

CHAPTER 209.

[Published April 8, 1862.]

AN ACT to amend chapter 280 of the private and local laws of 1854, entitled "an act to incorporate the village of Sheboygan Falls," and to amend chapter 212 of the private and local laws of 1858, entitled "an act to amend an act entitled 'an act to incorporate the village of Sheboygan Falls,' approved April 1st, 1854."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter two hundred and eighty of the private and local laws of 1854, entitled "an act to incorporate the village of Sheboygan Falls," is hereby amended by striking out of section three of said chapter the words "and at all elections for officers under this act, subsequent to the first election, no person shall be a qualified elector unless he shall have paid his poll tax." Qualification of electors.

SECTION 2. Sections four, seventeen, eighteen, nineteen, twenty, twenty-one, twenty-two, twenty-three, twenty-four, twenty-five and twenty-six of said chapter, are hereby repealed. Repeal.

SECTION 3. Section eleven of said chapter is hereby amended by striking out of the twenty-third article of said section, the words "under the direction of such person or persons as they may appoint," and inserting in lieu thereof the words "under the direction of an overseer or overseers of highways, to be appointed by the president and trustees of said village, and when so appointed to have the same powers to collect said tax as are now legally exercised by overseers of highways in the several towns." Poll tax—under whose direction to be expended.

SECTION 4. Section eleven of said chapter is hereby amended by striking out of article twenty-two of said section, the words "and such taxes shall be levied on the assessment roll as made by the assessors of the town of Sheboygan Falls, in the month of May annually: and provided, further, that all lands lying and being within said village, used for farming purposes, and not laid out into lots and blocks, a plat whereof shall have been duly recorded, shall be subject only to such amount of taxes as said lands would have been subject to had not this act been passed." Amendment.

Two justices of the peace.

SECTION 5. Chapter two hundred and twelve of the private and local laws of 1858, entitled "an act to amend an act entitled 'an act to incorporate the village of Sheboygan Falls,' approved April 1, 1854," is hereby amended by striking out the words, "one justice of the peace," where it occurs [they occur] in section two of said chapter, and insert [inserting] in lieu thereof the words, "Said village shall be entitled to two justices of the peace, one of whom shall be elected annually, and they shall hold their office for the term of two years; and when duly elected and qualified, they shall have and exercise the powers and jurisdiction of (and be subject to all the provisions of law concerning) justices of the peace of the several towns."

Taxes.

SECTION 6. Section eight of said chapter two hundred and twelve, is hereby amended by inserting after the word "therein," where it occurs in said section, the words, "and all taxes levied by the president and trustees of said village for corporation purposes."

SECTION 7. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 5, 1862.
