

CHAPTER 60.

[Published March 1, 1860.]

AN ACT to confer certain powers upon the trustees of the village of Monroe.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The trustees of the village of Monroe may take, by gift or purchase, and hold within the town of Monroe, in the county of Green, not exceeding forty acres of land, including that already acquired by said village, to be held and occupied by said village for a cemetery, for the burial of the dead; such land, or such portion thereof, as may from time to time be required for that purpose, may be surveyed and divided into lots of such size as the trustees may direct, with such avenues, alleys and walks, as the trustees may deem proper, and a map or maps of such surveys shall be filed and recorded in the register's office of Green county.

SEC. 2. After such map or maps shall have been filed in the register's office as aforesaid, the trustees may sell and convey the lots designated on such maps, in such manner and upon such terms and conditions, to be inserted in or annexed to the conveyances, as the trustees shall prescribe. Every conveyance of any such lot, shall be expressly for burial purposes, and no other, and shall be in the corporate name of said village, and signed by the president and clerk thereof. The proceeds of the sale of lots in said cemetery grounds shall be applied exclusively to the improvement and ornamenting of said cemetery grounds, under the direction of said trustees.

SEC. 3. The trustees of said village may make such ordinances and prescribe and enforce such penalties for the protection of such cemetery as they may deem proper, not inconsistent with their act of incorporation.

SEC. 4. This act shall be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved February 29, 1860.
