

CHAPTER 211.

[Published May 4, 1865.]

AN ACT to authorize the town of Watertown, in Jefferson county, to pay certain moneys to the families of drafted men and persons furnishing substitutes.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

How moneys raised may be appropriated.

SECTION 1. All money heretofore raised by tax in the town of Watertown, Jefferson county, for the purpose of paying bounties to volunteers, which remains unexpended, and all to be raised for such purpose in pursuance of a vote of said town heretofore taken, may be appropriated and used for the purpose of paying to the family of each man drafted under the last call of the president for volunteers, the same sum as said town is now authorized by law to pay to volunteers who shall enlist and be credited on the quota of said town.

Ibid.

SECTION 2. The aforesaid moneys may also be appropriated and used for the purpose of paying two hundred dollars to each person liable to draft in said town, who shall furnish a substitute and have him credited on the quota of said town, under the said last call.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 25, 1865.

CHAPTER 212.

[Published May 6, 1865.]

AN ACT to legalize the acts of a special election held on the 9th day of January, 1865, in the town of Fayette, La Fayette county, Wisconsin, and authorizing the collection of the tax voted at said election.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Bounty tax proceedings legalized.

SECTION 1. The special election held in the town of Fayette, La Fayette county, Wisconsin, on the 9th day of January, 1865, for the purpose of raising a special tax to pay bounties to volunteers enlisting in the military service of the United States, is hereby declared legal and valid, for all the intents and purposes for which the same was held; and all acts done in pursuance of the vote and votes of said election, by the officers of said town, or any of them, are hereby declared valid, the same as if the law had been fully complied with in conducting said election. Nothing in this act shall be so construed as to sanction the payment of more than $200 to any volunteer, or person providing himself with a substitute. Limit to bounty.

SECTION 2. All acts of the officers of said town, in proceeding to collect said tax, are hereby legalized and declared valid. Collection of tax legalized.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 25, 1865.

CHAPTER 213.

[Published May 5, 1865.]

AN ACT to legalize a special town meeting in the town of Cedarburgh, Ozaukee county, held January 14th, 1865, and to authorize the town board of supervisors to issue town orders for certain purposes therein named.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The special town meeting of the town of Cedarburgh, in the county of Ozaukee, held on the fourteenth day of January, A. D. 1865, and all the acts, votes, resolves and proceedings of said meeting, are declared and made legal, valid and binding in the law, the same as if the requirements of the law had in all respects been strictly and fully complied with in notifying and conducting said meeting; and the tax of five thousand dollars voted at said meeting, shall be apportioned and collected as provided by law. Bounty tax proceedings legalized.

SECTION 2. The said tax shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner as the general town Collection of tax.
