

Strong nine hundred dollars out of any monies in the territorial treasury for professional services rendered, and expenses incurred, in prosecuting three several suits of the Territory against James D. Doty and others, which sum shall be in full for all such services and expenses previous to the (to the) passage of this act.

SEC. 2. The Treasurer of the Territory is hereby authorized and required to deduct from the aforesaid sum the sum of two hundred dollars, which sum is a balance due from said Strong to the Territory of the fund paid to him as fiscal agent, which was left in his hands by a mistake of a committee of the Legislature in settling with him.

SEC. 3. Hereafter there shall be no fees or compensation paid to any attorney except the Attorney General for any services to be performed in the management of any suit or suits in behalf of the Territory.

APPROVED February 3, 1846.

AN ACT to provide means for the payment of the interest on certain liquidated territorial bonds therein named.

BE IT ENACTED by the Council and House of Representatives of the Territory of Wisconsin:

SECTION 1. That there shall be paid out of the territorial treasury, the following sums of money, to wit: To Andrew Schofield, the sum of eighty-eight dollars and eighty cents, on bond No. 30, dated February 19th, 1841, payable to Horatio N. Wells, or his order, which said bond has been surrendered to the United States. To John W. Pixley, the sum of eighty-five dollars for interest on bond No. 15, of same date. Said bond was payable to David Donhan, or order, for the sum of two hundred dollars, which was also surrendered. To La Fayette Kellogg, thirteen dollars for interest on a bond dated 19th February, 1841, for fifty dollars, payable to James Sutherland, or order, also surrendered. To A. E. To George Beatty sixteen dollars for interest on bond No. 59, dated February 19th, 1841, payable to John S. Horner, or order, which was also surrendered.

APPROVED February 3rd, 1846.

AN ACT to provide for the payment to John Catlin, of interest on certain liquidated Territorial Bonds.

BE IT ENACTED by the Council and House of Representatives of the Territory of Wisconsin:

SECTION 1. There shall be paid to John Catlin the sum of three hundred and six dollars and two cents, out of any moneys in the territorial treasury, for interest on six bonds issued on [the] 19th February, 1841, the same having been surrendered. Said bonds were issued to the following persons: One of forty-eight dollars to H. B. Townley; one of one hundred and forty-six dollars, and another of one hundred and fifty dollars to George Bennett; and one for one hundred dollars, and another [for] one hundred and four dollars; and another for six hundred and eighty-three dollars thirty-six cents, to D. H. Richards: Provided, That before the Auditor of the Territory shall issue any warrant for the payment of the interest on any bond, it shall be his duty to examine the records of the Secretary's and Treasurer's office, for the purpose of ascertaining if said interest has not before been paid; and shall also require the applicant of such interest to file an affidavit in his office, that the interest on such bond or bonds is
