

CHAPTER 29.

[Published February 9, 1860.]

AN ACT to provide for holding the first term of the circuit court of the county of Iowa, for the year 1860.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

Time changed SECTION 1. The first regular term of the circuit court in and for the county of Iowa, for the year 1860, shall be held on the second Monday of May in said year, instead of the third Monday in February, as heretofore provided by law.

Proceedings continued. SEC. 2. All causes, recognizances, and other proceedings of every kind, in said court, are hereby continued until the said second Monday in May, and all causes shall be brought on for trial, in the manner required by law, at the time herein provided for holding said term, and the passage of this act shall not invalidate any process or proceeding in said court.

Repealing section. SEC. 3. So much of section 1, of chapter 1, of the General Laws of 1859, as conflicts with the provisions of this act, are, for the purposes of this act, hereby repealed.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved February 9, 1860.

CHAPTER 30.

[Published February 10, 1860.]

AN ACT to extend the time for the collection of taxes in the city of Madison.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

Extended to 2d Mond. in April. SECTION 1. The time for the voluntary payment of all taxes, except State taxes, for the year 1859, levied pursuant to any law of this State, in the city of Madison, in Dane county, is hereby extended to the second Monday in April next.

Duties of collector. SEC. 2. The collector may receive such taxes, mentioned in his tax list, as shall be voluntarily paid to him prior to the second Monday in April next, and give his receipt, therefor, to the party or parties applying to pay the same.

SEC. 3. If, upon the second Monday in April next, there shall be any taxes levied in the city of Madison, due and unpaid, it shall be the duty of the collector of taxes to present his original warrant, for the collection thereof, to the officer who issued the same, for a renewal thereof; and it is hereby made the duty of said officer to renew said warrant by endorsing thereon, or annexing thereto, an order as follows:

COUNTY OF DANE, }
 CITY OF MADISON, } ss.

The within (or foregoing) warrant is hereby renewed for the period of thirty days, from the second Monday in April, A. D. 1860; which order shall be dated on the day when the same is made and signed officially, by the officer making the same, and re-delivered to the collector therein named.

SEC. 4. The collector named in such warrant, on the renewal thereof, as aforesaid, shall proceed, forthwith, to collect the unpaid taxes mentioned in his tax list, by seizure and sale of personal property, in the manner provided by law.

SEC. 5. The term of office of the collector of taxes, for the year 1859, in the city of Madison, is hereby extended to the fourteenth day of May next; but such collector shall give a new official bond, on or before the first Monday in April next, in such sum as the common council may direct; conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office, and the faithful application and payment, as directed by existing laws, of all moneys, and delivery of all books or papers, now in his hands, or which may come into his hands by virtue of his office.

SEC. 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved February 10, 1860.
