

CHAPTER 8.

[Published January 25, 1860.]

AN ACT to provide for the holding of special terms of the circuit court for the counties of Ozaukee and Washington.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

For holding special terms of circuit court in Ozaukee County.

SECTION 1. On the first Monday of February and on the second Monday of July in each year, special terms of the circuit court in the county of Ozaukee, shall be held, by the judge of said circuit, at the court house in the village of Port Washington, in said county, for the trial of issues at law, for the hearing and trial of causes without a jury, for the hearing of motions, and the transaction of any and all business that may be done at a regular term, except the trial of issues of fact by a jury.

In Washington county.

SEC. 2. Special terms, for the same purpose as mentioned in section one, shall also be held by the said judge, for the county of Washington, at the court house, in the village of West Bend, on the second Wednesday after the first Monday of February, and on the second Wednesday after the second Monday of July in each year.

Repealing section.

SEC. 3. So much of chapter 127, of the Session Laws of 1859, as affects the counties of Ozaukee and Washington, in the third judicial circuit, is hereby repealed.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved January 24, 1860.

CHAPTER 9.

[Published January 26, 1860.]

AN ACT to authorize the holding of a special term of the circuit court in and for the county of Kenosha.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Authorizing special term of circuit court in Kenosha county.

SECTION 1. That a special term of the circuit court, in and for the county of Kenosha, shall be holden at the court house, in the city of Kenosha, in said county, on the first Tuesday of February, 1860, to commence at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, for the transaction of all business not requiring the intervention of a jury.

SEC. 2. No notice of the holding of said special term shall be required, other than the passage of this act. No further notice required.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved January 26, 1860.

CHAPTER 10.

[Published January 30, 1860.]

AN ACT to change the time of holding courts in the county of Richland, in the fifth judicial circuit.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. That hereafter the general terms of the circuit court, in and for the county of Richland, in the fifth judicial circuit of this State, shall be held on the first Monday in June and the first Monday in December of each year. Changing time of general terms of circuit court in Richland county.

SEC. 2. All writs, summons, process, indictments, recognizances and other proceedings, made returnable to the terms now fixed by law, shall be returnable to the terms herein provided, and all adjournments, appearances, continuances, motions and notices of any proceedings in the circuit courts of said county, made or taken to any term, of date subsequent to the date when this act shall take effect, shall be held and taken for the time herein provided for holding the terms of said courts. Return of writs, process, &c.

SEC. 3. All acts and parts of acts, conflicting with the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed. Repeal.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
