CHAPTER 198.

[Published April 17, 1863.]

AN ACT to appropriate a certain sum of money to the persons therein named, for compiling the legislative manual.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is hereby appropriated to F. M. Stewart, chief clerk of the senate, and to John S. Dean, chief clerk of the assembly, out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriate, the sum of fifty dollars each, in full payment for extra services in compiling, arranging and reading proof of the legislative manual for the year 1863. Appropriation to F. M. Stewart and J. S. Dean.

SECTION 2. In case the legislature shall adjourn previous [previously] to the completion of said work, it shall be the duty of the said clerks to forward to each member of their respective houses, the manuals to which they are entitled, by mail or otherwise, as each member shall direct: provided, that the expense of forwarding the same, if sent by mail, be paid to said clerks beforehand, by the persons so directing. Manuals to be sent to members by mail.

SECTION 3. The superintendent of public property is hereby authorized to furnish said clerks with the necessary wrapping paper, twine and mucilage, to enable them to comply with the requirements of section two of this act. Duty of sup't public property.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 1, 1863.
