

(14.50) (4) (As created in Chapter 15, Laws Special Session 1931-1932 (Bill 14, S.)) When the bank on which any check or draft is drawn by the state treasurer shall before payment of such check or draft become insolvent or shall be taken over by the commissioner of banking or comptroller of the currency, the state treasurer shall on the demand of the person in whose favor such check or draft was drawn and upon the return to the treasurer of such check or draft issue a duplicate for the same amount. This subsection shall apply to checks or drafts heretofore issued and not paid.

SECTION 2. A new section is added to the statutes to read: 220.085 On approval of the banking review board, any state bank or trust company, or the receiver of any insolvent or delinquent state bank or trust company, may take advantage of any act that may be enacted by the Congress of the United States for the relief of any state banks or trust companies.

SECTION 3. For a period not to exceed two years after the date of passage of this act, the commissioner of banking, with a view to stabilizing and readjusting the banking structure of any bank, may approve any stabilization and readjustment agreement entered into between such bank and the depositors and unsecured creditors of such bank which in his judgment is in the best interests of all persons concerned, notwithstanding the provision in subsection (16) of section 220.07 requiring that eighty per cent of the amount of the deposits and unsecured credits of such bank be represented in such agreement.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
