

An act to establish a state road through a part of Iowa, Richland, and Sauk counties. Chap 110

THE People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

SECTION 1. That Isaac F. Wallace, Robert Mc'Cloud and Bigelow, are hereby appointed commissioners to lay out and establish a state road through the counties of Iowa, Richland and Sauk, commencing at Franklin in Iowa county, running on the best and most practicable route to the mouth of Pine river, Richland county, and across the Wisconsin, to the east bank of the Pine river, and up the bank of said river, and the valley of said Pine river to the junction of Willow Creek, and thence up the valley of said creek to near its source ; and from thence the nearest and most practicable route across the Baraboo river to Plover Portage, in Portage county. Commissioners.
Route.

SEC. 2. The commissioners appointed under the provisions of this act, shall, upon the performance of the work, be entitled to such compensation for their services as the county supervisors of the counties where such services are performed, shall deem just and proper : each county to pay the expense incurred within its own bounds : Provided, that the county of Sauk shall not be obliged to pay any part of the expense of such services, nor for opening the same. Compensation.
