

trict in addition to the tax now allowed by law, not to exceed the sum of two hundred dollars for the purpose of paying the debt now due for building a school house in said district and for no other purpose.

SEC. 2. The said tax shall be collected and returned in the same manner that is now provided by law for the collection of taxes for building school houses.

APPROVED February 3rd, 1846.

AN ACT to provide for the payment of the expenses of the Legislative Assembly for the year 1846.

BE IT ENACTED by the Council and House of Representatives of the Territory of Wisconsin:

SECTION 1. There shall be paid out of the sum appropriated by Congress, for defraying the expenses of the present session of the Legislative Assembly of this Territory, as follows, viz:

To Simeon Mills, for materials for printing done at the last session, one hundred and eighty dollars and sixty-two cents.

Also, for folding and stitching messages, rules, reports and bills at the last session twenty five dollars.

The above appropriations were passed by the Legislature at their last session and left out of the enrolled bill by the mistake of the clerk.

To S. L. Rood, for stationery, the sum of three hundred seventy-five dollars and ten cents ($375 10.)

To W. H. Foot, for hauling stationery and chairs from Milwaukee, for the use of the Legislative Assembly, nineteen dollars.

To Darwin Clark, for repairing furniture and materials found for the same, twenty-four dollars.

To H. L. Page, for sperm candles for the use of Legislative Assembly, forty-seven dollars and ninety cents.

To Joseph Brisbois, for writing done for the Legislative Assembly, twelve dollars.

To Mason C. Darling, three dollars per day, extra, for thirty days' services as speaker of the House of Representatives, ninety dollars.

To Nelson Dewey, three dollars per day, extra, for thirty days' services as president of the Council, ninety dollars.

To David Holt, Postmaster, at Madison, for postage on letters, papers and other documents of the members of the Legislative Assembly during the present session, three hundred and seventy-eight dollars, which shall be paid previous to any appropriation in this act.

To Elijah Isham, for services rendered the Legislative Assembly at its present session, in making fires, carrying wood, sweeping capitol, and attending on committee rooms and library, ninety dollars.

To Joseph Brisbois, for writing done for the Legislative Assembly at its present session, ninety dollars.

To John Ramsdall, for writing done for the Legislative Assembly at its present session, ninety dollars.

To La Fayette Kellogg for preparing the journal of the House of Representatives of the present session for publication and affixing an index thereto, two hundred dollars.

To Ben C. Eastman and William R. Smith, for preparing the journal of the Council of the present session for publication and affixing an index thereto, each one hundred dollars.

To Simeon Mills for incidental printing done for the Legislative Assembly at its present session, including newspapers furnished the members of the Assembly, and for newspapers containing the laws of last session sent to clerks of the several counties for distribution as provided by a law of said session, thirteen hundred eighty-eight dollars and sixty-eight cents.

To Henry Gullion, for white-washing, repairing carpet, and materials furnished in the executive office, twelve dollars.

To Eliab B. Dean, jr., for stationery and other articles furnished for the use of the Legislative Assembly at its present session, twenty-one dollars and sixteen cents.

To Ebenezer Clewett for two days' labor cleaning capitol, three dollars.

To Martin G. Vanbergen for twenty days' labor, clearing off the capitol square and preparing the building for present session, twenty-five dollars, from which sum is to be deducted fifteen dollars for a Franklin stove sold the said Vanbergen by the superintendent of territorial property.

To J. L. Marsh, for newspapers furnished the members of the Legislative Assembly, at the present session, seven dollars and eighty cents.

To John Myers, for three days' labor and materials furnished in repairing the gates of the capitol square, seven dollars and thirty nine cents.

To John S. Fillmore, for newspapers furnished the members of the Legislative Assembly at the present session, twenty-eight dollars and eighty cents.

To John S. Fillmore, for newspapers furnished the members of the Legislative Assembly at the last session, sixteen dollars and nine cents, which item was allowed at the last session and by mistake the sum left blank in the appropriation bill.

To Robert Moore, for white-washing the fence enclosing the capitol square, and for labor clearing off the square, twenty-five dollars and forty cents.

To Thomas J. Goza for services in sweeping and cleaning capitol, nine dollars.

To S. M. Vanbergen, for one hundred and sixty cords of wood at one dollar and fifty cents per cord, for the use of the Legislative Assembly, two hundred and forty dollars.

Also, for preparing the same for stoves and hauling to steps of capitol one hundred thirty-four and a half cords, at six shillings per cord, one hundred dollars and eighty-seven cents.

To S. M. Vanbergen, for forty cords of wood hauled across the lake, but not yet delivered at the capitol, at one dollar and fifty cents, sixty dollars. The last above appropriation not to be paid until the certificate of the superintendent of territorial property that the said wood has been delivered at the capitol shall be furnished.

To Loring Guild, for newspapers furnished the members of the Legislative Assembly, at the present session, six dollars and twenty cents.

To Beriah Brown, for newspapers furnished the members of the Legislative Assembly at the present session, one hundred and six dollars and thirty-two cents.

To George B. Smith, for writing done for the Legislature during the present session, twenty-one dollars.

To William W. Brown, for writing done for the Legislature during the present session, eighteen dollars.

To Elisha Burdick, for writing done for the Legislative Assembly during the present session, twenty-one dollars.

To Julius T. Clark, for writing done for the Legislative Assembly during the present session, six dollars.

To William A. Barstow for writing done for the Legislative Assembly, during the present session, nine dollars.

To E. M. Williamson, for writing done for the Legislative Assembly, at the present session, nine dollars.

To Moritz Schoeffler, for printing Governor's Message in the German language, by the direction of the House of Representatives, and materials for the same, eighteen dollars and forty-two cents.

To Philo White, for newspapers furnished the members of the Legislature, during the present session, seven dollars and eighty cents.

To George P. Delaplaine, for thirty days services as private secretary to the Governor during the present session, at three dollars per day, ninety dollars.

To Hale and Hopkins for stationery and two eight-quire record books for the journal of the Council and House of Representatives, furnished at the present session, thirty dollars.

To John Y. Smith, for his salary from July 1st, 1845, to February 4th, 1846, one hundred seventy-seven dollars and forty-six cents: Also, for clerk during present session of the Legislature, thirty days, forty-five dollars: Also, for clerk during session of the Supreme Court, 1845, twenty one days, at one dollar and fifty cents per day, as provided by law, thirty-one dollars and fifty cents: Also, to services and expenses to Milwaukee to purchase stationery and other articles, twenty-eight dollars and fifty cents.

To Charles H. Larkin, forty-eight dollars for sixteen days writing for the Legislative Assembly, at its present session.

To John A. Brown, for newspapers furnished members of the Legislature during the present session, eight dollars and twenty cents.

To the Rev. Stephen McHugh, for services as chaplain to the Council during the present session of the Legislature, one hundred dollars.

To Rev. Rufus Spaulding, for his services as chaplain to the House of Representatives during present session of the Legislature, one hundred dollars.

To James M. Goodhue, for newspapers furnished the members of the Assembly during present session, seven dollars and eighty cents.

To Cyrus P. Hiller, for writing for the Legislative Assembly, sixteen dollars.

To W. W. Wyman, for newspapers furnished the members of the Assembly, during the present session, seventy-three dollars and four cents.

To William D. Wilson, for newspapers furnished the members of the Assembly during the present session, fifteen dollars [and] sixty cents.

To Richard T. Davis, for three days services making fires at the commencement of the present session, nine dollars.

To J. Doran Jenkins, for writing for the Legislative Assembly, fifteen dollars.

To Cyrus P. Hiller, the sum of twenty-one dollars for writing done for the Legislative Assembly.

To O. S. Dunham, for two dozen chairs for the Legislative Halls and committee rooms, thirty-six dollars.

To John Y. Smith, for subscription to the Law Library, for 1845 for the use of the Territorial Library, ten dollars.

To Joseph G. Knapp, for writing done for the present session of the Legislative Assembly, three dollars.

To John Ramsdell, for writing done for the present session of the Legislative Assembly, thirty dollars.

To Thomas McHugh, for writing done for the present session of the Legislative Assembly, thirty dollars.

To Simeon Mills, for printing done for the House of Representatives, the three last days of the session, seventeen dollars and ninety-six cents.

Sec. 2. That the balance of the fund appropriated by Congress for the payment of the expenses of the Legislative Assembly for the current year, which may remain after deducting from such fund the per diem and mileage of the members, the pay of officers and other incidental expenses provided for in this act, be and the said balance is hereby appropriated to be expended under the direction of the Superintendent of Territorial Property, in the purchase of books for the library of the Territory: Provided, That the first books to be purchased shall be such volumes of reports as may be necessary to continue and complete the sets which have been heretofore purchased and are now belonging to the library.

APPROVED February 3, 1846.