

thereof, in pursuance of the certificate of sale, and the clerk of the board of supervisors, or clerk of the city or village, shall enter upon his records the redemption of all such lands, and the amount due the holder of the certificate shall be paid from the treasury of the county, or from the treasury of the city and village, in which said lands may have been sold.

SEC. 3. The amount paid on account of such redemption shall be returned by the county treasurer to the state treasurer, in the same manner as taxes charged upon school, university, and swamp lands which have been sold by the state, and placed to the credit of the county; and if there shall be no moneys due to the state from any county which shall have returned any such delinquent taxes upon lands mortgaged to the state for loans, the state treasurer is hereby authorized and required to pay out of the proper fund the amount of all such unpaid taxes and interest, and add the same to the amount of interest and penalty due from the party who may have mortgaged any such lands to the state.

Returns to be made by county treasurer.

Duty of state treasurer.

SEC. 4. For the purpose of enabling the clerks of the boards of supervisors of the several counties, and of the cities and villages therein, to comply with the provisions of sections two and three of this act, the register of deeds in such of the counties shall furnish said clerks with an abstract of all mortgages on record in their respective offices given to secure any loan from the school, university or drainage funds of the state.

Duty of register of deeds

SEC. 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Take effect.

Approved March 21, 1859.

[Published April 9, 1859.]

CHAPTER 206.

AN ACT to amend section fifty-six, of chapter twenty-three, of the revised statutes, entitled "Of common schools."

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section fifty-six, of chapter twenty-three, of the revised statutes, is hereby amended by adding to said section the following provision: Any person feeling aggrieved by the refusal of any town superintendent to grant him or her a certificate according to the provisions of this section, may appeal to the state superintendent, who is hereby authorized to re-examine said applicant; and if upon such re-examination the state superintendent shall be satisfied that the applicant is qualified to teach a common school according to the provisions of this section, he shall grant the applicant a certificate to that effect, which shall give to the holder all the privileges and powers conferred by a certificate granted by a town superintendent for the term of one year. Any town superintendent shall, on application to the town superintendent of any adjoining town, be examined in regard to moral character, learning, and ability to teach school, and, if found qualified, shall receive a certificate from said examining superintendent, qualifying him to teach in the town where he, the applicant, resides, also the town where the examining superintendent resides for one year, unless annulled within that time, according to the provisions of said chapter twenty-three, for annulling the certificates of teachers.

Amendment, relating to superintendents.

Repealed. SEC. 2. All acts and parts of acts contravening the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

Take effect. SEC. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 21, 1859.

[Published April 9, 1859.]

CHAPTER 207.

AN ACT to make a temporary loan to the state university.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

Loan, for what purpose³⁶. SECTION 1. That, for the purpose of enabling the board of regents of the state university to complete the central edifice of said institution, as provided by chapter twenty-five of the general laws of 1857, entitled, "An act providing for the erection of the main edifice of the state university," approved February 28th, 1857, there is hereby appropriated to said board of regents, as a temporary loan, to be used by them in paying the contractor on said building, and to insure its speedy completion, the sum of twenty thousand dollars, payable from the general fund, out of any surplus money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated.