CHAPTER 144.

[Published March 24, 1860.]

AN ACT to amend the several acts relating to the charter of the city of Watertown.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The third and eighth wards of the city of Watertown, in the State of Wisconsin, are hereby consolidated, and shall hereafter constitute but one ward, which shall be known as the third ward of said city, and all debts and liabilities of said eighth ward shall be assumed by and treated as the debts and liabilities of the said third ward, and all tax certificates, credits, or other property belonging to said eighth ward, shall become and be treated as the property of said third ward.

SEC. 2. Sections ten, thirteen and fourteen, of chapter two hundred and thirty-four, of the Private and Local Laws of 1858, are hereby repealed.

SEC. 3. The inspectors of elections of the several wards of said city shall make return of all votes polled, in their respective wards, at any election for city or ward officers, to the clerk of said city, and it shall be the duty of said clerk, at the first meeting of the common council of said city, held thereafter, to open and read, in the presence of said council, all returns so made to him, and said council shall thereupon proceed to canvass the votes so returned, and determine and declare the result of such election, and said clerk shall make out and deliver to each and every person, so determined by said council, to have been elected to any city or ward office, a certificate of such election, duly certified under his hand, and the seal of said city.

Of offences in Dodge county

SEC. 4. Whenever any conviction shall be had before the police justice of said city, for any offence committed in that part of the city which is situated in the county of Dodge, and it shall become necessary to commit any person so convicted to the county jail, the commitment in such case shall command the officer, to whom the same is delivered, to convey the person so convicted to the county jail of Dodge county, and the keeper of said jail shall receive such person so committed, and detain him according to the commands of such warrant of commitment and in like manner as if such commitment had been issued by any justice of the peace of said county of Dodge.

Sec. 6, chap.
327, amended.

SEC. 5. Section six, of chapter three hundred and twenty-seven, of the Private and Local Laws of 1856, is hereby amended by inserting the words "and seventh," after the word "second," where it first occurs in said section.

Sec. 1, chap.
332, amended.

SEC. 6. Section one, of chapter three hundred and thirty-two, of the Private and Local Laws of 1857, is hereby amended by inserting the words "and seventh," after the word "first," where it last occurs in said section.

Repeal.

SEC. 7. All acts and parts of acts which conflict with or contravene the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

SEC. 8. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 19, 1860.
