CHAPTER 47.

[Published March 16, 1868.]

AN ACT to legalize the recorded plot of Jacob's addition to the village of Horicon.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

SECTION 1. The recorded plot of Jacob's addition ^{Plot legalized.} to the village of Horicon, in the county of Dodge, intended to represent the division of the eastern quarter of the south-west quarter of the south-west quarter of section number six, (6,) in township number eleven, (11,) north of range number sixteen (16) east, into streets, alleys, lots, blocks, and out lots, as originally plotted and recorded by the late proprietor, Benjamin F. Jacobs, is hereby legalized, and declared to be as valid and effectual for all purposes whatever, as the same would have been, had the provisions of chapter forty-seven of the revised statutes been strictly complied with in all respects, in plotting, certifying to and acknowledging said plot.

SECTION 2. All conveyances of lots or portions of said "Jacob's addition to the village of Horicon," heretofore executed by the late Benjamin F. Jacobs, ^{Conveyances valid.}

his wife, or his personal representatives, are hereby declared as valid and effectual, to pass the title to the premises therein described, as the same would have been, had the provisions of said chapter forty-seven of the revised statutes been complied with in every respect, in drafting, certifying to and acknowledging said recorded plot.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 10, 1863.

CHAPTER 48.

[Published March 16, 1863.]

AN ACT to amend an act entitled "an act to incorporate the city of Sheboygan," and the several acts amendatory thereof.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Ineligibility of certain officers.

SECTION 1. No person in the city of Sheboygan, engaged in teaching any of the schools of said city, shall be eligible to the office of school commissioner in said city; and no member of the school board of said city shall be employed to teach any of the schools of said city. The common council of said city may make appointments of school commissioners to fill vacancies which may occur from any cause, and the commissioners so appointed shall hold their office until the next charter election. Any school commissioner in said city may be removed from office, for neglect of duty or other official misconduct, by the common council, on a vote of two-thirds of the members thereof present and voting; but said commissioner shall be granted a fair hearing before removal.

Vacancies—how filled.

Removal of school commissioner.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 13, 1863.
