

taxes; and the street commissioner of such corporation shall be the overseer of such road district; and it shall be his duty to expend the money and labor collected by him on the road warrant of the president and trustees, and make due returns to them in writing, in all respects the same as the overseers of highways are required by law to make returns to the town supervisors. And such street commissioner shall, on or before the fifteenth day of November, in each year, make due returns in writing, under oath, to the town clerk of the town of Delavan, of all the delinquent road taxes in such district number one; and such delinquent taxes shall be collected in the same manner as other delinquent road taxes in the said town, and the money, when collected, shall be subject to the order of the president and trustees of such corporation."

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 5, 1862.

CHAPTER 318.

[Published April 15, 1862.]

AN ACT to repeal section 37 of chapter 98 of the private and local [general] laws of 1861, entitled "an act to amend and consolidate an act entitled 'an act to incorporate the city of Racine, in the county of Racine,' approved August 8th, 1848, and the several acts amendatory thereof."
