CHAPTER 352.

[Published April 13, 1860]

AN ACT to amend chapter 23, of the Revised Statutes, entitled "Of common schools."

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section eleven, of said chapter, is hereby Amendment. amended, by striking out the word "twenty," in the first line of sub-section nine, and inserting, instead, the word "fifty;" also by adding an additional sub-section to said section eleven, which shall read as follows: "To authorize the district board to admit to the privileges of the school, persons not residing in the district, whenever such admission will not interfere with the accommodation or instruction of the scholars residing therein, and to fix a fee for tuition, per term, quarter, or year, to be charged the persons thus admitted."

Persons not residing in district may be admitted to school.

SEC. 2. Section thirty-nine is hereby amended by adding to said section the following words: "and shall have full power: 1st, to make all needful rules and regulations for the organization, gradation and government, of the school or schools established in the district; said rules to take effect and be in force when a copy of the same, signed by a majority of the board, shall be filed with the clerk; 2d—to suspend any pupil from the privileges of the school

Rules for government of school may be made—nature thereof.

for non-compliance with the rules established by them, or by the teacher with their consent; 3d—to expel from school any pupil who shall persistently refuse or neglect to obey the rules and regulations above mentioned, whenever upon due examination they shall become satisfied that the interests of the school demand such expulsion.”

Three fourths of votes required to vote tax at special meetings. SEC. 3. Section forty-five is amended by striking out the word “March,” in the second line of sub-section four, and inserting the word “June,” in lieu thereof.

SEC. 4. Section one, of chapter one hundred and thirty-eight, of the General Laws of 1858, now comprising a part of chapter twenty-three, of the Revised Statutes, is amended by striking out the following words, in the seventh and eighth lines thereof, to-wit: “By notifying all the legal voters in such district;” and by adding to said section the following words: “Provided, that no tax shall be voted at a special meeting, unless three-fourths of the legal voters shall have been notified, either personally, or by leaving a written notice at their places of residence, stating the time, place, and objects of the meeting, at least six days before the time appointed therefor.”

Boundaries of union school dist. may be altered. SEC. 5. The boundaries of any union school district, formed in accordance with the provisions of section twelve of chapter one hundred and thirty-eight, aforesaid, may be altered in the same manner that the boundaries of common school districts are altered; and the provisions of law governing the action of the town superintendents, in relation to the alteration of common school districts, shall, so far as the same are applicable, be applied in the alteration of union school districts; Provided, that no union school district shall be disorganized, unless a majority of the electors, shall, at an annual meeting, vote for such disorganization.

Proviso.

SEC. 6. Whenever the director and clerk of any school district shall deem the security upon the bond of the treasurer insufficient, they shall have the right to demand additional security, and the refusal or neglect of the treasurer to furnish such additional security, shall vacate his office, which shall be filled by the board, as provided in section twenty-three, of the chapter of which this act is amendatory.

SEC. 7. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 2, 1860.
