[Published March 16, 1863.]

AN ACT relating to the sale of lands for the unpaid taxes of the year 1861, in certain cases.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. If, for any cause, the treasurer of any county or city did not sell the lands which he was authorized to sell for unpaid taxes, by chapter 339 of the general laws of the year 1862, the treasurer of such county or city shall, on the first Monday of May next, proceed to sell all lands on which the taxes, interest and charges for the year eighteen hundred and sixty-one shall then remain unpaid. Such sale shall be conducted, and notice thereof given, in the same manner, in all respects, as provided by law in case of other sales made by such officer. Lands sold under this act may be redeemed from such sale, and deeds thereof shall be given, in the same manner and with like effect as in other cases of sales by such officer. Sale of lands for unpaid taxes of 1861. Redemption, &c.

SECTION 2. This act shall be in force and take effect immediately after its passage and publication.
