

assistant, two porters and five door-keepers, each stationery to the amount of fifteen dollars, and postage stamps to the amount of ten dollars each; also, to each messenger of the assembly, stationery to the amount of five dollars, and postage stamps to the amount of five dollars each.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 2, 1867.

CHAPTER 21.

[Published March 6, 1867.]

AN ACT to amend sections five, nine, ten and eleven of chapter 77 of the general laws of 1866, entitled "an act for the regulation of trade in certain cases," and in addition to said act.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section five of chapter 77 of the general laws of 1866 is hereby amended, by adding the following words after the word "pounds," at the end of said section: "or in quarter-barrels containing fifty pounds, or in eighth-barrels or packages containing twenty-five pounds." Sec. 5 amended.

SECTION 2. Section nine of said act is hereby amended, by striking out all after the word "timber," in the third line of said section, and inserting the following words: "All barrels shall be well hooped with ten good hoops, all half-barrels or quarter-barrels with eight good hoops, and the one-eighth barrels or packages with six good hoops, and shall be made in a substantial and workmanlike manner." Sec. 9 amended.

SECTION 3. Section ten of chapter 77 aforesaid is hereby amended, by striking out all of said section, and inserting in lieu thereof the following words: "The fees for overhauling, inspecting, repacking and branding, including furnishing salt, shall be for each barrel, ninety cents; for each half barrel, fifty cents; for each quarter-barrel, thirty cents, and for each Fees for inspecting.

eighth-barrel or package, twenty cents, exclusive of cooperage, which fees shall be paid by the person employing the inspector."

Fees from deputies.

SECTION 4. Section eleven of chapter 77 aforesaid is hereby amended, by striking out all of said section, and inserting in lieu thereof the following words: "The state inspector may receive from each of his deputies for every cask of fish inspected by him, the following fees: For each barrel, fifteen cents; for each half barrel, ten cents; for each quarter-barrel, six cents, and for each eighth-barrel or package, three cents."

All fresh-water fish to be inspected and branded.

SECTION 5. Hereafter no fresh-water fish, packed in barrels or other packages, as provided in this act or the act to which this is amendatory, shall be sold or offered or exposed for sale, or be removed from the county in which such fish was packed as aforesaid, without having been duly inspected and branded by the state inspector of fish, or one of his duly appointed deputies; and any person who shall sell or offer or expose for sale any such fish, or shall remove or cause to be removed any such fish from the county in which the same may be packed, before such fish shall have been duly inspected and branded as aforesaid, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall forfeit a sum not less than fifty cents nor more than five dollars for each barrel or package of fish so sold, or offered or exposed for sale, or removed.

Ibid.

SECTION 6. It is hereby made the duty of every person or persons who may be engaged in catching and packing any fresh-water fish, to have the same duly inspected and branded before such fish shall be offered for sale, removed from the county, or otherwise disposed of; and it shall also be the duty of every consignee of any fresh-water fish, packed in the manner provided in the act of which this is amendatory, or in this act, if such fish have not been previously inspected, to have such inspection made before offering the same for sale, or making any delivery thereof to the owner, his agent or other person.

Offices, weights, &c.

SECTION 7. It is hereby further made the duty of the state fish inspector, and all deputy inspectors, to have suitable and convenient offices for the transaction of business, to procure sealed scales and weights, and carefully weigh all fish offered for inspection, and also to see that all violations of the provisions of the act of which this is amendatory, and of this act, are duly enforced.

SECTION 8. The state fish inspector shall be held liable in any court of competent jurisdiction, for all damages which may accrue to any person or persons for any malfeasance or misfeasance of his duties, or of either of his deputies, and shall also be liable to a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, in case of failure either of himself or any deputy to comply with all the duties imposed on him or them by any of the provisions of this act or the act of which this is amendatory. Liability of inspector.

SECTION 9. An act entitled "an act to define, conform and legalize the acts of a fish inspector in the city of Milwaukee," approved March 17th, 1859, and the provisions of all other acts which in any manner conflict with the provisions of the act of which this is amendatory, or of this act, are hereby repealed. Repealed.

SECTION 10. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
Approved March 4, 1867.

CHAPTER 22.

[Published March 6, 1867.]

AN ACT to authorize the county of Marathon to convey certain lands to the state, in satisfaction of certain indebtedness.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The clerk of the board of supervisors of the county of Marathon, in behalf of said county, is hereby authorized to convey to the state of Wisconsin forty thousand five hundred and forty acres of land, situated in said county of Marathon; the said land to be taken from towns 26, in the south part of said county, and extending north until the whole amount shall be taken, in such distinct lots or parcels, and without exception, as the said county shall now hold Clerk of board to convey lands to state.