Chap 383

An Act to provide for the protection of Sheep.

The people of the State of Wisconsin represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

When dog may be killed. SECTION 1. If any dog shall be found killing, wounding, or worrying any sheep or lambs, it shall be lawful for any person to kill such dog at any time before such dog shall have returned to the enclosure or immediate care of the owner or possessor thereof.

Owner of dog liable for damages. SEC. 2. The owner or keeper of any dog which shall have killed, wounded or worried any sheep or lamb, shall be liable in an action of trespass on the case, to the owner or legal possessor of sheep or lambs, for all damages so done by such dog, without proving notice to the owner or keeper of such dog, or knowledge by him that his dog was mischievous or disposed to kill or worry sheep.

Penalty for not confining dog. SEC. 3. If any dog shall worry, wound, or kill any sheep or lamb, and the person owning or harboring such dog shall not keep such dog confined after being notified of such worrying, wounding, or killing, such owner or keeper shall be liable to pay damage in double the value of any sheep which may be thereafter killed by such dog, to be recovered in an action of trespass on the case, by the owner of such sheep, and any person may kill any such dog, if found out of the enclosure or immediate care of its owner or keeper, after twenty-four hours from the time of such notice.

J. McM. SHAFTER,
Speaker of the Assembly.

An Act to provide for the re-appraisal of Section number sixteen, in Township number three, of range one, west, in Grant County.

Chap 384

The people of the State of Wisconsin represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The governor shall appoint three disinterested citizens of the town of Platteville, appraisers, whose duty it shall be to examine and re-appraise section number sixteen, in township number three north, of range number one west of the fourth principal meridian, in Grant county, and to make report of such appraisment as hereinafter directed.

Governor to appoint appraisers

SEC. 2. The said appraisers, before entering upon the discharge of the duties herein specified shall severally take and subscribe an oath or affirmation, to be administered by any officer who is authorized by law to administer oaths, that they will support the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the state of Wisconsin, and that they will discharge the duties of appraisers under the provisions of this act, according to the best of their ability; which said oaths or affirmations shall be duly certified by the officer administering the same, and shall be attached to the report to be made as herein provided for.

To take oath.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the said appraisers or a majority of them, after having taken the oath or affirmation mentioned in the preceding section, to proceed to make a personal inspection of the lands described in the first section of this act, and to make an appraisment and valuation thereof in subdivisions or lots, containing not more than forty acres each, which appraisment shall be made without reference to any improvements upon said lands, but the said appraisers shall, in their report, particularly describe any and all improvements which have been made and now are upon the said lands or any part thereof, by any occupant or claimant thereof, and the said appraisers shall also set forth and state the full and fair estimated value of

To make personal inspection.
