

CHAPTER 235.

[Published April 17, 1860.]

AN ACT to annex a part of the county of Chippewa to the county of Dallas.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Towns detached and annexed.

SECTION 1. Townships number thirty-two, thirty-three, thirty-four, thirty-five, thirty-six, and thirty-seven, north of ranges number ten and eleven west, are hereby detached and set off from the county of Chippewa, and attached and annexed to the county of Dallas.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 29, 1860.

CHAPTER 236.

[Published April 17, 1860.]

AN ACT to organize the county of Door for judicial purposes.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Organising Co for judicial purposes.

SECTION 1. From and after the first day of January next, the county of Door shall be organized for judicial purposes, and shall enjoy all the rights and privileges appertaining to other counties organized in this State.

Tenth judicial circuit. One term of court—when held.

SEC. 2. The said county shall be attached to and remain a part of the tenth judicial circuit, and one term of the circuit court shall be held annually, at the county seat thereof, on the first Monday in October in each year.

Writs and proceedings shall have force.

SEC. 3. All writs and proceedings shall issue and be made returnable as required by law in other counties, and laws now in force applicable to the summoning and empanneling of jurors shall have force in said county of Door.

Proceedings in court removed from Brown to Door county.

SEC. 4. All actions, suits, and complaints at law and in equity, all cases of appeal and certiorari, all criminal cases, and all manner of judicial proceedings whatsoever, cognizable before the circuit court, having arisen