CHAPTER 109.

[Published April 24, 1866.]

AN ACT to amend section 9 of chap. 261 of the general laws of 1864, entitled "an act to provide for realizing the amount of unpaid mortgages due to the state."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

SECTION 1. Section nine of chapter two hundred and sixty-one of the general laws of 1864, is hereby amended, so as to read as follows: "Section four of chapter one hundred and thirty of the general laws of 1858, is hereby amended, so as to read as follows:

'When any land or other property mortgaged to the state, shall have been sold upon foreclosure of such mortgage, or shall have been bid in for the state, at a sale made by the commissioners, for a sum insufficient to pay the principal and interest so secured, with the proper costs and disbursements, the commissioners are hereby required to take proper steps to collect the remainder due from the person who may be personally responsible for the payment of the same; and for that

If land shall be bid in for a sum less than that due, suit may be instituted for balance.

Expenses of actions &c.

purpose to cause an action to be instituted when there appears probable ground for supposing that judgment may be recovered and collected for such deficiency. Such action shall be brought by the attorney general, commenced, carried on and tried in pursuance of and according to the provisions of sec. 4 of chap. 123 of the R. S. The commissioners shall certify the expenses of such actions to the secretary of state, who shall draw his warrant for their payment upon the general fund and all costs collected in such cases, shall be paid to the state treasurer, who shall credit them to the general fund; and provided, further, that the commissioners may, in their discretion, at any time receive in full settlement the principal and interest owing to the state, and all costs and disbursements, deducting therefrom the net amount for which the commissioners may have sold the mortgaged lands.' ”

Repeal.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication; and all acts or parts of acts conflicting with the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

Approved April 12, 1866.

CHAPTER 110.

[Published April 24, 1866.]

AN ACT relating to the license and keeping of dogs, and to repeal chapter 415 of the general laws of 1865, and chapter 404 of the general laws of 1862, relating to the license and keeping of dogs.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

Assessor to make list of persons owning dogs, and return to town, city or village clerk.

SECTION 1. It shall be the duty of the assessor of each town, city or incorporated village, on or before the first Monday in July, or at the time he is required by law to make the assessment of such town, city or incorporated village, to annually make out and return to the office of the clerk of such town, city or village, a list of the names of each and every person owning or keeping any dog or dogs in the town, city or incorporated village
