

[Published March 24, 1859.]

CHAPTER 93.

AN ACT to provide for the mode of extending the corporate limits of cities and villages of this state.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The corporate limits of no incorporated city or village in this state shall hereafter be extended, until the following provisions of this act shall be fully complied with. Declaratory.

SEC. 2. The common council of any city, or the board of trustees of any incorporated village, desiring to extend its corporate limits, shall adopt a resolution expressing the intention to make application to the legislature at its next session, to extend the corporate limits of such city or village, which resolution shall, with reasonable precision, describe the lands or territory which it is proposed to include in such corporate limits, and shall cause such resolution, together with a notice that application will be made to the next legislature, in pursuance thereof, for an act to authorize such city or village to extend its corporate limits in conformity therewith, to be published for at least four consecutive weeks next preceding the day for holding the annual town meeting, in one or more newspapers published in the county in which such city or village is located. Notice of application.

SEC. 3. Accompanying the petition to the legislature for an act to authorize such city or village to extend its corporate limits, there shall be a certificate of the town clerk or the town from which it is proposed to take the additional territory, stating that the resolution and notice provided for in section two of this act was, on the day of the last town meeting, publicly read to said meeting, and a vote taken thereon, and that a majority of the electors present voted in favor of allowing the territory described in said resolution to be set off to such city or village. Certificate of notice.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage. Take effect.

Approved March 14, 1859.