

ure to answer the complaint, or on confession, the sum of one dollar. 2. If such judgment be entered upon a verdict of a jury, or a decision in writing by the court, after a trial by jury, or by the court respectively, the sum of four dollars, except in actions for the foreclosure of mortgages and for the partition of real estate. 3. If such action be for the foreclosure of a mortgage, or for the partition of real property, the sum of six dollars. 4. In all other cases not hereinbefore specified, the sum of four dollars.

Fees to be accounted for by clerk.

SECTION 3. The sums required to be paid by the foregoing section, shall be collected by said clerk, and shall be accounted for by him under oath to the treasurer of said county of Milwaukee, quarterly; and in case of his failure so to do, said clerk, together with his sureties, shall be personally responsible to said county of Milwaukee on his official bond, for all sums which he shall so neglect to collect and account for.

Repeal.

SECTION 4. All acts and parts of acts regulating the fees of the clerk of said circuit and county courts, inconsistent with this act, are hereby repealed.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 7, 1862.

CHAPTER 312.

[Published April 14, 1862.]

AN ACT to authorize the county board of supervisors of Milwaukee county to levy a tax to cover the necessary expenses [expenses] of printing for the use of the schools of said county, and apportion the same among the several towns of said county of Milwaukee.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Expense of printing for schools.

SECTION 1. The board of supervisors of Milwaukee county, having omitted, at the time of the levy of the county school tax for the year (of) 1862, to raise a sufficient amount by tax to cover all necessary expenses [expenses] of printing for the use of the schools in such county for said year, are hereby authorized and empowered to levy an additional tax for the purpose above set forth, at the time specified by law for the levying of county school tax for the year (A. D.) 1863, and apportion the same among the towns, city and villages of said county: provided, that no part of said amount shall be apportioned to or levied upon any incorporated city whose boards [board] of education shall have elected, as provided in section 11 [of] chapter 179 [of the] general laws of 1861.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 7, 1862.

CHAPTER 313.

[Published April 14, 1862.]

AN ACT to amend an act entitled "an act to consolidate and amend the act to incorporate the city of Watertown, and the several acts amendatory thereof," approved March the 29th, 1856, and section five of chapter 124 of the private and local laws of 1853, [entitled] "an act supplemental to an act entitled 'an act to incorporate the city of Watertown.'"

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one of chapter two hundred and thirty-four of the private and local laws of 1858, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: "The first ward of the city of Watertown is hereby divided by a line commencing in the center of Rock river, at a point where the south line of the Milwaukee and Western railroad crosses said river, thence running easterly along the south line of said railroad to the city limits."

SECTION 2. Section two of said chapter is hereby amended so as to read as follows: "All that portion of said first ward hereby divided, lying north of the south line of said railroad, including said road, shall hereafter be the first ward, and all that part south of the south line of said railroad, shall hereafter be the seventh ward."