent conferred on a nonadverse party.

History: 1997 a. 168.

861.02 Deferred marital property elective share amount. (1) AMOUNT. The surviving spouse has the right to elect an amount equal to no more than 50 percent of the augmented deferred marital property estate as determined under sub. (2).

(2) AUGMENTED DEFERRED MARITAL PROPERTY ESTATE. (a) If the presumption of marital property under s. 766.31 (2) is rebutted as to the classification of an asset or a portion thereof, the asset or portion is presumed to be deferred marital property.

(b) The augmented deferred marital property estate is the total value of the deferred marital property of the spouses, irrespective of where the property was acquired, where the property was located at the time of a relevant transfer, or where the property is currently located, including real property located in another jurisdiction.

It includes all types of property that fall within any of the following categories:

1. Probate and nonprobate transfers of the decedent’s deferred marital property under s. 861.03 (1) to (3).
861.04 Augmented deferred marital property estate: surviving spouse’s property and transfers to others.

(1) Subject to s. 861.05, the augmented deferred marital property estate includes the value of any deferred marital property that would have been included under s. 861.03 had the surviving spouse been the decedent.

(2m) When the surviving spouse is treated as the decedent under sub. (1), the decedent is not treated as the surviving spouse for the purposes of s. 861.05 (1) (e) or (2m).

History: 1997 a. 188; 2005 a. 216.

861.05 Augmented deferred marital property estate: calculation of property interests. (1) EXCLUSIONS. The following are not included in the augmented deferred marital property estate:

(a) Transfers of deferred marital property to the extent that the decedent received full or partial consideration for the transfer in money or money’s worth.

(b) Transfers under the U.S. social security system.

(c) Transfers of deferred marital property to persons other than the spouse who did not make the transfer, with the written joinder or written consent of that spouse.

(d) Transfers of deferred marital property to the surviving spouse under s. 861.33 or 861.41.

(e) The deferred marital property component of any deferred employment benefit plan, or of assets in an individual retirement account that are traceable to the rollover of a deferred employment benefit plan, held by the surviving spouse that would have terminated under s. 766.62 (5) had it been marital property.

(2) VALUATION OF DECEDENT’S PROPERTY AND TRANSFERS. (a) Property included in the augmented deferred marital property estate under s. 861.03 (1), (2) and (4) (b) 2. is valued as of the date of the decedent spouse’s death.

(b) Property included under s. 861.03 (2) (a), (b) and (d) and (3) is valued immediately before the decedent spouse’s death.

(c) Property included under s. 861.03 (4) (b) 1. is valued as of the date that the right, interest or power terminated.

(d) Property included under s. 861.03 (4) (b) 3. is valued as of the date of the transfer.

(e) If deferred marital property is commingled with other types of property but the deferred marital property component can be identified, only that component is valued.

(f) The value of property included in the augmented deferred marital property estate includes the commuted value of any present or future interest in deferred marital property and the commuted value of deferred marital property payable under any trust, life insurance settlement option, annuity contract, public or private pension, disability compensation, death benefit or retirement plan or any similar arrangement.

(2m) VALUATION OF SURVIVING SPOUSE’S PROPERTY AND TRANSFERS. The surviving spouse’s property included in the augmented deferred marital property estate under s. 861.04 (1) is valued in the same manner as the decedent spouse’s property included in the augmented deferred marital property estate is valued under sub. (2), subject to the following:

(a) The surviving spouse shall be treated as having died after the decedent on the date of the decedent’s death notwithstanding the 120-hour survival requirement under s. 854.03 (1).

(b) Life insurance on the surviving spouse’s life shall have the value of the deferred marital property component of the interlocated terminal reserve and the unused portion of the term premium of the policy as of the date of the decedent’s death.

(3) REDUCTION FOR EQUITABLE PROPORTION OF EXPENSES AND ENFORCEABLE CLAIMS. The value of deferred marital property included in the augmented deferred marital property estate under s. 861.03 or 861.04 shall be reduced by an equitable proportion of funeral and burial expenses, administrative expenses, other charges and fees and enforceable claims.
861.05 PROBATE — FAMILY RIGHTS

(4) OVERLAPPING APPLICATION; NO DOUBLE INCLUSION. If the same property could be included in the augmented deferred marital property estate under more than one provision of s. 861.03 or 861.04, the property is included only once, and it is included under the provision that yields the greatest value.

861.06 Satisfaction of deferred marital property elective share amount. (1) DEFINITION. In this section, "property transferred to the surviving spouse" includes outright transfers that have been disclaimed by the surviving spouse. The term does not include transfers in trust that have been disclaimed by the surviving spouse, unless the surviving spouse had a general power of appointment over the property in the trust during his or her lifetime or an interest in the trust after the declarer.

(2) INITIAL SATISFACTION OF DEFERRED MARITAL PROPERTY ELECTIVE SHARE AMOUNT. If the surviving spouse makes the election under s. 861.02, the following categories of property are used first to satisfy the elective share amount:

(a) All property included in the augmented deferred marital property estate under s. 861.04.

(b) All marital, individual, deferred marital, or deferred individual property, transferred to the surviving spouse, including any beneficial interest in property transferred in trust:

1. From the declarer’s probate estate, other than property transferred under s. 861.33 or 861.41, and other than property transferred to the surviving spouse under s. 861.31 or 861.35 except as ordered by the court under s. 861.31 (4) or 861.35 (4).

2. By nonprobate transfer at the declarer’s death.

3. By operation of any state or federal law, other than transfers under the U.S. social security system.

4. By the declarer at any time during the declarer’s life, except that the following shall be excluded:

a. The first $5,000 of the value of gifts from the declarer to the surviving spouse each year. Each gift shall be valued as of the date of the gift.

b. Gifts received from the declarer that the surviving spouse can show were subsequently and gratuitously transferred in a manner that, had they been the deferred marital property of the surviving spouse, would not have been included in the augmented deferred marital property estate under s. 861.04.

(3) UNSATISFIED BALANCE. After the property under sub. (2) has been applied toward satisfaction of the deferred marital property elective share amount, the remainder of the elective share amount shall be satisfied proportionally from transfers to persons other than the surviving spouse of property included in the augmented deferred marital property estate under s. 861.04.

(4) REMAINING UNSATISFIED BALANCE. After the property under subs. (2) and (3) has been applied toward satisfaction of the deferred marital property elective share amount, the remainder of the elective share amount shall be satisfied proportionally from transfers to persons other than the surviving spouse of property included in the augmented deferred marital property estate under s. 861.03 (1), (2), (3) or (4) (b) 2.

(5) EQUITABLE ADJUSTMENT OF SHARES. If all or part of a prorated share under sub. (2), (3) or (4) is uncollectible, the court may increase the prorated liability of recipients described under the same or another of the 3 subsections if all of the following conditions are satisfied:

(a) The court finds that an equitable adjustment is necessary to avoid hardship for the surviving spouse.

(b) No recipient or donee of a recipient is liable for an amount greater than the value of the deferred marital property subject to the election that was received.

(6) VALUATION. The value of property used to satisfy the deferred marital property elective share includes the value of any property transferred outright to the surviving spouse, the commuted value of any present or future interest in property transferred to the surviving spouse, and the commuted value of property payable to the surviving spouse under any trust, life insurance settlement option, annuity contract, public or private pension, disability compensation, death benefit or retirement plan, or any similar arrangement.

861.07 Personal liability of recipients. (1) DEFINITION. In this section, "proceeds" includes:

(a) The consideration, in money or property, received in exchange for the property that is the subject of the transfer.

(b) Property acquired with the consideration received in exchange for the property that is the subject of the transfer.

(2) PERSONS LIABLE. The following persons are liable to make a prorated contribution toward satisfaction of the surviving spouse’s deferred marital property elective share amount:

(a) Original recipients of the declarer’s transfers of deferred marital property to others, irrespective of whether the recipient has the property or its proceeds.

(b) Donees of the recipients under par. (a) if the donees have the property or its proceeds. If a donee has neither the property nor its proceeds but knew or should have known of the liability under this section, the donee remains liable for his or her share of the prorated contribution.

(3) MODE OF SATISFACTION. (a) Subject to par. (b), a person who is liable under sub. (2) may either give up the proportional part of the declarer’s transfers to him or her or pay the value of the amount for which he or she is liable.

(b) On petition of the surviving spouse showing that the mode of satisfaction chosen in par. (a) will create a hardship for the surviving spouse, the court may order that a different mode of satisfaction be used.

(4) EFFECT OF FEDERAL PREEMPTION. If any provision of this subchapter is preempted by federal law with respect to any property interest or benefit that is included under s. 861.03 and that would pass but for that preemption to a person other than the surviving spouse, the recipient, unless he or she is a recipient for value, is subject to subs. (1) to (3).

861.08 Proceeding for election; time limit. (1) GENERALLY. Except as the time may be extended under sub. (3), in order to make the election, the surviving spouse shall, within 6 months after the date of the declarer’s death, do all of the following:

(a) File a petition for the election with whichever of the following applies:

1. The court that has jurisdiction of the probate proceedings relating to the declarer’s estate if a judicial proceeding has been commenced.

2. The court that has jurisdiction of probate proceedings relating to decedents’ estates located in the county of the declarer’s residence if no judicial proceeding has commenced.

(b) Mail or deliver a copy of the petition to the personal representative, if any, of the declarer’s estate.

(2) NOTIFICATION OF INTERESTED PARTIES. The surviving spouse shall give notice, in the manner provided in ch. 879, of the time and place set for hearing the petition to any persons who may be adversely affected by the election.

(3) EXTENSION OF TIME FOR ELECTION. (a) Subject to par. (b), the court may grant the surviving spouse an extension for making an election if the surviving spouse petitions the court for an extension, gives notice as specified in sub. (2) and shows cause for an extension.

(b) The petition for extension of the time for making an election must be filed within 6 months after the declarer’s death, unless the court finds all of the following:

History: 1997 a. 188; 2005 a. 216.
1. That the surviving spouse was prevented from filing the action or naming a particular interested party for reasons beyond his or her control.

2. That failure to extend the time for making an election will result in hardship for the surviving spouse.

(4) WITHDRAWAL OF ELECTION. The surviving spouse may withdraw the petition for an election at any time before the probate court has entered the final determination of the distribution of the decedent’s estate.

(5) COURT DETERMINATION OF LIABILITY. (a) After notice and hearing, the court shall determine the deferred marital property elective share amount and shall determine the property that satisfies that amount under ss. 861.06 and 861.07.

(b) If the personal representative does not hold the money or property included in the augmented deferred marital property estate, the court shall determine the liability of any person or entity that has any interest in the money or property or that holds that money or property.

(c) The surviving spouse may choose to seek relief from fewer than all recipients. However, any such action shall not cause any other recipient’s liability to exceed the amount that he or she would have had to pay if all recipients had paid a prorated share.

(6) SUITS AUTHORIZED. An order or judgment of the court may be enforced in a suit for contribution or payment in other courts of this state or other jurisdictions.

History: 1997 a. 188.

861.09 Right of election by or on behalf of surviving spouse. The surviving spouse must be living in order for an election to be filed. If the surviving spouse does not personally file the election, it may be filed by the surviving spouse’s behalf by the spouse’s conservator, guardian or guardian ad litem, or by an agent of the spouse acting under a power of attorney.

History: 1997 a. 188.

861.10 Waiver of right to elect; failure to elect.

(1) RIGHT TO ELECT MAY BE WAIVED. The right to elect a deferred marital property elective share amount may be waived by the surviving spouse in whole or in part. The waiver may take place before or after marriage. The waiver must be contained in a marital property agreement that is enforceable under s. 766.58 or in a signed document filed with a court described in s. 861.08 (1) (a) after the decedent’s death.

(2) WAIVER OF “ALL RIGHTS.” Unless the waiver provides otherwise, a waiver of “all rights,” or equivalent language, in the property or estate of a present or prospective spouse, or in a complete property settlement entered into because of separation or divorce, is a waiver of all rights in the deferred marital property elective share amount.

(3) FAILURE TO ELECT. Failure of a surviving spouse to elect is not a transfer of property and is not a gift from the surviving spouse to the decedent spouse’s probate estate or to the beneficiaries of other transfers.

History: 1997 a. 188; 2005 a. 216.

861.11 Protection of payers and other 3rd parties.

(1) DEFINITION. In this section, “governing instrument” includes a filed verified statement under s. 865.201, a certificate under s. 867.046 (1m) or a recorded application under s. 867.046 (5).

(2) PAYOR NOT LIABLE UNTIL NOTICE RECEIVED. (a) Upon a beneficiary’s request for payment, a payer or other 3rd party who has received satisfactory proof of the decedent’s death and who has not received written notice that the surviving spouse or his or her representative intends to file a petition for the deferred marital property elective share amount or that a petition for the election has been filed is not liable for any of the following:

1. Causing any payment, item of property or other benefit included in the augmented deferred marital property estate under s. 861.03, to transfer directly to the beneficiary designated in a governing instrument.

2. Any other action in good faith reliance on the validity of a governing instrument.

(b) A payer or other 3rd party is liable for payments made or other actions taken after receipt of written notice of the intent to file a petition for the elective share amount or written notice that a petition for the elective share amount has been filed.

(3) METHOD OF NOTICE TO PAYERS. A written notice of the intent to file a petition for the election or written notice that a petition for the election has been filed shall fulfill one of the following requirements:

(a) Be mailed to the payer’s or other 3rd party’s main office or home by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested.

(b) Be served upon the payer or other 3rd party in the same manner as a summons in a civil action.

(4) OPTIONAL PAYMENT OF PROCEEDS TO COURT. (a) Upon receipt of written notice of the intent to file, or the filing of, a petition for the election, a payer or other 3rd party may pay any amount owed or transfer or deposit any item of property to or with whichever of the following applies:

1. The court that has jurisdiction of the probate proceedings relating to the decedent’s estate if proceedings have been commenced.

2. The court that has jurisdiction of probate proceedings relating to decedents’ estates located in the county of the decedent’s residence, if no judicial proceeding has commenced.

(b) Payments, transfers or deposits made to the court discharge the payer or other 3rd party from all claims for amounts paid or the value of property transferred or deposited.

(c) The court shall hold the funds or items of property. After the court makes its determination under s. 861.08 (5), it shall order disbursement in accordance with that determination. The court shall order disbursement to the beneficiary designated in the governing instrument if either of the following conditions applies:

1. No petition is filed in the court within the specified time under s. 861.08 (1).

2. A petition was filed but withdrawn under s. 861.08 (4) with prejudice.

(d) If payments have been made to the court or if property has been deposited with the court under par. (a), the court may order that all or part of the payments or property be paid to the beneficiary who is designated in the governing instrument, upon that beneficiary’s petition to the court. Those payments shall be in an amount and subject to conditions consistent with this subchapter.

(5) PROTECTION OF FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS. (a) In this subsection:

1. “Account” has the meaning given in s. 705.01 (1) or 710.05 (1) (a).

2. “Financial institution” has the meaning given in s. 705.01 (3).

(b) Notwithstanding sub. (2), in addition to the protections afforded a financial institution under ss. 701.1012 and 710.05 and chs. 712 and 705 a financial institution is not liable for having transferred an account included in the augmented deferred marital property estate under s. 861.03 to a beneficiary designated in a governing instrument, or for having taken any other action in reliance on the beneficiary’s apparent entitlement under the terms of a governing instrument, regardless of whether the financial institution received written notice of an intent to file, or the filing of, a petition for the deferred marital property elective share amount.

(c) If a financial institution has reason to believe that a dispute exists as to the rights of parties, or their successors, to an account subject to a governing instrument, the financial institution may, but is not required to, do any of the following:

1. Deposit the account with a court as provided in sub. (4).
861.11 PROBATE — FAMILY RIGHTS

2. Refuse to transfer the account to any person.

(d) The protection afforded a financial institution under this subsection does not affect the rights of parties or their successors in disputes concerning the beneficial ownership of accounts.

History: 1985 a. 37; 1987 a. 393 s. 53; 1997 a. 188; 2003 a. 216; 2013 a. 92.

SUBCHAPTER III

OTHER RIGHTS, ALLOWANCES AND EXEMPTIONS

861.17 Rights in property transferred in fraud of surviving spouse. (1) Nothing in this chapter precludes a court in an equitable proceeding from subjecting to the rights of the surviving spouse under ch. 852 and this chapter any property arrangement made by the decedent in fraud of those rights. A property arrangement in fraud of the rights of the surviving spouse means any of the following:

(a) Any transfer or acquisition of property, regardless of the form or type of property, rights involved, made by the decedent during marriage or in anticipation of marriage for the primary purpose of defeating the rights of the surviving spouse under ch. 852 and this chapter.

(b) Any breach of the good faith duty imposed by s. 766.15 made for the primary purpose of defeating the rights of the surviving spouse in or to marital property.

(2) An arrangement made before marriage, or within one year after marriage, or prior to April 1, 1971, to provide for issue by a prior marriage is not a fraudulent property arrangement within the meaning of this section.

(3) If the spouse is successful in an action to reach fraudulent property arrangements, recovery is limited to the amount the spouse would receive under ch. 852 and this chapter.

(4) The surviving spouse or surviving domestic partner may use assets due to the surviving spouse or surviving domestic partner under intestacy or under a governing instrument. Payment shall be made to the fiduciary holding title to the interest. The surviving spouse or surviving domestic partner may use assets due to him or her from the fiduciary to satisfy all or part of the payment in kind. Unless the court extends the time, the surviving spouse or surviving domestic partner shall have one year from the decedent’s death to pay the value of the assigned interest.

(5) Severance of home from surrounding land. On petition of the surviving spouse or surviving domestic partner or of any interested person that part of the land is not necessary for dwelling purposes and that it would be inappropriate to assign all of the surrounding land as the home under sub. (2), the court may set off for the home as much of the land as is necessary for a dwelling. In determining how much land should be set off, the court shall take into account the use and marketability of the parcels set off as the home and the remaining land.

861.20 Surviving spouse’s right in nondomiciliary decedent’s real property in this state. (1) If a married person who does not have a domicile in this state dies and leaves a valid will disposing of real property in this state which is not the community property or marital property of the decedent and the surviving spouse, the surviving spouse has the same right to elect to take a portion of or interest in that property against the will of the decedent as if the property were located in the decedent’s domicile at decedent’s death.

861.21 Assignment of home to surviving spouse or surviving domestic partner. (1) Definitions. In this section:

(a) “Governing instrument” has the meaning given in s. 854.01.

(b) “Home” means any dwelling in which the decedent had an interest and that at the time of the decedent’s death the surviving spouse or surviving domestic partner occupies or intends to occupy. If there are several such dwellings, any one may be designated by the surviving spouse or surviving domestic partner. “Home” includes a house, a mobile home, a manufactured home, a duplex or multiple apartment building one unit of which is occupied by the surviving spouse or surviving domestic partner and a building used in part for a dwelling and in part for commercial or business purposes. “Home” includes all of the surrounding land, unless the court sets off part of the land as severable from the remaining land under sub. (5).

(2) Decedent’s property interest in home. Subject to subs. (4) and (5), if a married decedent or decedent in a domestic partnership has a property interest in a home, the decedent’s entire interest in the home shall be assigned to the surviving spouse or surviving domestic partner if the surviving spouse or surviving domestic partner petitions the court requesting such a distribution and if a governing instrument does not provide a specific transfer of the decedent’s interest in the home to someone other than the surviving spouse or surviving domestic partner. The surviving spouse or surviving domestic partner shall file the petition within 6 months after the decedent’s death, unless the court extends the time for filing.

(3) Payment by surviving spouse or surviving domestic partner. The court shall assign the interest in the home under sub. (2) to the surviving spouse or surviving domestic partner upon payment of the value of the decedent’s interest in the home that does not pass to the surviving spouse or surviving domestic partner under intestacy or under a governing instrument. Payment shall be made to the fiduciary holding title to the interest. The surviving spouse or surviving domestic partner may use assets due to him or her from the fiduciary to satisfy all or part of the payment in kind.

(4) Severance of home from surrounding land. On petition of the surviving spouse or surviving domestic partner or of any interested person that part of the land is not necessary for dwelling purposes and that it would be inappropriate to assign all of the surrounding land as the home under sub. (2), the court may set off for the home as much of the land as is necessary for a dwelling. In determining how much land should be set off, the court shall take into account the use and marketability of the parcels set off as the home and the remaining land.

861.31 Allowance to family during administration. (1m) The court may, without notice or on such notice as the court directs, order payment by the personal representative or special administrator of an allowance as the court determines necessary or appropriate for the support of the surviving spouse or surviving domestic partner and any minor children of the decedent during the administration of the estate. The court may consider the size of the probate estate, other resources available for support, the existing standard of living, and any other factors it considers relevant.

(2) The court may order that an allowance be made to the spouse or surviving domestic partner for support of the spouse or surviving domestic partner and any minor children of the decedent, or that separate allowances be made to the spouse or surviv-
861.33 Selection of personalty by surviving spouse or surviving domestic partner. (1) Subject to this section, in addition to all allowances and distributions, the surviving spouse or surviving domestic partner may file with the court a written selection of the following personal property, which shall then be transferred to the spouse or domestic partner by the personal representative:

1. Wearing apparel and jewelry held for personal use by the decedent or the surviving spouse or surviving domestic partner;
2. Automobile;
3. Household furniture, furnishings and appliances; and
4. Other tangible personalty not used in trade, agriculture or other business, not to exceed $3,000 in inventory value.

(b) The selection in par. (a) may not include items specifically bequeathed except that the surviving spouse or surviving domestic partner may in every case select the normal household furniture, furnishings, and appliances necessary to maintain the home. For this purpose antiques, family heirlooms, and collections that are specifically bequeathed are not classifiable as normal household furniture or furnishings.

(2) If it appears that claims may not be paid in full, the court may, upon petition of any creditor, limit the transfer of personalty to the spouse under this section to items not exceeding $5,000 in inventory value. If it appears that claims may not be paid in full, the court may order that the transfer of personalty to the spouse under this section to items not exceeding $5,000 in inventory value. If it appears that claims may not be paid in full, the court may order that the transfer of personalty to the spouse under this section to items not exceeding $5,000 in inventory value. If it appears that claims may not be paid in full, the court may order that the transfer of personalty to the spouse under this section to items not exceeding $5,000 in inventory value.

(3) The surviving spouse may select items not specifically bequeathed of the type specified under sub. (1) (a) 4, exceeding in value the $3,000 limit or obtain the transfer of items exceeding the limit set by the court under sub. (2), by paying to the personal representative the excess of inventory value over the respective limit.

(4) The personal representative has power, without court order, to execute appropriate documents to effect transfer of title to any personal property the spouse selects under this section. A person may not question the validity of the documents of transfer or refuse to accomplish the transfer on the grounds that the personal representative is also the surviving spouse of the decedent.

861.41 Exemption of property to be assigned to surviving spouse or surviving domestic partner. (1) After the amount of claims against the estate has been ascertained, the surviving spouse or surviving domestic partner may petition the court to set aside as exempt from the claims of creditors under s. 859.25 (1) (h) an amount of property reasonably necessary for the support of the spouse or domestic partner, not to exceed $10,000 in value, if it appears that the assets are insufficient to pay all claims and allowances and still leave the surviving spouse or surviving domestic partner such an amount of property in addition to selection and allowances.
(2) The court shall grant the petition if it determines that an assignment ahead of creditors is reasonably necessary for the support of the spouse or domestic partner. In determining the necessity and the amount of property to be assigned, the court must take into consideration the availability of a home to the surviving spouse or surviving domestic partner and all other assets and resources available for support.
