

CHAPTER 5.

[Published January 30, 1864.]

AN ACT to legalize the town meeting of the town of Whitewater, in the county of Walworth, held January 13th, in the year 1864, and to authorize the supervisors of said town to dispose of surplus money.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Town meeting legalized.

SECTION 1. The town meeting held in the town of Whitewater, in the county of Walworth, on the thirteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, for the purpose of raising money by special tax to pay extra bounties to volunteers in the military service of the United States, is hereby declared legal and valid to all intents and purposes for which the same was held, the same as if all the provisions of the law then in force relative to holding town meetings, had been strictly complied with.

Disbursement of moneys raised.

SECTION 2. The supervisors of said town are hereby authorized and required to disburse the moneys raised in pursuance of the vote of said town meeting, in such manner and in such sums as they may deem advisable, for the purpose of filling, by the enlistment of volunteers, the quota of said town under the last call of the president of the United States, (made October seven-teenth, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three,) for 800,000 men.

Transfer of unexpended money.

SECTION 3. The supervisors of said town are hereby authorized to transfer to the fund of said town for the support of families of volunteers, all money raised in pursuance of the vote of said town meeting, remaining unexpended, whenever the quota of said town, under the aforesaid call of the president of the United States, shall have been furnished.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved January 28, 1864.
