

garnishee according to the merits of the case, in the manner provided in section nine of this act.

SECTION 17. If it shall appear upon the answer of the garnishee, or from the finding of the court or jury on the trial of the issue, that the garnishee is liable to deliver to the judgment debtor certain specific property, or to pay him any money at a future day, unless the payment of such money is secured by a negotiable note, the court may render a judgment against the garnishee, without costs, requiring him to deliver such property, or to pay such money over to the sheriff, at such time as he may be liable to deliver such property or pay such money.

Proceedings where garnishee liable to pay at future day, &c.

Approved April 5, 1862.

CHAPTER 250.

[Published April 10, 1862.]

AN ACT to amend section one of chapter 89 of the general laws of 1858, entitled "an act concerning exemption of property from execution."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

SECTION 1. Section one of chapter eighty-nine of the general laws of 1858, approved May 13, 1858, and entitled "an act concerning exemption of property from execution," is hereby amended so as to read as follows : "Section 1. All fire engines, apparatus and equipments, including hose, hose carts and hooks and ladders, belonging to, or which may hereafter belong to any town, city or village in this state, and which are or may be kept and used for the protection of property in such town, city or village from fire, together with the engine houses and hook and ladder houses for the protection of the same, and the lot or lots on which such engine and hook and ladder houses may be situated, when owned by any such town, city or village, and any lot or lots owned, used and occupied by any such town, city or village for corporate purposes, shall be exempt from seizure or sale upon any attachment, execution or Fire engines, &c., exempt from execution.

other final process of any court, for any debt or liability of such town, city or village.”

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 5, 1862.

CHAPTER 251.

[Published April 10, 1862.]

AN ACT relating to bills of exchange and promissory notes, and to repeal chapter 79 of the general laws of 1861, entitled “an act to amend chapter twelve of the revised statutes, entitled ‘of notaries public.’”

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

How notice of protest to be given.

SECTION 1. Section five of chapter twelve of the revised statutes, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: “It shall be the duty of each and every notary public, when any bill of exchange or promissory note shall be by him protested for non-acceptance or non-payment, to give notice thereof, in writing, to the maker and each and every indorser of such bill of exchange, and to each and every surety or indorser of such promissory note, immediately after such protest shall have been made, by delivering to each person entitled to such notice, a copy of the same, or by depositing such copy in the postoffice, postpaid, and directed to him at the postoffice at or nearest to his known or reputed place of residence.”

Repeal.

SECTION 2. Chapter seventy-nine of the general laws of 1861, entitled “an act to amend chapter twelve of the revised statutes, entitled ‘of notaries public,’” is hereby repealed.

Approved April 5, 1862.