

CHAPTER 180.

[Published May 3, 1865.]

AN ACT to change the Waukesha county bank to a national banking association.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Waukesha county bank, located and doing business in the village of Waukesha, Waukesha county, and state of Wisconsin, is hereby authorized and empowered to change and convert its capital stock or organization into a national banking association, as hereinafter provided, under the general banking law of the United States, and according to the provisions of the forty-fourth section of the act of congress entitled "an act to provide a national currency secured by a pledge of United States bonds, and to provide for the circulation and redemption thereof," approved June 3d, 1864.

May organize under national banking law.

SECTION 2. Whenever the stockholders of said bank, owning at least two-thirds of the capital stock thereof, shall give their assent in writing, in due form of law, to change and convert said bank into a national banking association, and such assent having been filed in said bank, it shall and may be lawful for the directors thereof, or a majority of them, to proceed at once to change and convert the same into a national association, with such name and style as they may choose to adopt, and also to perfect the organization of such new association, in pursuance of and in accordance with the provisions of said act of congress, anything in the laws of this state to the contrary notwithstanding.

Assent of holders of two-thirds of stock necessary.

SECTION 3. Whenever the organization of such new association shall be complete under and in pursuance of said act of congress, all the property, personal and real, and of every kind and description, belonging to said Waukesha county bank, shall become and is hereby declared vested in the said national banking association, and the latter shall be deemed in law to be the successor of the former, so far as relates to its legal rights and remedies, and also its liabilities. And from thence and thereafter, and said Waukesha county bank shall cease to be subject to the law of this state under which it organized and had its existence, except so far as relates to the redemption of its circulating notes, and they may be retired by the new association in the mode and manner prescribed by the general banking law of this state, and the amendatory acts thereto: provided, however, that nothing in this act contained shall be so construed as to relieve the new association from the payment of the state tax, as now provided by law, until eighty per cent. of the circulating notes of said Waukesha county bank shall have been retired, pursuant to section eleven (11) of chapter (71) of the revised statutes, and the acts amendatory thereof.

When property shall vest in new association.

Notes of old association may be retired by new.

State tax.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 22, 1865.

CHAPTER 181.

[Published May 6, 1865.]

AN ACT to change the Bank of Whitewater to a national banking association.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

May organize under national banking law.

SECTION 1. The Bank of Whitewater, located and doing business in the village of Whitewater, county of Walworth, and state of Wisconsin, is hereby authorized and empowered to change and convert its capital stock or organization into a national banking association, as hereinafter provided, under the general banking law of the United States, and according to the provisions of the forty-fourth section of the act of congress entitled "an act to provide a national currency secured by a pledge of United States bonds, and to provide for the circulation and redemption thereof," approved June 3d, 1864.

Assent of holders of two-thirds of stock necessary.

SECTION 2. Whenever the stockholders of said bank owning at least two-thirds of the capital stock thereof, shall give their assent in writing, in due form of law, to change and convert said bank into a national banking association, and such assent having been filed in