Chap. 83. An Act to divide the county of Brown and create the county of Outagamie.

The People of the State of Wisconsin represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

SECTION 1. That all that portion of country now embraced in the county of Brown, known and designated as Towns 21, 22, 23 and 24, north of ranges 15, 16, 17, 18, and the west half of 19, east, is hereby set off into a separate county, which shall be called and known as the county of Outagamie.

SEC. 2. That the County of Outagamie aforesaid, shall be organized after the first day of April next, for the purposes of county government, and shall enjoy all the rights, privileges, immunities and powers of the other counties in this state.

SEC. 3. There shall be an election held in the several towns and precincts, such now are, or may be hereafter established by law on the first Tuesday of April next, for the election of all such town and county officers as the said county by virtue of its organization and the privileges of this act shall be entitled to, who shall severally hold their offices until the first day of January after the next general annual election and their successors are duly qualified.

Election of officers.

SEC. 4. The said election shall be conducted in all respects in the manner now provided for holding the same under the law regulating general elections, and the votes cast at the same shall be returned and canvassed as therein provided, and the judges of said election shall issue certificates of election to any person duly elected under the provisions of this act.

County Seat.

SEC. 5. That the seat of justice of said county shall be, and is hereby located at the Town of Grand Chute in said county, and the citizens of said county may at their first election vote for or against the establishment of the seat of justice of said county at any place in said county and the place so receiving a majority of the votes polled at such election shall be the permanent seat of justice.

SEC. 6. Said county so established shall remain attached to the county of Brown for judicial purposes until otherwise provided by law.

Duty of Supervisors.

SEC. 7. The County Supervisors so elected on said day of election, shall meet as soon thereafter as may be, at the seat of justice, and with the Clerk of said county, all of whom being first duly qualified according to law and under oath by some person authorized to administer the same, shall then and there proceed to organize said county, and may then and there perform all such duties and services as may be required of them by law, in order that the said county may be organized as contemplated by this act, and to approve the qualifications of other county officers.

Judicial Expenses.

SEC. 8. That the county of Outagamie shall pay into the Treasurer of the county of Brown, all costs, fees, charges and expenses, that shall be paid by the county of Brown, that may accrue in consequence of any prosecution, conviction, imprisonment or proceedings whatever against any person charged with any crime or misdemeanor within said county of Outagamie, and the Supervisors of the county of Brown may sue and collect the same from said county of Outagamie in any court of competent jurisdiction.
