In a joint session of the legislature for interpellation of any appointive state officer, the lieutenant governor or president of the senate presides over the joint meeting, and the chief clerk of the assembly, assisted by the chief clerk of the senate, acts as clerk. No evidence can be introduced except answers of an officer to written and oral interrogatories as to matters included in the first subsection of this section, and except documentary evidence furnished in response to questions asked. Witnesses may not be examined and documents may not be offered which would tend to prove or disprove the answer given by the officer being questioned. No one can be examined except the officer being interpellated. The joint session has no power to decide facts. The officer cannot be questioned in nature of cross-examination. 24 Atty. Gen. 159.

If a thing of value is given to a friend of a legislator for the purpose of inducing the friend to use his efforts on the legislator on behalf of the lobbyist or his cause, such expenditure is made by the lobbyist "relative to his activities" as such, so that the failure to report it is a violation of the statutes relating to lobbying. State v. Hoebel, 256 W 549, 41 NW (2d) 865.

A lobbyist is not required to report items which may aid his work, in this case expenses for meals, travel, and hotel rooms for stenographers, but which are incurred and paid directly by his principal, in this case a city, which as such principal is itself required by 346.245, Stats. 1949, to file a report of expenditures at the end of the legislative session. State v. Decker, 258 W 177, 45 NW (2d) 98.

A lobbyist, who gives cards to legislators and others entitling the bearers to a quantity of a product manufactured by members of an incorporated association which is the lobbyist's principal, which cards are delivered to wholesalers in return for the product and are ultimately redeemed by the manufacturers from the wholesalers, is not required to report such transactions by 346.245, Stats. 1955. Whether the association is required by 346.25 to report the expenditures of its members in redeeming such cards depends upon whether or not the association either reimburses the manufacturers or gives credit on their membership dues. 44 Atty. Gen. 174.

While failure to file a statement or filing a false statement under 13.67 (1), Stats. 1957, is a criminal offense, a violation of 13.62 (3) (b) is not a criminal offense and the privilege against self-incrimination has no application. 47 Atty. Gen. 228.

The provision that it is the duty of the attorney general on information to bring prosecutions for the violation of the laws regulating lobbying imposes an additional duty on the attorney general, but does not give him exclusive authority, and does not deprive the district attorney, as prosecuting attorney in his county, of the right or duty to proceed in such case where information of a violation occurring within his county reaches him. State ex rel. Arthur v. Superior Court, 257 W 430, 43 NW (2d) 484.
