

lished has ceased to be printed and published, such court commissioner, county judge, circuit court, (or judge thereof,) shall, on application of any person interested, make an order that such publication be finished and completed in some other newspaper printed in such county, or in some newspaper printed in an adjoining county, and the time which such summons or notice has been published at the date of making such application shall be deducted from the time required by law for its publication, and the order of the commissioner, court or judge shall be that such summons or other notice be published in such other newspaper for the residue of the time required by law for such publication; and such publication, when so made, shall be as valid and effectual as if made in the newspaper in which such publication was commenced. Such publication to be valid.

SEC. 3. The provisions of this act shall apply to all legal notices the publication of which shall be unfinished at the time of its passage. Application of this act.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved January 22, 1859.

[Published January 29, 1859.]

CHAPTER 4.

AN ACT to authorize town clerks to certify to the state superintendent the amount of money assessed for the support of schools, and to provide for levying a tax in certain cases.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Those towns that have not assessed, by direction of the board of supervisors, an amount equal to one-half of the amount received from the school fund at the last annual apportionment, shall, and are hereby authorized to certify through the clerks of said towns, to the state superintendent such additional amounts as have been assessed for the support of schools. What towns to assess. By whom certified.

SEC. 2. Those towns that have not assessed, by order of the county supervisors, a sum of money equal to one-half of the amount received from the school fund; are hereby authorized to supply such deficiency by an immediate assessment upon the taxable property of said towns, of such sums as shall be necessary, the same to What amount. How assessed, and how collected.

be estimated and directed by the board of supervisors of the respective towns, to be levied and collected in the same manner as other taxes, and certified by the town clerk to the state superintendent, previous to the apportionment of the income of the School Fund in the present year.

Duty of state superintendent.

SEC. 3. The state superintendent is hereby authorized to apportion to the different towns, that comply with the provisions of this act, such sums of money as they may thereby be entitled to.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

Approved January 27, 1859.

[Published February 1, 1859.]

CHAPTER 5.

AN ACT to extend the time for the payment of interest on school, university and swamp lands.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Interest to what time extended.

SECTION 1. That the time now required by law by which the interest on school, university and swamp lands, and on all loans of money from the school, university and the drainage funds shall be paid, is hereby extended to [the] fifth day of March in each year.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

Approved January 31, 1859.

[Published February 2, 1859.]

CHAPTER 6.

AN ACT to amend sections twenty-six and ninety, of chapter twenty-eight of the revised statutes, entitled "Of the school and university lands."

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Time extended.

SECTION 1. Section twenty-six, of chapter twenty-eight of the revised statutes, is hereby amended by striking out after the word "January," in the ninth line of said section, the words "or within thirty days there-