

AN ACT to provide for the collection of delinquent taxes on personal property in certain cases.

BE IT ENACTED by the Council and House of Representatives of the Territory of Wisconsin:

SECTION 1. That in all cases when taxes have been or may hereafter be levied according to law, against any person, upon his or her personal property, and it shall appear by the return of the proper collecting officer of the town or county in which such tax was or may be levied, that the said tax is unpaid in the whole or in part, and that the person against whom such tax was levied, has not sufficient personal property in such town or county, out of which the amount of such taxes can be made, such town or county shall have the right to sue for and recover the amount of such taxes ^{May sue for and recover} in an action of debt to be brought in the name of the proper supervisors or county commissioners as the case may be, against the delinquent tax debtor in any county in the Territory where he may reside, or where he may be found and served with process, and the assessment and collector's return shall be prima facie evidence of the sum due, and to be recovered in any such action.

APPROVED January 29th, 1846.

AN ACT relative to the county of Crawford and the counties thereunto attached for judicial purposes.

BE IT ENACTED by the Council and House of Representatives of the Territory of Wisconsin:

SECTION 1. That the counties of Chippewa, St. Croix and La Pointe shall not hereafter be required to pay any portion of their